Directors' Report

The directors submit their report and the financial statements of the Company for the year ended 30 June 2011

Principal activities and review of the business

The Company is dormant and did not trade during the year

The financial statements of the ultimate parent company (Albemarle & Bond Holdings plc) contain a review of the group activities, of which this company is a member. Their financial statements do not form part of this report but they may be obtained from their registered office as set out on page 1

Directors and their interests

The present membership of the board is set out on page 1

No director had any interest in the shares of the Company during the year. The interest of those directors who were directors of the ultimate parent company are shown in the financial statements of that company

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) as adopted by the European Union. Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state that the financial statements comply with IFRSs as adopted by the European Union;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business

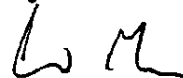

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

The directors are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the Company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Audit

For the year ended 30 June 2011 the Company was entitled to exemption from audit under Section 480 of the Companies Act 2006. Members have not required the Company to obtain an audit in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006

Signed on behalf of the Board
