4.1 Capital

The issued capital of the Company at the date of adoption of these Articles is £208,000 divided into 10,400,000 ordinary shares of 2p each.

4.2 Allotment of shares

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes regarding pre-emption rights and any resolution of the Company relating thereto or to any authority to allot relevant securities, the whole of the shares of the Company for the time being unissued shall be under the control of the Directors who may generally allot (with or without conferring a right of renunciation), grant options over or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par, and at such times as the Directors think fit, and with full power to give to any person the call of any shares, either at par or at a premium during such time and for such consideration as the Directors think fit.

4.3 Redeemable shares

The Company may by special resolution create and sanction the issue of shares which are to be redeemed, or at the option of the Company are liable to be redeemed, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Statutes. The special resolution sanctioning any such issue shall also make such alterations to these Articles as may be necessary to specify the terms on which and the manner in which any such shares shall be redeemed.

4.4 Payment of commission

In addition to all other powers of paying commissions, the Company may exercise the powers conferred by the Statutes of paying commissions to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the Company or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the Company. Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, such commission may be satisfied by payment of cash or (with the sanction of an ordinary resolution of the Company) the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

4.5 Trusts not recognised

Except as required by law and notwithstanding any information received by the Company pursuant to any statutory provision relating to the disclosure of interests in voting shares or otherwise, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as otherwise expressly provided by these Articles or by law or as required by statute or under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction) any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

5 VARIATION OF RIGHTS

5.1 Consent to variation

Subject to the provisions of the Act, if at any time the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares all or any of the rights or privileges attached to any class may be varied:

5.1.1 in such manner (if any) as may be provided by such rights; or

5.1.2 in the absence of any such provision, either with the consent in writing of the holders of at least three-fourths of the nominal amount of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate meeting (convened and conducted pursuant to the provisions of Article 22) of the holders of the issued shares of that class, but not otherwise. The creation or issue of shares ranking pari passu with or subsequent to the shares of any class shall not (unless otherwise expressly provided by these Articles or the rights attached to such last mentioned shares as a class) be deemed to be a variation of the rights of such shares.

6 SHARE CERTIFICATES

6.1 Member's right to share certificates and time for delivery

The Company shall within one month (or such longer period as the terms of issue shall provide) after the allotment of any of its shares or debentures, and within 14 days after lodgement with the Company of any duly stamped and valid transfer of any of its shares or debentures, save where such shares or debentures are at that time uncertificated, complete and have ready for delivery the certificates for the shares or the debentures so allotted or transferred, unless the conditions of issue of the shares or debentures otherwise provide or save as exempted by virtue of section 769 of the Act. Where the Company sends share certificates to Members or their agents by post, such share certificates shall be sent at the Member's risk.

6.2 Sealing of share certificates

Every certificate for shares, stock or debenture or loan stock (except where the trust deed constituting any debenture stock or loan stock provides to the contrary) or representing any other form of security of the Company shall be issued under the Seal (or under the official seal kept by the Company by virtue of section 50 of the Act) or in such other manner as the Board, having regard to the terms of issue, the Statutes and any applicable regulations of the London Stock Exchange, may authorise and shall specify the number and class of the shares or other security to which it relates and the amount or respective amounts paid up on the shares or other security.

6.3 Cost of certificates

Every Member shall be entitled without payment to one certificate for all his shares, or when the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, to one certificate for all his shares in each class, or upon payment of such reasonable out of pocket expenses as the Board shall determine for each additional certificate, to several certificates each for one or more of such shares of each class, provided that, in the case of any share registered in the names of two or more persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate in respect thereof to all the joint holders, and delivery of such certificate to any one of them shall be sufficient delivery to all. Where a Member transfers part of the shares to which any certificate relates he shall be entitled to a certificate for the balance thereof without payment. Every certificate shall specify the number and class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon.

6.4 Issue of a new certificate in the place of one damaged, lost or destroyed

If any certificate is damaged or defaced then upon delivery of the certificate to the Company it may order the certificate to be cancelled, and may issue a new certificate in its place, and if any certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed, then, upon such evidence and indemnity with or without security as the Company deems adequate being given, a new certificate in its place shall be given to the party entitled to such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate. Every certificate issued under this Article 6.4 shall be issued without payment but there shall, provided that the shares to which such certificate relates are not at that time uncertificated, be paid to the Company a sum equal to any exceptional expenses incurred by the Company in preparing any such indemnity and/or security referred to in this Article 6.4.

6.5 Shares not to have distinguishing numbers

If, at any time, all the issued shares of the Company or all the issued shares of a particular class are fully paid up and rank pari passu for all purposes, none of those shares shall thereafter (subject to any resolution of the Directors to the contrary) have a distinguishing number so long as it remains fully paid up and ranks pari passu for all purposes with all shares of the same class for the time being issued and fully paid up.

7 CALLS ON SHARES

7.1 Calls

The Directors may, subject to the provisions of these Articles and to any relevant terms of allotment thereof, from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the Members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively, provided that 14 days' notice at least be given of each call and each Member shall pay the amount of each call so made on him to the person and at the time and place specified by the Directors in the said notice. A call may be made payable by instalments. A call shall be deemed to have been made as soon as the resolution of the Directors authorising such call shall have been passed. A call may be revoked or postponed in whole or in part as the Directors may determine. A Member shall remain liable as primary obligor to the Company for the amount of any call notwithstanding that subsequent to the receipt of such call the Member transfers his shares.

7.2 Liability of joint holders of shares

The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of all instalments and calls in respect thereof and any one of such persons may give effectual receipts for any return of capital payable in respect of such share.

7.3 Instalments to be treated as calls and power to differentiate

If by the terms of any prospectus or by the conditions of allotment any amount is payable in respect of any shares by instalments, every such instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors of which due notice had been given. The Directors may on the issue of shares differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

7.4 When interest on calls or instalment payable

If the call or instalment payable in respect of any share is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the amount of the call or instalment is due shall pay interest on such amount at such rate as may be fixed by the terms of allotment of the share or, if no rate is fixed, at the appropriate rate (as defined by section 592 of the Act) from the time appointed for payment thereof until the actual payment thereof, and shall not receive any dividend in respect of the amount unpaid.

7.5 Payment of calls in advance

The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same all or any part of the money unpaid upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called up; and upon the money paid in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance shall have been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate (not exceeding, without the sanction of the Company given by ordinary resolution, the appropriate rate aforesaid) as the Member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon.

7.6 Sums due on allotment to be treated as calls

Any sum which by or pursuant to the terms of allotment of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by or pursuant to the terms of allotment the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

7.7 Power to make calls if uncalled capital included in mortgage

If any uncalled capital of the Company is included in or charged by any mortgage or other security, the Directors may delegate to the person in whose favour such mortgage or security is executed, or to any other person in trust for him, the power to make calls on the Members in respect of such uncalled capital and to sue in the name of the Company or otherwise for the recovery of moneys becoming due in respect of calls so made and to give valid receipts for such moneys. The power so delegated may (if expressed so to be) be assignable

7.8 Indemnity against claims in respect of shares

7.8.1 Whenever any law for the time being of any country, state or place imposes or purports to impose any immediate or future or possible liability on the Company to make any payment or empowers any government or tax authority or government official to require the Company to make any payment in respect of any shares held either jointly or solely by any Member or in respect of any dividends or other moneys due or payable or accruing due or which may become due or payable to such Member by the Company or in respect of any such shares or for or on account or in respect of any Member and whether in consequence of:

- (a) the death of such Member;
- (b) the non-payment of any income tax or other tax by such Member;
- (c) the non-payment of any estate, probate, succession, death, stamp or other duty by the executor or administrator of such Member or by or out of his estate; or
- (d) any other act or thing;

then the provisions of Article 7.8.2 shall apply.

7.8.2 The Company in any case referred to in Article 7.8.1:

- (a) shall be fully indemnified by such Member or his executor or administrator from all liability arising by virtue of such law; and
- (b) may recover as a debt due from such Member or his executor or administrator (wherever constituted or residing) any moneys paid by the Company under or in consequence of any such law, together with interest thereon at a rate of 15 per cent per annum thereon from the date of payment to the date of repayment.

- 7.8.3 Nothing contained in this Article 7.8 shall prejudice or affect any right or remedy which any law may confer or purport to confer on the Company, and as between the Company and every such Member as aforesaid, his executor, administrator and estate wherever constituted or situated, any right or remedy which such law shall confer or purport to confer on the Company shall be enforceable by the Company.

8 FORFEITURE OF SHARES

8.1 If call or instalment not paid notice may be given

If any Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or instalment or any part thereof remains unpaid, serve a notice on such Member requiring him to pay such call or such part thereof as remains unpaid, together with any interest that may have accrued thereon and all expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

8.2 Form of notice

The notice shall name a day (not being less than 14 days after the date of service of the notice) and a place on and at which such call or instalment (or such part thereof as remains unpaid) and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable shall be liable to be forfeited.

8.3 If notice not complied with shares may be forfeited

If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice shall have been given may at any time thereafter, and before payment of all calls or instalments, interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture. The Directors may accept the surrender of any shares liable to be forfeited hereunder and in such case references in these Articles to forfeiture shall include surrender.

8.4 Forfeited shares to become the property of the Company

When any share has been forfeited in accordance with these Articles, notice of the forfeiture shall be served upon the person who was before forfeiture the holder of the share; but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give notice as aforesaid. Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, no voting rights shall be exercised in respect thereof and the Directors may within three years of such forfeiture sell, re-allot, or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit either to the person who was before the forfeiture the holder thereof, or to any other person, and either with or without any past or accruing dividends, and in the case of re-allotment, with or without any money paid thereon by the former holder being credited as paid-up thereon. The Directors may, if necessary, authorise some person to execute a transfer of a forfeited share to any such other person as aforesaid. Any share not disposed of in accordance with the foregoing within a period of three years from the date of its forfeiture shall thereupon be cancelled in accordance with the provisions of the Statutes.

8.5 Directors' power to annul forfeiture

The Directors may at any time, before any share so forfeited shall have been cancelled or sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture upon such conditions as they think fit.

8.6 Arrears to be paid notwithstanding forfeiture

A Member whose shares have been forfeited shall thereupon cease to be a Member in respect of such shares but shall notwithstanding be liable to pay, and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of forfeiture, together with interest thereon, from the time of forfeiture until payment, at such rate as may be fixed by the terms of allotment of the shares or, if no rate is so fixed, at the appropriate rate aforesaid, and the Directors may enforce payment thereof if they think fit.

8.7 Extinction of claims

The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all of the rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the Member whose share is forfeited and the Company, except in respect only of such of those rights and liabilities as are by these Articles expressly saved or as are by the Act given or imposed in the case of past members.

8.8 Statutory Declaration by Director as to forfeiture

A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company, and that a share has been duly forfeited in pursuance of these Articles, and stating the time when it was forfeited, shall, as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated, and such declaration, together with a duly sealed certificate of proprietorship of the share delivered to a purchaser or allottee thereof, shall (subject to the execution of any necessary transfer) constitute a good title to the share, and the new holder thereof shall be discharged from all calls made prior to such purchase or allotment, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any omission, irregularity or invalidity in or relating to or connected with the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

9 LIEN ON SHARES

9.1 Company's lien on shares

The Company shall have a first and paramount lien and charge upon all the shares, other than fully paid-up shares, registered in the name of each Member (whether solely or jointly with other persons) for any amount payable in respect of such shares, whether the period for payment thereof shall have actually arrived or not, and such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared or other moneys payable in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares.

9.2 Enforcement of lien by sale

For the purpose of enforcing such a lien, the Directors may sell all or any of the shares subject thereto, in such manner as they think fit, but no such sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived and until notice in writing stating, and demanding payment of, the sum payable and giving notice of the intention to sell in default of such payment shall have been served in such manner as the Directors shall think fit on such Member and default shall have been made by him in the payment of such amounts payable for seven days after such notice.

9.3 Application of proceeds of sale

The net proceeds of any such sale, after payment of the costs thereof, shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable. The residue, if any, shall (on surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold, if such shares are not at that time uncertificated, and subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the share before the sale) be paid to the Member or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares (without interest).

9.4 Validity of sale for enforcing lien

Upon any sale for enforcing any lien in purported exercise of the powers hereinbefore given, the Directors may in the case of a sale nominate some person to execute a transfer of the shares sold in the name and on behalf of the registered holder or his executors or administrators and may in any case cause the name of the purchaser to be entered in the Register in respect of the shares sold and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the Register in respect of such shares the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

10 TRANSFER OF SHARES

10.1 Form of transfer

All transfers of shares may be effected by transfer in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form acceptable to the Directors and may, except in the case of a corporation, be under hand only. The Directors may in their absolute discretion decide to recognise a transfer under hand only of a person duly authorised to sign on behalf of a corporation. The instrument of transfer shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and {except in the case of fully paid shares} by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall remain the holder of the shares concerned until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.

10.2 Directors' power to refuse registration of transfers

The Directors may, in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor, refuse to register any transfer of shares unless all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- 10.2.1 it is in respect of a fully paid share;
- 10.2.2 it is in respect of a share on which the Company does not have a lien;
- 10.2.3 it is in respect of only one class of shares;
- 10.2.4 it is in favour of not more than four joint holders as transferees;
- 10.2.5 it is duly stamped; and
- 10.2.6 the conditions referred to in Article 10.3 have been satisfied in respect thereof;

and if the Directors refuse to register a transfer they shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

10.3 Registration of transfers

Every instrument of transfer must be left at the Transfer Office (or at such other place as the Directors may from time to time determine) to be registered, accompanied by the relevant share certificate(s), and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the right of the transferor to make such a transfer, and the due execution by him or his duly authorised agent of the transfer and thereupon the Directors, subject to the power vested in them by the last preceding Article, shall register the transferee as the holder.

10.4 No fees on registration

No fee shall be chargeable by the Company for registering any transfer, probate, letters of administration, certificate of marriage or death, power of attorney, or other document relating to or affecting the title to any shares or the right to transfer the same or otherwise for making any entry in the Register relating to or affecting the title to any shares.

10.5 Suspension of registration and closing of Register

The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine and either generally or in respect of any class of shares. The Register shall not be closed for more than 30 days in any year and notice of closure shall be given by advertisement in accordance with the Statutes.

10.6 Retention of instruments of transfer

All instruments of transfer which are registered shall, subject to Article 10.7.1(a), be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may refuse to register shall (except in the case of fraud) be returned to the person depositing the same.

10.7 Destruction of transfers and other documents

10.7.1 The Company shall be entitled to destroy:

- (a) all instruments of transfer which have been registered at any time after the expiration of six years from the date of registration thereof;
- (b) all dividend mandates and any variations or cancellations thereof and all notifications of change of address at any time after the expiration of two years from the date of recording thereof;
- (c) all registered share certificates which have been cancelled at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of such cancellation;
- (d) all paid dividends warrants and cheques at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of actual payment thereof;
- (e) all instruments of proxy which have been used for the purpose of a poll at any time after the expiration of one year from the date of such use save that, in the case of proxies which are used for the purpose of a poll at an adjourned meeting as well as at the original meeting, such period of one year shall commence on the date of the last such use;
- (f) all instruments of proxy which have not been used for the purpose specified in Article 10.7.1(e) at any time after one month from the end of the meeting (or any adjournment thereof) to which the instrument relates; and
- (g) any other document on the basis of which any entry in the Register has been made at any time after the expiration of six years from the date on which an entry in the Register was first made in respect of it.

It shall conclusively be presumed in favour of the Company that every entry in the Register purporting to have been made on the basis of a document so destroyed was duly and properly made, that every instrument of transfer so destroyed was a valid and effective instrument duly and properly registered, that every share certificate so destroyed was a valid and effective document duly and properly cancelled, that every other document hereinbefore mentioned so destroyed was a valid and effective document in accordance with the recorded particulars thereof in the books or records of the Company and that every paid dividend warrant and cheque so destroyed was duly paid.

10.7.2 The provisions of Article 10.7.1 shall apply only to the destruction of a document in good faith and without express notice to the Company of any claim (regardless of the parties thereto) to which the document might be relevant.

10.7.3 Nothing contained in this Article 10.7 shall be construed as imposing upon the Company any liability in respect of the destruction of any such document earlier than as aforesaid or in any case where the conditions of Article 10.7.2 are not fulfilled.

10.7.4 References in this Article 10.7 to the destruction of any document include references to the disposal thereof in any manner.

11 TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

11.1 Representatives of interest of deceased Members

The executors or administrators of a deceased Member (not being one of two or more joint holders) shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to shares held by him alone; but in the case of shares held by more than one person, the survivor or survivors only shall be recognised by the Company as being entitled to such shares. Nothing in this Article 11.1 shall release the estate of a deceased holder (whether sole or joint) from any liability in respect of any share solely or jointly held by him.

11.2 Election in case of death or bankruptcy of Member

Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any Member may, upon such evidence being produced as may be required by the Directors, elect in writing either to be registered as a Member (in respect of which registration no fee shall be payable) by giving notice in writing to that effect or, without being so registered, execute a transfer to some other person who shall be registered as a transferee of such share and the execution of such a transfer shall signify his election as aforesaid; but the Directors shall in either case have the like power of declining or refusing to register such transfer as is provided with respect to ordinary transfers. The Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect as aforesaid and if such notice is not complied with within 60 days the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of such share until compliance therewith.

11.3 Rights as to dividends and voting

Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any Member shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, unless and until he is registered as a Member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to receive notices of or to exercise or enjoy any right or privilege conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

12 CONSOLIDATION AND SUB-DIVISION OF SHARES

12.1 Consolidation

The Company may by ordinary resolution consolidate and divide its shares, or any of them, into shares of a larger amount or smaller amount.

12.2 Sub-division

The Company may by ordinary resolution sub-divide its shares, or any of them, into shares of a smaller amount, and may by such resolution determine that, as between the holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division, one or more of such shares shall have some preferred or other advantage as regards dividend, capital, voting or otherwise over or shall have such deferred rights or be subject to such restrictions as compared with the other or others as the Company has power to attach to shares upon the allotment thereof.

12.3 Fractions

Subject to any direction by the Company in general meeting, whenever as the result of any consolidation or sub-division and consolidation of shares Members of the Company are entitled to any issued shares of the Company in fractions, the Directors may deal with such fractions as they shall determine and, in particular, may sell the shares to which Members are so entitled in fractions for the best price reasonably obtainable and pay and distribute to and amongst the Members entitled to such shares in due proportions the net proceeds of the sale thereof (except that any amount otherwise due to a Member being less than £3 or such other sum as the Directors may from time to time determine may be retained for the benefit of the Company). For the purpose of giving effect to any such sale, the Directors may nominate some person to execute a transfer of the shares sold on behalf of the Members so entitled to the purchaser thereof and may cause the name of the purchaser to be entered in the Register as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

13 CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

13.1 Paid-up shares convertible into stock

The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution convert all or any fully paid-up shares into stock of the same class as the shares which shall be so converted, and may from time to time in like manner reconvert such stock into fully paid-up shares of the same class and of any denomination.

13.2 Transfer of stock

When any shares have been converted into stock, the several holders of such stock may thenceforth transfer their respective interests therein, or any part of such interests, in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as and subject to which any shares in the capital of the Company may be transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, but the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable (which minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose) and direct that fractions of that minimum shall not be transferred, but with power at their discretion to waive such rules in any particular case.

13.3 Privilege of stockholders

The several holders of such stock shall be entitled to participate in the dividends and profits of the Company according to the class of stock and the amount of their respective interests in such stock, and such interests shall, in proportion to the amount thereof, confer on the holders thereof respectively the same privileges and advantages for the purpose of voting at meetings of the Company and for other purposes as would have been conferred by shares of the same class of equal amount in the capital of the Company, but so that none of such privileges or advantages, except the participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets of the Company on a winding up shall be conferred by any such amounts of stock as would not, if existing in the shares, have conferred such privileges or advantages.

13.4 Definitions of "stock" and stockholder

All such provisions of these Articles relating to shares as are applicable to fully paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and in all such provisions the words "share" and "shareholder" shall include "stock" and "stockholder". No such conversion shall affect or prejudice any preference or other special privilege.

14 INCREASE OF CAPITAL

14.1 Increase of capital

The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase the capital by the creation of new shares, such increase to be of such aggregate amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts as the resolution may prescribe. Subject to such privileges, priorities or conditions as are or may be attached thereto, all new shares shall be subject to the same provisions in all respects as if they had been part of the original capital.

14.2 Power to attach rights to new shares

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, any new shares in the capital of the Company may be allotted with such preferential right to dividend and such priority in the distribution of assets, or subject to such postponement of dividends or in the distribution of assets, and with or subject to such preferential or limited or qualified right of voting at general meetings as the Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine, or, if no such determination be made, as the Directors shall determine, but so that the rights attached to any issued shares as a class shall not be varied except with the consent of the holders thereof duly given under the provisions of these Articles. Subject as aforesaid, any preference shares may be issued on the terms that they are or, at the option of the Company, are to be liable to be redeemed.

15 REDUCTION OF CAPITAL

15.1 Reduction of capital

The Company may from time to time by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account in any manner authorised, and with and subject to any incident prescribed or allowed by the Statutes. The Company may also by ordinary resolution cancel any shares not taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the nominal value of the shares so cancelled.

16 PURCHASE OF OWN SHARES

16.1 Company may purchase own shares

The Company may purchase its own shares (including any redeemable shares) but so that no such purchase shall take place save in accordance with the Act and on the basis that such purchase is sanctioned by an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate class meeting of the holders (if any) of any class of shares which are convertible into shares of another class where such shares would, if so converted, entitle the holders thereof to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company.

17 GENERAL MEETINGS

17.1 When annual general meetings to be held

A general meeting shall be held in every year as the annual general meeting of the Company (and specified as such in the notice convening the meeting), at such time (within a period of not more than 15 months after the holding of the last preceding annual general meeting) and place as may be determined by the Directors. The general meetings referred to in this Article 17.1 shall be called annual general meetings. All other general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

17.2 When extraordinary general meetings to be called

The Directors may call an extraordinary general meeting whenever they think fit, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by the Statutes. If at any time there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum for a meeting of the Directors, any Director or any two Members may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which general meetings may be convened by the Directors.

18 NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

18.1 Notice of meetings

An annual general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting convened for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by not less than 21 days' notice in writing and all other extraordinary general meetings of the Company shall be called by not less than 14 days' notice in writing. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given and shall specify the place, the day and hour of meeting, and in case of special business the general nature of such business. The notice shall be given to the Members, other than such as, under the provisions of these Articles or the terms of issue of the shares they hold, are not entitled to receive notice from the Company, to the Directors and to the Auditors. A notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify the meeting as such and the notice convening a meeting to pass a special resolution or an extraordinary resolution as the case may be shall specify the intention to propose the resolution as such.

18.2 Omission to send notice

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting, or to send an instrument of proxy with a notice to a person entitled to receive the same when so required or the non-receipt of a notice or instrument of proxy by any such person shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

18.3 Meetings at short notice

A general meeting shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in Article 18.1, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by such Members as are prescribed in that behalf by the Statutes.

18.4 Proxies

In every notice calling a meeting of the Company or any class of the Members of the Company there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and, on a poll, vote instead of him, and that a proxy need not also be a Member.

19 BUSINESS OF GENERAL MEETINGS

19.1 Business of annual general meeting

The business of an annual general meeting shall be:

- 19.1.1 to receive and consider the profit and loss accounts, the balance sheet and reports of the Directors and of the Auditors, and the documents required by law to be annexed to the balance sheet;
- 19.1.2 to elect Directors and officers in the place of those retiring by rotation or otherwise or ceasing to hold office pursuant to Article 23.5 and to fix their remuneration if required;
- 19.1.3 to declare dividends; and
- 19.1.4 to appoint the Auditors (when special notice of the resolution for such appointment is not required by the Statutes) and to fix, or determine the manner of the fixing of, their remuneration.

All other business transacted at an annual general meeting unless specifically stated otherwise in these Articles and all business transacted at an extraordinary general meeting shall be deemed special.

19.2 Special notice of a resolution

Where, by any provision contained in the Statutes, special notice is required of a resolution, the resolution shall not be effective unless notice of the intention to move it has been given to the Company not less than 28 days (or such shorter period as the Statutes permit) before the meeting at which it is moved, and the Company shall give to its Members, subject as in these Articles provided, notice of any such resolution as provided by the Statutes.

20 PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

20.1 Quorum

Subject to the provisions of Article 20.2 in respect of adjourned meetings, for all purposes the quorum for a general meeting shall be not less than two Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless the requisite quorum shall be present when the meeting proceeds to business. The appointment of a chairman in accordance with the provisions of these Articles shall not be treated as part of the business of the meeting.

20.2 Proceedings if quorum not present

If within 30 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to such day and to such time and place as the chairman shall appoint. At any such adjourned meeting the Member or Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall have power to decide upon all matters which could properly have been disposed of at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

20.3 Chairman

The chairman of the Board or in his absence the deputy chairman (if any) shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company. If there is no such chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Directors present shall select one of their number to be chairman, and that failing, the Members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman.

20.4 Power to adjourn meetings

20.4.1 The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting (and shall, if so directed by the meeting) adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

20.4.2 Without prejudice to any other power which he may have under these Articles or at common law, the chairman may without the need for the consent of the meeting interrupt or adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place or for an indefinite period if he is of the opinion that it shall become necessary to do so in order to secure the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting, to give all persons entitled to do so reasonable opportunity of speaking and voting at the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is properly disposed of.

20.5 Rights to attend and speak

The chairman may invite any person to attend and speak at any general meeting of the Company whom the chairman considers to be equipped by knowledge or experience of the Company's business to assist in the deliberations of the meeting.

20.6 Accommodation of members and security arrangements

20.6.1 The Directors may, for the purpose of controlling the level of attendance and ensuring the safety of those attending at any place specified for the holding of a general meeting, from time to time make such arrangements as the Directors shall in their absolute discretion consider to be appropriate and may from time to time vary any such arrangements or make new arrangements. The entitlement of any Member or proxy to attend a general meeting at such place shall be subject to any such arrangements as may be for the time being approved by the Directors. In the case of any meeting to which such arrangements apply the Directors may, when specifying the place of meeting:

- (a) direct that the meeting shall be held at the Principal Place; and
- (b) make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation at other places by Members otherwise entitled to attend the general meeting but excluded therefrom under the provisions of this Article 20.6 or who wish to attend at any of such other places, provided that persons attending at the Principal Place and at any of such other places shall be able to see, and hear and be seen and heard by, persons attending at the Principal Place and at such other places, by any means.

20.6.2 Such arrangements for simultaneous attendance may include arrangements for controlling the level of attendance in any manner aforesaid at any of such other places, provided that they shall operate so that any such excluded members as aforesaid are able to attend at one of such other places. For the purposes of all other provisions of these Articles any such meeting shall be treated as being held and taking place at the Principal Place.

20.6.3 The Directors may direct that any person wishing to attend any meeting should submit to such searches or other security arrangements or restrictions as the Directors shall consider appropriate in the circumstances and the Directors shall be entitled, in their absolute discretion, to refuse entry to any person who fails to submit to such searches or to otherwise comply with such security arrangements or restrictions.

20.7 When notice of adjourned meeting to be given

Whenever a meeting is adjourned for 28 days or more or sine die, 7 clear days' notice in writing at the least specifying the place, the day and hour of the adjourned meeting shall be given to the Members subject as and in manner herein mentioned, to the Directors and to the Auditors, but it shall not be necessary to specify in such notice the nature of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment.

20.8 Demand for poll

20.8.1 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by:

- (a) the chairman of the meeting; or
- (b) not less than two Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote; or
- (c) a Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (d) a Member or Members present in person or by proxy and holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

20.8.2 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn with the consent of the chairman and any demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated any result of a show of hands made before the demand was made.

20.9 Evidence of passing of resolution

Unless a poll is demanded a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against such resolution. If a poll is demanded it shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) as the chairman of the meeting may direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The chairman of the meeting may (and if so directed by the meeting shall) appoint scrutineers and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.

20.10 Objection or error in voting

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter or to the counting of, or failure to count, any vote, except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution if the chairman decides that the same is of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution or may otherwise have affected the decision of the meeting. The decision of the chairman on such matter shall be final and conclusive.

20.11 Amendment to resolutions

If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting, any error in such ruling shall not invalidate the proceedings on the substantive resolution. In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a special or extraordinary resolution, no amendment thereto (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error) may in any event be considered or voted on.

20.12 Casting vote

In the case of an equality of votes the chairman shall, both on a show of hands and at a poll, have a casting vote in addition to the votes to which he may be entitled as a Member.

20.13 Poll demanded by proxy

A valid instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll, and for the purposes of Article 20.8, a demand by a proxy for a Member or other person entitled to vote shall be deemed to be a demand by that Member or other person.

20.14 When poll to be taken

A poll demanded on the election of a chairman of a general meeting or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such subsequent time (not being more than 30 days from the date of the meeting) and place as the chairman of the meeting may direct. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

21.1 Votes of Members

Subject to any special terms as to voting upon which any shares may have been issued, or may for the time being be held, every Member present in person shall upon a show of hands have one vote and every Member present in person or by proxy shall upon a poll have one vote for every share of which he is holder. A Member who is a patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983 may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his receiver or curator bonis and such receiver or curator bonis may, on a poll, vote by proxy.

21.2 Joint owners

If two or more persons are jointly entitled to shares for the time being conferring a right to vote, any one of such persons may vote at any meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect thereof as if he were solely entitled thereto, and if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting, either personally or by proxy, the Member whose name stands first on the Register as one of the holders of such shares, and no other, shall be entitled to vote in respect of the same.

21.3 Suspension of rights where amounts due

No Member shall, unless the Directors otherwise determine, be entitled to be present or to vote, either in person or by proxy, at any general meeting or upon any poll or to exercise any privilege as a Member in relation to meetings of the Company in respect of any shares held by him unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of those shares in the Company have been paid.

21.4 Votes may be given personally or by proxy

On a poll votes may be given personally or by proxy and a Member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses the same way.

21.5 Appointment of proxy to be in writing

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing in the usual form, or such other form as shall be approved by the Directors, under the hand of the appointor or his duly constituted attorney; or if such appointor is a corporation, under its common seal or signed on its behalf by an attorney or a duly authorised officer of the corporation. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company. A Member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion. Deposit of an instrument of proxy shall not preclude a Member from attending and voting in person at the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

21.6 Deposit of proxy forms

The instrument appointing a proxy, together with the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed, or a notarially certified copy thereof, shall be deposited at the Office or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified for that purpose in any instrument of proxy sent by the Company in relation to the meeting, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote and in default such instrument shall not be treated as valid.

21.7 Validity of proxy form

An instrument appointing a proxy shall, unless the contrary is stated thereon, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting to which it relates. No instrument of proxy shall be valid after the expiry of 12 months from the date of its execution. When 2 or more instruments of proxy are received by the Company in respect of the same shareholding and the same meeting then only the instrument bearing the latest date shall be valid, except where two or more such instruments bear the same date, in which case only the latest to be received by the Company shall be accepted as the valid instrument of proxy, provided that if the Company is unable to determine which instrument was last delivered, then none shall be treated as valid.

21.8 When votes by proxy valid though authority revoked

A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or incapacity of the principal or revocation of the instrument of proxy or the authority under which it was executed or transfer of the share in respect of which the vote is given, provided no intimation in writing of the death, or incapacity, revocation or transfer shall have been received at the Office or such other place as is specified for depositing the instrument of proxy before the last time at which a proxy should have been delivered in order to be valid for use at the meeting or adjourned meeting or the holding of a poll subsequently thereto at which such vote is given.

21.9 Corporations acting by representatives

Any corporation which is a Member of the Company may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise any person to act as its representative at any meetings of the Company or of any class of Members thereof; and such representative shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as if he had been an individual shareholder, including power, when personally present, to vote on a show of hands. The Directors may, but shall not be bound to, require evidence of the authority of any person purporting to act as the representative of any such corporation.

22 CLASS MEETINGS

22.1 Proceedings at meetings of classes of Members

Any meeting for the purposes of Article 5 shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an extraordinary general meeting of the Company, provided that no Member, not being a Director, shall be entitled to notice thereof or to attend thereat unless he is a holder of shares of the class, the rights or privileges attached to which are intended to be varied or abrogated by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share of that class, and that the quorum at any such meeting shall be two persons at least present holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class, and at an adjourned meeting one person holding shares of the class in question or his proxy and that a poll may be demanded by any Member present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting.

23 DIRECTORS AND OTHER OFFICERS

23.1 Number of Directors

Unless and until otherwise determined by the Company in general meeting the number of Directors shall not be less than two and shall not be more than ten. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, provided that if the number of the Directors is less than the prescribed minimum the remaining Director or Directors shall forthwith appoint an additional Director or additional Directors to make up such minimum or shall convene a general meeting of the Company for the purpose of making such appointment. If no Director or Directors are able or willing to act then any two shareholders may summon a general meeting for the purpose of appointing Directors. Any additional Director so appointed shall (subject to the provisions of the Statutes and these Articles) hold office only until the dissolution of the annual general meeting of the Company next following such appointment unless he is re-elected during such meeting and he shall not retire by rotation at such meeting or be taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of Directors at such meeting.

23.2 Fees of Directors

There shall be paid out of the funds of the Company by way of remuneration of directors who are not managing or executive directors appointed under Article 25.1 fees at such rates as the Directors may from time to time determine provided that such fees do not in the aggregate exceed the sum of £100,000 per annum (exclusive of value added tax if applicable) or such other figure as the Company may in general meeting from time to time determine. Such fees shall be divided among such Directors in such proportion or manner as may be determined by the Directors and, in default of determination, equally.

23.3 Travelling and hotel expenses and special remuneration

The Directors (including any alternate directors) shall be entitled to be repaid all reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses incurred by them respectively in or about the performance of their duties as Directors including any expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Board or of Committees of the Board or general meetings and if, in the opinion of the Directors, it is desirable that any of their number should make any special journeys or perform any special services on behalf of the Company or its business, such Director or Directors may be paid such reasonable additional remuneration and expenses therefor as the Directors may from time to time determine. A Director may also be paid out of the funds of the Company all expenses incurred by him in obtaining professional advice in connection with the affairs of the Company or the discharge of his duties as a Director.

23.4 Qualification of Directors and attendance at general meetings and separate general meetings

A Director shall not be required to hold any shares in the Company by way of qualification. A Director who is not a Member of the Company shall be entitled to receive notice of and attend and speak at all general meetings of the Company and at all separate general meetings of the holders of any class of shares in the capital of the Company.

23.5 Directors' power to fill casual vacancies

Without prejudice to the power of the Company pursuant to these Articles, the Directors shall have power at any time to appoint any person either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board, but so that the total number of Directors shall not exceed any maximum number fixed in accordance with these Articles. Subject to the provisions of the Statutes and of these Articles, any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the dissolution of the annual general meeting of the Company next following such appointment unless he is re-elected during such meeting, and he shall not retire by rotation at such meeting or be taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of Directors at such meeting.

24 ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

24.1 Appointment and revocation

Any Director may by writing under his hand appoint:

24.1.1 any other Director; or

24.1.2 any other person who is approved by the Board as hereinafter provided to be his alternate, and every such alternate shall (subject to his giving to the Company an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served on him) be entitled to receive notices of all meetings of the Directors and, in the absence from the Board of the Director appointing him, to attend and vote at meetings of the Directors, and to exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of the Director appointing him, provided that no appointment of a person other than a director shall be operative unless and until the approval of the Board of Directors by a majority consisting of two-thirds of the whole Board shall have been given. A Director may at any time revoke the appointment of an alternate appointed by him, and subject to such approval as aforesaid where requisite appoint another person in his place, and if a Director shall die or cease to hold the office of Director the appointment of his alternate shall thereupon cease and determine, provided that if any Director retires but is re-elected at the meeting at which such retirement took effect, any appointment made by him pursuant to this Article 24.1 which was in force immediately prior to his retirement shall continue to operate after his re-election as if he had not so retired. The appointment of an alternate Director shall cease and determine on the happening of any event which, if he was a Director, would render him legally disqualified from acting as a Director or if he has a receiving order made against him or if he compounds with his creditors generally or if he becomes of unsound mind. An alternate Director need not hold a share qualification and shall not be counted in reckoning any maximum number of Directors allowed by the Articles for the time being. A Director acting as alternate shall have an additional vote at meetings of Directors for each Director for whom he acts as alternate but he shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present,

24.2 Alternate Director to be responsible for his own acts

Every person acting as an alternate Director shall be an officer of the Company, and shall alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults, and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of or for the Director appointing him.

24.3 Remuneration of alternate Director

The remuneration of any such alternate Director shall be payable out of the remuneration payable to the Director appointing him, and shall consist of such portion of the last mentioned remuneration as shall be agreed between the alternate and the Director appointing him.

25 MANAGING AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

25.1 Appointment

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, the Directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to be chairman or chief executive or joint chief executive or managing director or joint managing director of the Company or to hold such other executive office in relation to the management of the business of the Company as they may decide either for a fixed term or without any limitation as to the period for which he or they is or are to hold such office, and may, from time to time (subject to the provisions of any service contract between him and the Company and without prejudice to any claim he may have for compensation or damages for breach of any such service contract) remove or dismiss him or them from such office and appoint another or others in his or their place or places.

25.2 Chief executive and managing directors to retire by rotation

The chief executive or joint chief executive or the managing director or joint managing director (if any) for the time being of the Company shall, while he continues to hold such office, be subject to retirement by rotation and shall be taken into account in determining the number of directors to retire in each year, and he shall be subject to the same provisions as to resignation and removal as the other directors and, if he should cease to hold the office of Director from any cause, he shall (without prejudice to any claim he may have for compensation or damages for breach of any agreement between him and the Company) ipso facto and immediately cease to be chairman or chief executive or joint chief executive or managing director or joint managing director.

25.3 Remuneration of Directors

The salary or remuneration of any chairman or chief executive or joint chief executive or managing director or joint managing director or executive Director of the Company shall, subject as provided in any contract, be such as the Directors or any committee of the Board may from time to time determine, and may either be a fixed sum of money, or may altogether or in part be governed by the business done or profits made, or may include the making of provision for the payment to him, his widow or other dependants, of a pension on retirement from the office or employment to which he is appointed and for the participation in pension and life assurance benefits, or may be upon such other terms as the Directors determine.

25.4 Powers

The Directors may from time to time entrust to and confer upon a chief executive or joint chief executive or managing director or joint managing director or executive Director for the time being such of the powers exercisable under these Articles by the Directors, other than power to make calls or forfeit shares, as they may think fit, and may confer such powers for such time, and to be exercised for such objects and purposes, and upon such terms and conditions, and with such restrictions as they may think expedient; and they may confer such powers either collaterally with or to the exclusion of and in substitution for all or any of the powers of the Directors in that behalf and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

26 POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

26.1 Directors to manage and control the business of the Company

The business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors who in addition to the powers and authorities by these Articles or otherwise expressly conferred upon them may exercise all such powers, and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company, and as are not by the Statutes or by these Articles required to be exercised or done by the Company in general meeting, subject nevertheless to such directions (being not inconsistent with any regulations of these Articles or the provisions of the Statutes) as may be given by the Company in general meeting. Provided that no direction given by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors, which would have been valid if such direction had not been given, and the provisions contained in these Articles as to any specific power of the Directors shall not be deemed to abridge the general powers hereby given.

26.2 Directors' power to award pensions

26.2.1 The Directors may establish or concur or join with other companies (being subsidiaries of the Company or companies with which it is associated in business) in establishing and making contributions out of the Company's moneys to any schemes or funds for providing pensions, annuities, sickness or compassionate allowances, life assurance benefits, donations, gratuities or other benefits for employees (which expression as used in this Article 26.2 shall include any director who may hold or have held any office or place of profit) and ex-employees of the Company and of any such other companies and their spouses or former spouses, relatives, families or dependants, or any class or classes of such persons.

26.2.2 The Directors may pay, enter into agreements to pay or make grants revocable or irrevocable (and either subject or not subject to any terms or conditions) of pensions or other retirement, superannuation, death or disability benefits to Directors, employees and ex-employees and their spouses or former spouses, relatives, families or dependants, or to any of such persons, including pensions or benefits additional to those, if any, to which such employees or ex-employees or any such persons are or may become entitled under any such scheme or fund as aforementioned. Any such pension or benefit may, as the Directors consider desirable, be granted to an employee either before and in anticipation of or upon or at any time after his actual retirement.

26.2.3 The Directors may also procure the establishment and subsidy of or subscription to and support of any institutions, associations, clubs, funds or trusts calculated to be for the benefit of any such persons as aforesaid or otherwise to advance the interests and well-being of the Company or of any such other company as aforesaid, or its Members, and payments for or towards the insurance of any such person as aforesaid, and subscriptions or guarantees of money for charitable or benevolent objects or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful object.

26.2.4 The Directors may also sanction the exercise of any power conferred upon the Company by section 247 of the Act (relating to the making of provision for employees on cessation or transfer of business).

26.3 Director may hold office of profit under and may contract with Company

26.3.1 A director may hold any other office or place of profit in the Company except that of Auditor in conjunction with the office of Director and may act by himself or through his firm in a professional capacity to the Company, and in any such case on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the Directors may arrange. Any such remuneration shall be in addition to any remuneration provided for by any other of these Articles. No Director shall be disqualified by his office from entering into any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with the Company either in regard to such other office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise. Subject to the provisions of the Statutes and save as therein provided no such contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director or person connected with him is in any way interested, whether directly or indirectly, shall be avoided, nor shall any Director who enters into any such contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal or who is so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established but the nature of his interest shall be disclosed by him in accordance with the provisions of the Statutes.

29.4 Security for payment of moneys

The Directors may give security for the payment of moneys payable by the Company in like manner as for the payment of moneys borrowed or raised, but in such case the amount shall for the purposes of the above limitation be reckoned as part of the money borrowed.

As between two or more who have been in office an equal length of time, the Director to retire shall in default of agreement between them be determined by lot. The length of time a Director has been in office shall be computed from his last election or appointment when he has previously vacated office. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election. The Directors to retire on each occasion (both as to number and identity) shall be determined by the composition of the Board at the start of business on the date of the notice convening the annual general meeting and no Director shall be requested to retire or be relieved from retiring by reason of any change in the number or identity of the Directors after that time but before the close of the meeting.

31.3 Meeting to fill vacancies

The Company at any general meeting at which any Directors retire in manner aforesaid, may, subject to any resolution reducing the number of Directors, fill up the

31.4 Retiring Director to remain in office until successor appointed

If at any general meeting at which an election of Directors ought to take place the places of the retiring Directors are not filled up, then, subject to any resolution reducing the number of Directors, the retiring Directors, or such of them as have not had their places filled up, shall, if willing, continue in office until the dissolution of the annual general meeting in the next year, unless, as regards any particular Director, a resolution for his re-election shall have been put to the meeting and lost.

31.5 Appointment of Directors to be voted upon individually

31.8 Power to remove Director

Without prejudice to the provisions of the Statutes, any Director may be removed from office before the expiration of his term of office by a resolution in writing signed by a minimum of 75% of the Directors subject to such removal being approved by the Members at the next general meeting of the Company.

31.9 Power to appoint Director in place of one removed

The Company may by ordinary resolution appoint another person in place of the Director removed pursuant to the provisions of the Statutes or by ordinary resolution, and the person so appointed shall hold office during such time only as the Director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed, but this provision shall not prevent him from being eligible for re-election.

31.10 Directors' retirement age

31.10.1 A person who has attained the age of 70 may only be appointed or re-appointed a Director if his appointment is made or approved by the Company in general meeting of which special notice has been given. Where any general meeting of the Company is convened at which, to the knowledge of the Directors, a Director will be proposed for appointment or re-appointment who will at the date of the meeting be 70 or more, the Directors shall give notice of such Director's age in the notice convening the meeting or in any document accompanying the notice, but the accidental omission to do so shall not invalidate any proceedings or any appointment or re-appointment of that Director at the meeting. A Director who shall have attained the age of 70 shall vacate his office at the conclusion of the annual general meeting commencing next after he attains the age of 70 unless the Company in general meeting approves his re-election.

- 31.10.2 Any Director retiring pursuant to the provisions of Article 31.10.1 shall be eligible for re-election and the provisions of Articles 31.3, 31.4, 31.6 and 31.7 shall be applicable in respect of Directors retiring pursuant to the provisions of Article 31.10.1 save that any such Director shall not be taken into consideration in determining the number of Directors to retire pursuant to Article 31.1.

32.2.1 Any Director or his alternate may validly participate in a meeting of the Directors through the medium of a conference telephone or any other form of communication equipment provided that all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and speak to each other throughout such meeting, or by a series of telephone calls from the chairman of the meeting or by exchange of facsimile transmissions addressed to the chairman of the meeting.

32.6 Resolution in writing

A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Directors shall be as effective for all purposes as a resolution of those Directors passed at a meeting duly convened and held, and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more of the Directors. Provided that such a resolution need not be signed by an alternate Director if it is signed by the Director who appointed him.

32.7 Directors may appoint committees

Subject to the provisions of Article 32.7, resolutions passed by any such committee shall be valid and take effect as if they had been passed by the Directors.

The Directors shall cause minutes to be made of the following matters, namely:

32.10 Defective appointment of Directors not to invalidate their acts

All acts done by a meeting of the Directors, or of a committee, or by any person acting as a Director, shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any person or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were or was disqualified from holding office or not entitled to vote, or had in any way vacated their or his office, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed, and were duly qualified and had continued to be a Director.

All sums standing to reserve may be applied from time to time in the discretion of the Directors for meeting depreciation or contingencies or for special dividends or bonuses or for equalising dividends or for repairing, improving or maintaining any of the property of the Company or for such other purposes as the Directors may think conducive to the objects of the Company or any of them and, pending such application, may at the like discretion either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments as the Directors think fit. The Directors may divide the reserve into such special funds as they think fit, and may consolidate into one fund any special funds or any parts of any special funds into which the reserve may have been divided as they think fit. Any dividend unclaimed for a period of 12 years from the due date for payment shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company. 35.8 Entitlement to dividends

Every dividend shall belong and be paid (subject to the Company's lien) to those Members who shall be on the Register at the date fixed by the Directors for the purpose of determining the persons entitled to such dividend (whether the date of payment or some other date) notwithstanding any subsequent transfer or transmission of shares.

The Company may pay any dividend interest or other sum payable in cash or by direct debit, bank transfer, cheque, dividend warrant, or money order and may render the same by post to the Members or persons entitled thereto, and in case of joint holders to the Member whose name stands first in the Register, or to such person and address as the holder or joint holders may direct, and the Company shall not be responsible for any loss of any such cheque, warrant, or order. As the Board may determine, every such cheque, warrant or order shall be made payable either to or to the order of the person or persons entitled or to such other person as the person or persons entitled may in writing direct and may be crossed "A/c Payee" or otherwise and payment of the cheque, warrant or order shall be a good discharge to the Company.

35.11 Payment of dividends in specie

With the sanction of an ordinary resolution in general meeting any dividend may be paid and satisfied either wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid-up shares or debentures of any other company, and the Directors shall give effect to any such direction provided that no such distribution shall be made unless recommended by the Directors. Where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional entitlements, in each case in certificated or uncertificated form as the directors may determine, and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof, and may determine that cash payments may be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed, in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such assets in trustees upon trust for the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Directors.

35.12 Scrip Dividend

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, but without prejudice to Article 21.3, the Directors may, if authorised by an ordinary resolution of the Company, offer the holders of ordinary shares (subject to such exclusions or other arrangements as the Directors may consider necessary or expedient in relation to any legal or practical problems under the laws of any overseas territory or the requirements of any regulatory body or stock exchange) the right to elect to receive new ordinary shares credited as fully paid instead of cash, in respect of all or part of any dividend and in any such case the following provisions shall all apply.

- 35.12.1 The said ordinary resolution may specify a particular dividend or dividends, or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period being not greater than five years.
- 35.12.2 Unless the terms of the said ordinary resolution expressly provide, the holders of ordinary shares shall not be entitled to elect to take the whole amount of any particular dividend in new ordinary shares and shall be obliged to take at least such amount thereof on each ordinary share in any calendar year as the Directors shall in their absolute discretion determine as necessary to ensure the status of the ordinary shares as a wider range investment under the Trustee Investment Act 1961.
- 35.12.3 The basis of allotment to each holder shall be such number of ordinary shares credited as fully paid as have a value as nearly as possible equal to (but not greater than) the amount of the dividend (disregarding any tax credit) which he has elected to forego. A certificate or report by the Auditors as to the amount of the value in respect of any dividend shall be conclusive evidence of that amount.
- 35.12.4 No fraction of an ordinary share shall be allotted and, if any holder would otherwise be entitled to fractions of a share, the Directors may deal with the fractions as they think fit including (without limitation) provisions whereby, in whole or in part, the benefit thereof accrues to the Company and/or under which fractional entitlements are accrued and/or retained and in each case accumulated on behalf of any shareholder and such accruals or retentions are applied to the allotment by way of bonus to or cash subscription on behalf of such shareholder of fully paid ordinary shares.
- 35.12.5 The Directors, after determining the basis of allotment, shall notify the holders of ordinary shares in writing of the right of election offered to them in exercising the right of election.
- 35.12.6 The net cash amount of the dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been offered) shall not be paid on ordinary shares in respect of which an election has been duly made (the "elected shares") and instead additional ordinary shares shall be allotted to the holders of the elected shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid. For such purpose the Directors may:
 - (a) apply the said net cash amount in subscribing, in full or by instalments, for such number of unissued ordinary shares calculated on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid;
 - (b) capitalise, out of any amount standing to the credit of any reserves or fund (including the profit and loss account, any share premium account or capital redemption reserve), whether or not the same is available for distribution, as the Directors may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional ordinary shares to be allotted on such basis and apply it in paying up in full the appropriate number of unissued ordinary shares for allotment and distribution to the holders of the elected shares on such basis; or
 - (c) give effect to any such election in such other manner as the Directors in their absolute discretion may determine.
- 35.12.7 The additional ordinary shares so allotted shall be allotted as of the record date for the dividend in respect of which the right of election has been offered and shall rank pari passu in all respects and form one uniform class with the fully paid ordinary shares then in issue, except that they shall not rank for any dividend or other distribution or other entitlement which has been declared, made, paid or is payable by reference to such record date.

- 35.12.8 The Directors may terminate, suspend or amend any offer of the right to elect to receive ordinary shares in lieu of the cash dividend at any time.
- 35.12.9 The Directors may issue forms of election and mandate forms under which holders of ordinary shares, or persons entitled by transmission to such shares may elect to receive shares instead of cash both in respect of the relevant dividend and in respect of future dividends not declared or resolved (and accordingly in respect of which the basis of allotment shall not have been determined until such form of election or mandate form is varied or cancelled as appropriate in accordance with its terms).
- 35.12.10 The Directors have the power to do all acts and things as they may consider necessary or expedient to give effect to the provisions of this Article 35.12.

36 CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS AND RESERVES

36.1 Capitalisation of profits

The Directors may with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the Company:

- 36.1.2 appropriate the profits or sum resolved to be capitalised to the Members who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportion and apply such profits or sum on their behalf, either in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company of a nominal amount equal to such profits or sum, and allot and distribute such shares or debentures credited as fully paid-up, to and amongst such Members or as they may direct, in those proportions, or partly in one way and partly in the other, provided that the share premium account and the capital redemption reserve fund and any such profits which are not available for distribution may, for the purposes of this Article 36.1, only be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to Members credited as fully paid; and provided that, in the case where any sum is applied in paying amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares of the Company or in paying up in full debentures of the Company, the amount of the net assets of the Company at that time is not less than the aggregate of the called up share capital of the Company and its undistributable reserves and would not be reduced below that aggregate by the payment thereof as shown in the latest audited accounts of the Company or such other accounts as may be relevant;
- 36.1.3 resolve that any shares allotted under this Article 36.1 to any Member in respect of a holding by him of any partly paid shares shall, so long as such shares remain partly paid, rank for dividends only to the extent that such partly paid shares rank for dividend;
- 36.1.4 make such provisions by the issue of fractional entitlement (in certificated or uncertificated form) or by payment in cash or otherwise as the Directors think fit for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable under this Article 36.1 in fractions (including the sale of fractional entitlements for the benefit of the Company);
- 36.1.5 authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the Members concerned into an agreement with the Company providing for:

- (a) the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid-up, of any shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation;
- (b) the payment by the Company on behalf of such Members of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares by the application thereto of their respective proportion of such profit or reserves resolved to be capitalised (any agreement made under such authority being thereupon effective and binding on all such Members); and 36.1.6 generally do all acts and things required to give effect to such resolution as aforesaid.
