TRUSTEES REPORT For the year ended 31 August 2019

The Trustees, who are directors of the charity for the purpose of the Companies Act, submit their annual report and the financial statements of The Young Musicians Symphony Orchestra (the Charitable company) for the year ended 31st August 2019. The Trustees confirm that the annual report and financial statement of the charitable company comply with current statutory requirements, the requirements of the charitable company's governing document and the provisions of the statement of Recommended Practice (SORP).

Method of appointment or election of Trustees

The management of the charitable company is the responsibility of the Trustees who are elected and co-opted under the terms of the Articles of Association.

Charitable objects

The principle object of the charitable company is the provision of a National Orchestra giving coaching and performing opportunities to music students and PARTICULARLY those that have graduated and need to maintain their skill until they acquire a position in one of the country's professional orchestras.

Review of activities and future developments

The results of the year's operation are set out in the financial statements. The net movement in funds for the year amounted to £1,581. (2018,£27,991). The retained surplus at 31 August 2019 amounted to £28,418.

The main reason for the surplus is the receipt of Orchestra Tax Relief for the second time, which amounted to £21,398, and a legacy of £1,024. The Trustees policy regarding reserves is to make a modest surplus or to break even each year.

Donations have increased from £148,075 to £156,930. The Trustees are very grateful for the support of all our donors who include the Garfield Weston Foundation (£10,000) and will continue their fundraising activities in order for the orchestra to thrive. The trustees are keen to develop our relationships with the Conservatoires and Universities including those outside London.

Risk management

The Trustees have assessed the major risks to which the Company is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finances of the Company, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate the company's exposure to the major risks.

Trustees' responsibilities

Company and charity law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the surplus or deficit of the charitable company of that period. In preparing those financial statements the Trustees have:

- i. Selected suitable accounting policies and applied them consistently;
- ii. Made judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- iii. Stated whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- iv. Prepared the financial statements on a going concern basis.

The Trustees have overall responsibility for ensuring that the charitable company has an appropriate system of controls, financial and otherwise. Thay are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the detection and prevention of fraud and other irregularities.

This report was approved by the trustees and signed on its behalf, by:

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE YOUNG MUSICIANS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA For the year ended 31 August 2019

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31st August 2019 set out on pages 4 to 11.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner.

As described on page 2 the Trustees, who are also directors of the company for the purposes of the Companies Act, are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the charities Act 2011 and an independent examination is needed. The charity is required by company law to prepare accrued accounts and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the Association of International Accountants.

it is my responsibility to:

- * examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act.
- * to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charities Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act: and
- * to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement in connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention to indicate:

- * the accounting records have not been kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006;
- * the accounts do not accord with such records:
- * where accounts are prepared on an accrual basis, whether they fail to comply with relevant accounting requirements under section 396 of the Companies Act 2006, or are not consistant with the Charities SORP:
- * any matter which the examiner believes should be drawn to the attention of the reader to gain a proper understanding of the accounts.
