DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors present their report and un-audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2019.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITY AND BUSINESS REVIEW

The Company is dormant.

RESULTS AND DIVIDENDS

The state of affairs of the Company is set out in the attached accounts. The company had no income or costs in the current and prior year and accordingly a statement of comprehensive income is not presented. There were no items of other comprehensive income to report.

The directors do not recommend the payment of a dividend for the year.

EVENTS SINCE THE BALANCE SHEET DATE

There have been no major events since the balance sheet date.

GOING CONCERN

The Company's business activities are described in the business review above.

The Company is part of a group which has considerable financial resources. As a consequence, the directors believe that the Company is well placed to manage its business risks successfully.

After making enquiries, the directors have a reasonable expectation that the Company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Accordingly, they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the annual report and accounts.

DIRECTORS AND THEIR INTERESTS

The directors, who served throughout the year and up to the date of this report, were:

T Brantley (appointed 15 March 2019)

F Budd (resigned 27 March 2019)

A Joshi

T Kawash

J Kitts (resigned 24 December 2020)

Z Kozanhan (appointed 24 December 2020)

T Moran (resigned 15 March 2019)

The directors do not have any beneficial interests in shares of the company or other McDermott Group undertakings required to be disclosed under Schedule 7 of the Companies Act 2006.

DIRECTORS' QUALIFYING THIRD PARTY INDEMNITY PROVISIONS

The Company has granted an indemnity to one or more of its directors against liability in respect of proceedings brought by third parties, subject to the conditions set out in the Companies Act 2006. Such qualifying third party indemnity provision remains in force as at the date of approving the directors' report.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the provisions applicable to companies entitled to the small companies exemption.

Approved by the Board of Directors and signed on behalf of the Board.

T Brantley

Director

STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law they have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with UK accounting standards and applicable law (UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including FRS 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland.

Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- assess the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern; and
- use the going concern basis of accounting unless they either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are responsible for such internal control as they determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.
