DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors present their report and the unaudited financial statements for NCP London Soho Limited ("the Company") for the year ended 30 September 2021. The company is dormant and has not traded during the financial year.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES AND FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

The Company has been dormant within the meaning of section 480 of the Companies Act 2006 throughout the period. The directors envisage that the Company will remain dormant in the forthcoming period.

PROFIT AND LOSS ACCOUNT

No profit and loss account or statement of comprehensive income have been presented with these unaudited financial statements as the Company has not received income, incurred expenditure or recognised any gains or losses during either the accounting period under review or the preceding accounting period. There have been no movements in shareholders' funds during the accounting period under review or the preceding accounting period.

DIRECTORS

The director who held office throughout the period and up to the date of signing of the financial statements was as follows:
- H Matsui

From 1 October 2020 to date the following changes have taken place:

- R C England (appointed 17 December 2021)
- J P Scott (resigned 18 October 2021)

DIRECTORS' INDEMNITIES

The Company has maintained qualifying third-party indemnity insurance throughout the financial period and up to the signing of the financial statements on behalf of its directors and officers.

STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions within Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.
