Building a better
working world

The Company transferred its business and assets to a continuing group entity, Coveris Flexibles (Gainsborough) UK Limited on 30 September 2015. Although all customers and suppliers were made aware of the transfer, the Joint Liquidators have received some correspondence from potential creditors during the liquidation, which should actually have been addressed to Coveris Flexibles (Gainsborough) UK Limited. All such correspondence has been responded to and dealt with appropriately and there are no outstanding creditor claims.

It is customary in a liquidation to seek confirmation from the relevant Crown authorities that they have no claim in respect of corporation tax, VAT, PAYE and National Insurance Contributions. HM Revenue and Customs have confirmed that they have no claims in respect of corporation tax, PAYE and National Insurance.

Joint liquidators' remuneration and expenses

The Joint Liquidators' remuneration was fixed on a time-cost basis by a resolution of the sole member on 29 September 2016, and it was agreed that the Joint Liquidators' fees and expenses would be met by another group company.

Details of amount paid, name of the payor and relationship between the payor and the Company are available on request to the Joint Liquidators at 1 More London Place, London SE1 2AF.

A contractual arrangement exists with a third party in respect of the Joint Liquidators' remuneration and as such there is no recourse to the estate.

Please note that remuneration paid also relates to the liquidation of several other Coveris group Companies.

Members' rights to further information about, and challenge, remuneration and expenses

In certain circumstances, members are entitled to request further information about our remuneration or expenses, or to apply to court if members consider the costs to be excessive. Further information is provided in Appendix C.

Other matters

Once our final return and account has been filed at Companies House, we will then vacate office and receive our release. Approximately three months after the filing of the final return and account, the Company will be dissolved by the Registrar of Companies.

Yours faithfully
for the Company

Samantha Jane Keen
Joint Liquidator

18.9 Members' request for further information

18.9.—(1) The following may make a written request to the office-holder for further information about remuneration or expenses (other than pre-administration costs in an administration) set out in a progress report under rule 18.4(1)(b), (c) or (d) or a final report or account under rule 18.14—

(a) a secured creditor,

(b) an unsecured creditor with the concurrence of at least 5% in value of the unsecured creditors (including the creditor in question),

(c) members of the company in a members' voluntary winding up with at least 5% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at general meetings of the company;

(d) any unsecured creditor with the permission of the court, or

(e) any member of the company in a members' voluntary winding up with the permission of the court

(2) A request or an application to the court for permission, by such a person or persons must be made or filed with the court (as applicable) within 21 days of receipt of the report or account by the person, or by the last of them in the case of an application by more than one member or creditor.

(3) The office-holder must, within 14 days of receipt of such a request respond to the person or persons who requested the information by—

(a) providing all of the information requested,

(b) providing some of the information requested, or

(c) declining to provide the information requested

(4) The office-holder may respond by providing only some of the information requested or decline to provide the information if—

(a) the time or cost of preparation of the information would be excessive, or

(b) disclosure of the information would be prejudicial to the conduct of the proceedings,

(c) disclosure of the information might reasonably be expected to lead to violence against any person; or

(d) the office-holder is subject to an obligation of confidentiality in relation to the information

(5) An office-holder who does not provide all the information or declines to provide the information must inform the person or persons who requested the information of the reasons for so doing

(6) A creditor and a member of the company in a members' voluntary winding up, who need not be the same as the creditor or members who requested the information, may apply to the court within 21 days of—

- (a) the office-holder giving reasons for not providing all of the information requested, or
  - (b) the expiry of the 14 days within which an office-holder must respond to a request
- (7) The court may make such order as it thinks just on an application under paragraph (6).

18.34 Members' claim that remuneration is excessive

18.34.—(1) This rule applies to an application in an administration, a winding-up or a bankruptcy made by a person mentioned in paragraph (2) on the grounds that—

- (a) the remuneration charged by the office-holder is in all the circumstances excessive;
- (b) the basis fixed for the office-holder's remuneration under rules 18.16, 18.18, 18.19, 18.20 and 18.21 (as applicable) is inappropriate, or
- (c) the expenses incurred by the office-holder are in all the circumstances excessive.

(2) The following may make such an application for one or more of the orders set out in rule 18.36 or 18.37 as applicable—

- (a) a secured creditor
- (b) an unsecured creditor with either—
  - (i) the concurrence of at least 10% in value of the unsecured creditors (including that creditor), or
  - (ii) the permission of the court, or
- (c) in a members' voluntary winding up—
  - (i) members of the company with at least 10% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at general meetings of the company, or
  - (ii) a member of the company with the permission of the court

(3) The application by a creditor or member must be made no later than eight weeks after receipt by the applicant of the progress report under rule 18.3, or final report or account under rule 18.14 which first reports the charging of the remuneration or the incurring of the expenses in question ("the relevant report")
