REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2004

The director presents his report and the financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2004.

Director's Responsibilities

Company Law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently; make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Principal Activity

The principal activity of the company was that of car alarms and security systems installers.

Director and His Interests

The director who served during the year his beneficial interests in the company's ordinary share capital was as stated below:

		Number of Shares
		2004	2003
Varol Ozbudun	Ordinary Shares	1	1

This report, which has been prepared taking advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies, was approved by the board on 15 October 2004 and signed on their behalf.

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS ON THE UNAUDITED ACCOUNTS OF CAR-TECH SOUND & SECURITY (UK) LIMITED

We report on the accounts for the year ended 30 September 2004 set out on pages 6 to 10 which have been prepared under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the financial statements.

Respective Responsibilities of Director and Reporting Accountants

As described in the Director' Report, the company's director is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and he considers that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our work in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary the purposes of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- (a) the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under section 221 of the Companies Act 1985.
- (b) the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the year specified in Section 249A of the Act and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in Section 249B(1).
