9 General Meetings

- 9 1 Members are entitled to attend general meetings either personally or (in the case of a member organisation) by an authorised representative. General meetings are called on at least 21 clear days' written notice to all members specifying the time and place of the meeting, the business to be discussed and, in the case of an AGM, specifying the meeting as such
- 9 2 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present. There is a quorum at a general meeting if the number of members or authorised representatives personally present is at least four one third of the members. In all cases, including decisions taken and resolving if there is a valid quorum, there cannot be a majority present and voting of local authority members or any representatives of landfill operators. Any such decisions can only be in the form of a recommendation to refer the issue to the full board. If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or such time and place as the Trustees may determine.
- 9 3 The Chairman or (if the Chairman is unable or unwilling to do so) some other member elected by those present presides at a general meeting
- The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, at least seven days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given, specifying the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
- 9 5 Except where otherwise provided by these Articles, every issue is decided by a majority of the votes cast. Notwithstanding this provision, a vote is invalid if at the time of the decision, the majority of those present and voting were either authorised representatives of local authorities or authorised representatives of registered persons under section 47 of the Finance Act 1996. 18
- 9 6 The Charity may hold an AGM in every year which all members shall be entitled to attend ¹⁷

The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn, but only with the consent of the Chairman, and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands before the demand was made.
- 9 11 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote, in addition to any other vote he or it (as the case may be) may have. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman, whose decision shall be final and conclusive

- 9 18 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in any common form or in any form as the Trustees may approve and the Trustees may if they think fit (but subject to the provisions of the Act) send out with the notice of any meeting forms of instrument of proxy for use at the meeting
- 9 19 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll
