TRUSTEES' REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2023

The Board of Trustees presents its report and audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2023. The Trustees have adopted the provisions of the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" in preparing the annual report and financial statements of the charitable company.

The financial statements comply with the accounting policies set out in the notes to the accounts, the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Charites Act 2011, the Companies Act 2006, and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the financial reporting standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland published in October 2019.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The principal activity and charitable objective of the company, as set out in the Memorandum of Association, is to foster, promote and increase public interest in, and knowledge and understanding of, the Arts in general and, in particular, Medieval, Renaissance, Baroque and Classical Music. Also to protect and conserve, or assist in the protection and conservation of, for the public benefit, any building, artefact, manuscript, collection, archive or other records which are of historic artistic or scientific interest, value or importance to the local, regional or national heritage of the United Kingdom or any other country anywhere in the world.

The charity, operating as the National Centre for Early Music (NCEM), aims to be the national advocate of early music in England, providing early music experiences and opportunities of the highest quality to an ever widening and diversified community, seeking to promote the public understanding and enjoyment of early music through historically informed performances and related creative learning programmes. We are also committed to developing and promoting our home - St Margaret's Church, York - as a significant venue for music and creative learning embracing a wide range of musical genres.

Public Benefit

The NCEM is a music education charity focusing primarily on the promotion of historically informed performance (aka Early Music). The NCEM believes that its work creates public benefit in all five categories noted within the Charities Act:

- Democratic value
- · Cultural and creative value
- Educational value
- Social and community value
- Global value.

The activities in this report reflect the NCEM's commitment to best practice, fostering talent and creativity and supporting the local and cultural infrastructure. By concentrating on the public benefit that the NCEM can bring, the NCEM will be better placed to meet the challenges and opportunities of the future – even in times of considerable economic uncertainty.

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty to have due regard to the guidance on public benefit published by the Charity Commission in exercising their powers or duties.

Democratic Value

From its inception in 2000, the NCEM has set itself up as a thriving centre of artistic excellence, bringing back life to a previously derelict grade-one listed building and encouraging the local community to re-own the building as a focus for local activity. To this end, the NCEM has vigorously pursued a wide variety of education projects, whilst offering its facilities for local hire, housing local archival material, and ensuring its facilities are accessible for people with special needs.

Cultural and Creative Value

Cultural and creative value is created through NCEM's work in preserving, promoting and performing music of enduring interest and quality from a diverse range of styles, times and conventions. In early music it encourages research into performance practice and neglected repertoire, while its year-round programme also promotes artists from a range of backgrounds and from around the world. It has also worked in partnership with a spectrum of providers, including the Black Swan Folk Club, the University of York, Manasamitra, South Asian Arts UK and partners committed to the Arts Council's Let's Create Strategy – partnerships that extend and strengthen the range of musical events available to the community, and provide performance opportunities for rising professional artists. The artistic programme promoted by the NCEM has attracted audiences of all ages, providing a stimulating and informative range of musical experiences, which distinctively complement and extend the programmes of other regional providers.

Educational Value

The NCEM's strands of musical activity are complemented by an active programme of educational innovation and creative learning (see below). This encompasses early music, community music, and work with students of all ages (including very young children, primary, secondary, Further Education, Higher Education and adults) supported by a range of educational resources.

Social and Community Value

The NCEM promotes music that is inspired by a sense of time, identity and place, recognising its social, cultural and historical context whilst creating opportunities for new perspectives. In exploring these themes, the NCEM brings together historical performance practice with the contemporary, and ranges across folk, jazz, classical and traditional music through all periods and cultures. This programme has developed well and provides a series of new experiences to a new audience, allowing locally based representatives of international groups opportunities to celebrate their culture. A consistent theme of NCEM's programme has been participative research into the historical context of York, Yorkshire, its music and its cultural heritage. The NCEM is a key partner with the City of York Council in the strategic development of the City's culture to ensure the city's culturally rich inheritance is available to a wider audience, both regionally and nationally.

Global Value

The international standing of the York Early Music Festival creates powerful messages about the UK as a cultural force in the modern world. Broadcasts through BBC Radio 3, the European Broadcasting Union and across the BBC World Service extend the reach of the Festival, the good name of the City of York and that of the NCEM. By promoting music that reflects the unique reputation of the city's historic environment, the NCEM contributes strongly to York's ambassadorial role for the UK, encouraging senior members of the diplomatic, political and arts communities to visit the city.

During the year the NCEM continued to raise its profile across Europe. The NCEM is a key member of the European Early Music Network network 'REMA' with the NCEM CEO representing the NCEM on the REMA board. In March 2019, the NCEM hosted a highly successful REMA annual conference and General Assembly bringing over 50 European early music professionals to the city for a weekend of lectures, discussions and concerts. The NCEM is a partner in the EEEmerging+ programme (2019-2023) funded by Creative Europe, and is partnering with Institute Cervantes and the Spanish Ministry of Culture to promote Spanish music and ensembles in the UK, and with AMUZ (Antwerp) and Misteria Paschalia Festival (Krakow) through the European Festivals Fund for Emerging Artists.

Grant making activities

The NCEM's Board of Trustees has ultimate responsibility for all grant-making decisions in line with The York Early Music Foundation's charitable purposes and any restrictions agreed with donors and funding partners. However, the Board of Trustees may give certain decision-making responsibilities to its executive team within its framework of delegation.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

This report covers the accounting period 1 April 2022 to 31 March 2023, detailing the activities and performance of The York Early Music Foundation operating as the National Centre for Early Music (NCEM) and its trading subsidiary, York Early Music Enterprises Limited.

In 2022/23 the NCEM directly promoted 3 festivals of early music (2 in York, 1 in Beverley), and a year-round music programme at St Margaret's Church totalling 77 concerts for which we sold 8,328 tickets as well as two online early music festivals sharing 22 performances for which we sold 1,750 tickets, alongside our ambitious learning and participation programme and artist development activities.

Our partnership with BBC Radio 3 enabled us to bring performances from our early music festivals and projects to 3.375m listeners in 14 broadcasts in 2022/23 – a combination of live concerts, concerts recorded for later broadcast, and Early Music Shows, in particular. BBC Radio 3 celebrated Ensemble Molière on International Women's Day (8th March), featuring them on the Lunchtime Concert, titled 'Femmes d'excellence', performing 18th-century French music by women composers and a new piece commissioned from 2019 NCEM Young Composers Award winner Sarah Cattley.

The 2022 York Early Music Festival 'Connections' celebrated the return of international musicians to York after the years of covid challenges. Highlights were 3 large performances in York Minster (The Sixteen, Tallis Scholars & Gabrieli Consort) and the International Young Artists Competition deferred from 2021 to July 2022. Despite obstacles including covid & visa issues (due to the Ukraine/Russia conflict) all of the 10 shortlisted ensembles from across Europe took part to some degree, albeit only 7 were able to compete in the final in front of a distinguished international jury. Singer Helen Charlston, winner of numerous awards and a regular visitor to York – was announced as a new member of the team of York Early Music Festival Artistic Advisers for the 2023-2025.

The NCEM's CEO continues as a board member of REMA - the European Early Music Network - and meets regularly with European colleagues to exchange ideas and hear new groups. This led to NCEM being one of eight major European early music organisations to successfully bid for funding through the 2014 Creative Europe Cultural Programme for a 'large-scale cooperation project' entitled EEEmerging: Emerging European Ensembles 2014-2018, followed by EEEmerging+ running from September 2019 to February 2023 (extended to November 2023) with Athens Conservatoire (Greece), National Forum of Music - Wrocław (Poland), Torroella Festival of Montgrí (Spain), Internationale Händel-Festspiele Göttingen (Germany), Centro di Musica Antica della Fundazione Ghislieri - Pavia (Italy), Festival Kvarner - Opatija (Croatia), Riga Early Music Centre (Latvia) and the Centre for Early Music in Ambronay (France). This programme allows the NCEM to work with European colleagues to nurture emerging young ensembles, and in 22/23 we welcomed Prisma, Sarbacanes and Ensemble La Palatine to York and Beverley, and supported the UK tour of El Gran Teatro del Mundo. With the UK no longer participating in Creative Europe, the NCEM is exploring alternative sources of funding to enable us to continue to engage with these partners that are vital for the continued development of early music in England.

The New Generation Baroque Ensemble partnership between NCEM, BBC Radio 3 and the Royal College of Music continues to develop. Ensemble Moliere completed their final year with public concerts in both Beverley and at the RCM in the spring of 2023 alongside a professional recording with Linn producer Philip Hobbs at the NCEM (part funded by BBC Radio 3). In January 2023, partners hosted a second Development Day for ensembles interested in potentially joining the scheme and in July 2023 announced Ensemble Augelletti as the second New Generation Baroque Ensemble.

As chair of the UK early music promotors network, the NCEM continued to host regular hybrid network meetings, and invited Ensemble Molière and Ensemble La Palatine to present to the network during their residencies and supported our very successful first tour in November 2022 with EEEmerging+ ensemble El Gran Teatro del Mundo, visiting 6 venues across England: NCEM, St George's Bristol, St Johns Smith Square, Lakeside Arts Nottingham, Turner Sims Southampton and Cambridge Early Music. This network enables UK's early music promotors to provide essential support to each other, share opportunities, and coordinate development projects.

CREATIVE LEARNING PROGRAMME

The NCEM continues to support a lively year-round creative learning programme for people of all ages supported by the Mayfield Valley Arts Trust and a variety of independent trusts and foundations. The programme is designed to provide opportunities for people to make music and explore their creative potential. The activities focus not only on music from the past, but also contemporary music and music technology, and include an ever-expanding range of learning resources.

NCEM Young Composers Award

The NCEM's work to widen to reach of the NCEM Young Composers Award continues to reward, with the 2022 award in partnership with Consone Quartet bringing our highest ever number of registrations and applications. The award also annually widens it's reach with new premiere venues, with the premiere taking place at Stour Festival in Kent and later broadcast on BBC Radio 3.

I Can Play!

I Can Play! provides music-making opportunities for D/deaf children across the City of York, supporting them to make a connection with music, gain confidence, raise aspirations, understand their right to access high quality music teaching, and develop their identity as D/deaf musicians. It also aims to engage with families and upskilling educators. I Can Play! is run by the NCEM in partnership with Music and the Deaf, Lollipop, and the University of York, and is made possible by the strong partnership between NCEM and York Arts Education who host the sessions as part of the weekly music provision at York Music Centre.

The Minster Minstrels

NCEM's youth early music group, the Minster Minstrels, continues in successful partnership with York Arts Education, running during term time as one of the ensemble options at York Music Centre. The ensemble offers young people aged 6-18 the rare opportunity to explore period music using modern instruments and they are increasingly recognised as an exceptionally talented youth group. The ensemble meets during term time on Saturday mornings under the new expert leadership of baroque violinist Nina Kumin who specialises in creating improvisation games to build confidence, technical skills and knowledge of different baroque styles.

Workshops

The NCEM enjoys partnerships with a wide range of performers and music organisations and works to facilitate opportunities to benefit local and regional young musicians through these connections. 2022/23 saw the NCEM's new partnership with York Music Forum Jazz Orchestra flourish, offering workshop and performance opportunities for this exciting young group of musicians with visiting artists – Zoe Rahman and Trish Clowes, as well as workshops for GCSE music students at York secondary schools with Making Tracks and Manasamitra.

Early Years

The NCEM is working in partnership with OAE Education, York Music Hub and the University of York to support early years music and KS1 provision in York over the next five years.

Family Friendly

NCEM's family friendly programme, funded by a private donor and the Mayfield Valley Arts Trust, continued to offer musical experiences across a range of genres and interactive experiences for young minds.

Health and Wellbeing

The NCEM continues to develop arts activities that have positive impacts on health and wellbeing. Cuppa and a Chorus, established in 2017 as part of 'Culture & Wellbeing In York' with initial support from City of York Council, has a primary focus on improving wellbeing through communal singing. Our pilot project of six initial sessions showed a clear boost in mood experienced by those taking part, and with continued funding from a variety of trusts, the project has proved a core part of the NCEM's community activities, flourishing during covid, continuing to grow and provide leadership opportunities for community music students from the Universities of York and York St John.

Music Hubs

The NCEM works to develop the sector, particularly through close partnership working with two Music Education Hubs in the region – York Music Hub and the East Riding Music Education Hub - seeking to develop inclusive practice and ensure that every child and young person has access to musical opportunity, in line with the National Plan for Music Education 2022 – The Power of Music to Change Lives.

Life-Long Learning

The NCEM is keen to encourage learning at all levels and all ages. It coordinated a number of adult learning opportunities, workshops and open access days all of which are detailed on the NCEM's website www.ncem.co.uk

Partnerships and Support

The NCEM's ambitious artistic and learning programmes are supported by a variety of public funds, trust funds, commercial income and by an increasing number of individuals who have pledged support through the NCEM Patrons scheme. The NCEM Patrons scheme, which offers an opportunity for music lovers to invest their support and become part of the NCEM's future, is continuing to develop momentum, with over 30 members. The NCEM continues to run the Friends of York Early Music Festival which engages with over 100 individuals interested in supporting the annual summer festival.

During the year the NCEM has been successful in drawing in a number of grants:

- from Arts Council England as a National Portfolio Organisation (2018-2023);
- from the City of York Council to retain discretionary rate relief and a three-year SLA up to March 2024;
- from the East Riding of Yorkshire to support the annual Beverley & East Riding Early Music Festival
- from Harrogate Deaf Society to support the I Can Play project
- · from an increasing number of trust funds and individuals;
- and we remain especially grateful to the Mayfield Valley Arts Trust for their continuing annual grant.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

A major priority for the NCEM is professional development and a commitment to youth and to its staff. Many have used the experience gained at NCEM through work experience opportunities, internships and on the events team, as a springboard for professional careers in arts administration. Over the last year NCEM deepened its commitment to widening access to creative careers with new partnerships with Archbishop Holgates School (work experience) and York College (Industry Placement) and continues to work closely with the University of York and the University of York St John, offering festival work experience opportunities, recruiting students as stewards, stage management, and events staff. Postgraduate students from both universities are offered placements in musical leadership on Cuppa and a Chorus and I Can Play.

RESOURCES AND INFORMATION

An important element of NCEM's current work is to strengthen its profile both locally and nationally. Specifically, by acting as a repository of archival material and resources, NCEM is a focus for music practitioners and specific community projects.

Educational Resources

The NCEM produces a number of resources to accompany its education programme. See the Take Part section of NCEM's website.

York Mystery Plays

The NCEM has taken a major role in the reinvigoration of the York Mystery Plays and serves as the international centre for information on the Plays since their revival in 1951. See the York Mystery Plays' website www.yorkmysteryplays.org

COMMERCIAL ACTIVITIES

The NCEM team continues to work exceptionally hard to maximise our non-core business. Since 2015 we experienced significant year on year growth, and whilst covid interrupted this growth, the NCEM exceeded all previous records generating commercial income of £193,316, achieved due to a number of commercial bookings deferred to 2022/23 as a result of covid disruption.

Venue Facilities

NCEM's commercial hire has developed over the past 15 years, evolving from a conference venue to a wedding reception venue as the markets have changed. The NCEM has responded creatively to the changing market, and now the NCEM has become a well-established venue for parties and wedding receptions and is optimistic about the signs of re-growth in the conference market.

Community Hire

As well as providing a venue for specific conferences for clients, the NCEM is also hired out to various organisations who use the space and facilities for their own meetings and events. This is an excellent way of the NCEM serving as a focal point for the local community.

Instrument Hire

The various keyboard instruments owned by NCEM make up a unique collection of instruments that are not otherwise available in the north of England. In addition, NCEM has continued to build up its collection of modern instruments such as chime bars and percussion instruments, which are used for workshops.

HUMAN RESOURCES

NCEM operates with a small but highly skilled team. The executive team comprises of Delma Tomlin (Director and CEO) and Cherry Fricker (Director of Finance and Operations). Delma Tomlin MBE is an established authority on the promotion of early music and York Mystery Plays. In February 2000 she was given an Honorary Doctorate of the University of York in recognition of her work in the city and with the University; in the 2008 New Year's Honours List she was awarded an MBE for services to the arts in Yorkshire, and in December 2020 she was awarded Honorary Freedom of the City of York for her contribution to arts and culture in the City. Delma is a member of the Court of the University of York and took office as the first female Governor of the York Merchant Adventurers' Company from April 2022-2023. Cherry Fricker ACA qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 2001 following a degree in Music. Until June 2023 Cherry was Vice-Chair of Leeds Conservatoire, Chair of the Leeds Conservatoire Audit Committee and co-opted member of the Luminate Education Group Audit Committee.

The NCEM team also includes:

- Dr Christopher Roberts: Operations & Events Manager
- Emily Lynn: Events Co-ordinator

- Deborah Whitwell: Duty Manager

The NCEM also employs a team of casual workers as Events Assistants.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The consolidated net expenditure for the year to 31 March 2023 totalled £33,095 (2021/22 net expenditure £66,315) on total income of £831,299 (21/22 £683,233). The net income on unrestricted funds totalled £32,697 (2021/22 £2,156) increasing unrestricted funds as at 31 March 2023 to £159,763 (2022: £127,066). This is a very strong result achieved through strong artistic performance, continued strong financial management and significant commercial activity.

Plans for Future Periods

In November 2022, the NCEM was successful in its application to be funded as an Arts Council England National Portfolio Organisation and signed a funding agreement in January 2023. Under this funding agreement, Arts Council England will fund NCEM's activities with £275,444 per annum until March 2026. The NCEM's partnership in Creative Europe funded projects ceases at the end of the 2019-2023 EEEmerging+ project in November 2023. As the UK is no longer participating in Creative Europe, the NCEM is exploring alternative ways to continue to partner with our European colleagues on projects benefitting the continued development of early music in England.

Reserves Policy

At 31 March 2023, The York Early Music Foundation held reserves of £152,682 (2022: £119,442) excluding those which are restricted or designated or can only be realised by disposing of fixed assets held for charity use. Of the total reserves of £2,078,505 (2022: £2,111,600), restricted reserves total £1,743,106 (2022: £1,789,487). £175,636 (2022: £195,047) are currently being held as designated reserves which have been set aside to provide £135,500 for future repairs and maintenance of the building, £22,854 to provide for future maintenance of musical instruments, £15,000 to fund future artistic programmes of the York Early Music Festival, and £2,282 designated towards future programmes that support emerging early musicians. The Trustees regard the continuation and steady development of our programmes of great importance.

The Foundation has a 154-year lease at peppercorn rent from the York Diocesan Board of Finance, starting 1999. The Trustees have no legal obligation to the Diocesan Board to maintain St Margaret's Church other than to return the building in the condition in which they acquired it – which was in a state of considerable distress. The quinquennial building report prepared by Martin Stancliffe Architects in 1999 details the state of St Margaret's Church pre-restoration. Since opening the Church as the National Centre for Early Music in April 2000, the Trustees have chosen to maintain the building, and grounds, to as high a standard as is practical for a music charity. The most recent quinquennial report was undertaken in 2023 which confirmed that the building is still in good repair and recommended works are being planned.

Reserves are needed by The York Early Music Foundation both to enable the organisation to take advantage of opportunities for new initiatives and to provide security should some sources of income be vulnerable in the future - having an appropriate level of reserves will allow an opportunity to secure alternative income sources. The Trustees consider an appropriate level of reserves to be 6 months' recurring overhead expenditure on operations of The York Early Music Foundation. The careful financial management over the past few years has provided this important support that has enabled the organisation to survive a very challenging time, and to invest in key development projects for the future.

Appointment of Trustees

The Board of Trustees keeps under review the skills required of the Board. When necessary, the Board seeks new trustees to ensure the maintenance of the necessary mix of skills.

Trustees' Induction and Training

The induction of new trustees is designed to give them a proper understanding of all aspects of the work of the Foundation. It includes meetings with the directors and board members, covering the wide range of projects administered by the Foundation, the responsibilities associated with the care and maintenance of a historic Church, and the powers and responsibilities of the Trustee Board. The welcome pack includes a copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association, previous annual reports and accounts, the business plan, a copy of the Charity Commission Guidance "The Essential Trustee" and other relevant papers.

Remuneration Policy

The Board of Trustees sets the remuneration of the NCEM's key management personnel. In doing so, the Trustees priority is to set pay that attracts and keeps appropriately qualified staff to lead, manage, support and deliver the NCEM's aims, taking into account normal sector rates, with annual increases being in line with inflation.

Equality and Diversity Policy

The NCEM has a regularly reviewed equality and diversity policy. The policy confirms that the NCEM encourages access for all people to attend/or participate in its activities and will not discriminate directly or indirectly against any group or individual through its policies, procedures or operation. The NCEM also recognises and positively values the cultural diversity that exists in British society.

Safeguarding Policy

The York Early Music Foundation recognises that the welfare of all young/vulnerable persons is paramount, and that it has a duty to safeguard the welfare of all young people and vulnerable adults, whatever their age, culture, disability, gender, language, racial origin, religious beliefs or sexual identity. As such the Foundation ensures that the Safeguarding Policy is in line with current regulation and operates effectively within the organisation.

Environmental Policy

Recognising its responsibilities as an ethically guided organisation, The York Early Music Foundation has laid out a voluntary policy regarding its activities and operations and their impact on the environment. Core to the policy is a commitment to integrate environmental management principles into each aspect of the Foundation's day-to-day business to ensure that any environmental issues are addressed.

Investment Powers and Policy

It is the Foundation's policy to obtain funding for activities in its programmes prior to its entering into any commitment. As a result, the Foundation regularly has significant cash funds that are committed to be spent on specific activities and events over a future period. The Board has delegated responsibility to the CEO for the short-term investment of these temporary surplus funds in the Money Market through the Foundation's bankers. The Foundation does not invest funds in financial instruments that could put the capital invested at risk.

Risk Management

The Trustees quarterly review a full and detailed Risk Register that identifies the major strategic, business and operational risks that the NCEM faces and discusses whether the systems and controls that have been established to both monitor and mitigate these risks, are sufficient and appropriate. Each risk has been rated as to the potential severity of each risk alongside the likelihood of it occurring. At each board meeting, trustees identify whether any new risks have arisen that need to be added to the Risk Register.

TRUSTEES' RESPONSIBILITIES

The Trustees (who are also directors of The York Early Music Foundation for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under company law the Trustees must not approve financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the group and parent charitable company, and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure, of the group and parent charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies as described and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP 2019 (FRS 102);
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the group and parent charitable company will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the group and parent charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the group and parent charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the Trustees are:

- there is no relevant audit information of which the group's auditor is unaware, and
- the Trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any

THE YORK EARLY MUSIC FOUNDATION

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of The York Early Music Foundation (the 'parent charitable company') and its subsidiary (the 'group') for the year ended 31 March 2023 which comprise the Consolidated Statement of Financial Activities, the Consolidated and Charity Only Balance Sheets, the Consolidated and Charity Only Cash Flow Statements and the notes to the financial statements, including significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the group's and parent charitable company's affairs as at 31
 March 2023, and of the group's incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Act 2011.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the group and parent charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the Trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the group's or parent charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the Trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the Trustees' Annual Report, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Trustees are responsible for the other information contained within the Annual Report. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. Our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the course of the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

THE YORK EARLY MUSIC FOUNDATION

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Trustees' Report (incorporating the directors' report) for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the directors' report included within the Trustees' Report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of our knowledge and understanding of the group and parent charitable company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatement in the directors' report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Act 2011 require us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate and sufficient accounting records have not been kept by the group and parent charitable company, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the group's and parent charitable company's financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- · certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit; or
- the Trustees were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies' regime and take advantage of the small companies' exemption in preparing the directors' report and from the requirement to prepare a strategic report.

Responsibilities of Trustees

As explained more fully in the Trustees' Responsibilities statement set out on page 13, the Trustees (who are also the directors of the parent charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the Trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Trustees are responsible for assessing the group's and parent charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Trustees either intend to liquidate the group or parent charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

THE YORK EARLY MUSIC FOUNDATION

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

We have been appointed auditor under the Companies Act 2006 and section 151 of the Charities Act 2011 and report in accordance with those Acts.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below:

The objectives of our audit, in respect to fraud are to identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements due to fraud and obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the assessed risks of material misstatement due to fraud, through designing and implementing appropriate responses, and to respond appropriately to fraud or suspected fraud identified during the audit. However, the primary responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud rests with both those charged with governance of the entity and management.

Our approach was as follows:

- During our planning process we gained an understanding of the legal and regulatory frameworks that are applicable to the group and parent charitable company and determined that the most significant of them, which are directly relevant to specific assertions in the financial statements, are those that relate to the reporting framework (FRS 102, the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Act 2011)
 and the relevant tax compliance regulations in the UK;
- We gained an understanding of how the group and parent charitable company are complying with these frameworks by making enquiries of Trustees, key management and if necessary, advisors responsible for legal and compliance matters. We observed key controls and made appropriate enquiries following our review of contracts, interim financial data, board minutes and reports provided to the Trustees:
- We independently assessed the susceptibility of the parent charitable company's financial statements to material misstatement, including how fraud or error might occur by meeting with Trustees and senior management with the skills and experience necessary to determine the risk factors which they believe expose the company to susceptibility to fraud and error. We also considered the impact of any business targets, the personal financial circumstances of management and staff to create a driver for fraud. We considered the culture and controls that the group and parent charitable company has established to address the risks identified and evaluated the effectiveness of processes and procedures to prevent and detect fraud, and how senior management monitors those processes and controls. Where the risk was considered to be higher, we designed then performed audit procedures to address each identified fraud risk. These procedures included, but were not restricted to, testing large and unusual items, journals, and transactions with high estimation uncertainty. These tests were designed to provide reasonable assurance that the financial statements were free from fraud and error; and

• Based on our audit plan and understanding of the risks that specifically affect the group and parent charitable company we designed our audit procedures to identify non-compliance with such laws and regulations identified above. Our procedures involved substantive testing of transactions and walkthrough testing of appropriate controls, with a focus on transactions in the books of prime entry that have characteristics that may indicate fraud or error. We looked for unusual patterns, large or unusual transactions, weaknesses in the payments system and new supplier transactions based on our understanding of the charitable activity; enquiries of Trustees and management and the results from previous audit testing; and focused testing, on specific complex areas based on risk. In addition, we completed procedures to conclude on the other information and disclosures in the Trustees' Report and accounts with the requirements of the relevant accounting standards and UK legislation.

Because of the inherent limitations of an audit, there is a risk that we will not detect all irregularities, including those leading to a material misstatement in the financial statements or non-compliance with regulation. This risk increases the more that compliance with a law or regulation is removed from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, as we will be less likely to become aware of instances of non-compliance. The risk is also greater regarding irregularities occurring due to fraud rather than error, as fraud involves intentional concealment, forgery, collusion, omission or misrepresentation.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at: www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the charitable company's Members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006 and to the charitable company's Trustees, as a body, in accordance with Part 4 of the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the parent charitable company's Members and its Trustees those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the parent charitable company and the parent charitable company's Members, as a body and the parent charitable company's Trustees, as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of preparation

The York Early Music Foundation is a registered charity and private company limited by guarantee, registered in England and Wales. The charity's registered office is as stated on the Trustees' Report.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland issued in October 2019, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102), the Charities Act 2011, the Companies Act 2006 and UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

The York Early Music Foundation constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy notes.

The financial statements are prepared in sterling which is the functional currency of the charity.

(b) Group financial statements

These financial statements consolidate the results of the charity and its wholly owned subsidiary, York Early Music Enterprises Limited, on a line by line basis. As stated in note 16 the charity owns 100% of the share capital of York Early Music Enterprises Limited. A separate Statement of Financial Activities (SOFA), or Income and Expenditure Account, for the Foundation itself is not presented because it has taken advantage of the exemptions afforded by Section 408 of the Companies Act 2006.

(c) Income

All income is included in the SOFA when the charity is legally entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. Where a funder specifies that income must be used in future accounting periods or where income is received for future events it is carried forward as deferred income. Income is stated net of VAT where appropriate.

Government grants received under the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme are recognised in other income in the same period as the corresponding expenditure falls due.

(d) Volunteers and donated services and facilities

In line with the SORP, the value of services provided by volunteers is not incorporated into these financial statements. Volunteers assist with stewarding for events enabling lower staff costs than would otherwise be the case.

(e) Expenditure

All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs relating to the category.

Raising funds comprise the costs associated with attracting non-core income.

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the SOFA on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(f) Allocation of support costs

Instruments

- 5% reducing balance

Office fixtures and fittings
Office computer equipment

25% reducing balance25% straight line

Website costs

- 33.33% reducing balance

The Trustees have opted to tax the building, St Margaret's Church, for VAT.

(h) Investments

Investment in the subsidiary is included at cost less any provision for impairment.

(i) Financial instruments

The charity has financial assets and liabilities that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently measured at their settlement value.

(j) Funds structure

Restricted funds are funds that can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the object of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the funder or when funds are raised for a specific purpose.

Designated funds are unrestricted funds earmarked by the Trustees for particular purposes.

These estimates are continually reviewed and are based on experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.
