DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors present their report and financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2012

Principal activities and review of the business

The principal activity of the company during the year was that of presentation and communications

In two words we can readily describe 2012 - Exciting and Different Exciting, as we were proud to win two of the most prestigious awards in our sector - Agency of the Year and Best Effective Communication And different, in the way national business practices shifted and changed due to the euphoria of this year's two great events, the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and the Olympics

Traditional trading patterns were redefined, with many regular projects being postponed or cancelled Naturally, this saw a major shift in our year, however we were not alone, as many of our competitors felt the same. We were soon reorganising the way we worked, our holiday and shift patterns changed, and the summer became a doubly busy period.

As was the case nationally, our gross profit margin rose to 34 40% (2011 - 31 53%) as our spend on large venues decreased, and this meant turnover fell to £9,604,926 (2011 - £10,908,879) Whilst not an undue concern, sadly margins on Olympic connected work were lower than the norm. As a business we took the decision, as did many of our competitors, that this was unprecedented project and one we had to be a part of for so many reasons.

Commercially, we knew that 2012 was a 'one off' A year apart from the norm - 2012 became our springboard year - a year to prepare for 'normal services to resume' With renewed vigour and enthusiasm, we accepted that we would break even and affirmed our commitment to invest and prepare for the future

A model of success for us in previous years, we made our three-year plan for driving results well into 2015. In 2012 we invested £3.6M in our new studio complex, creating the largest corporate communication facility in the UK, if not Europe. This investment has been comprehensive, including new talent, training, infrastructure and facilities. We moved into our new home in January 2013 and officially opened it in June 2013 to great reception and success.

Exceeding previous expectations, we made a profit of £230,837, making us stand apart in the economic story of the industry's year. So confident were we about our future, we wanted to reward the team for their hard work, and so we shared it as a bonus to each and every team member. Continually investing in people is how we drive success.

Staying true to our values, 2012 also saw our CSR programme flourish, with over 25 successful community projects completed and sizable environment wins from all our teams. We were the first company to be awarded the new sustainability accreditation ISO20121, and we'll continue to drive innovation in our sustainability in every way we can

Investment in our people yielded tangible results, and this was recognised by our winning of two key accolades, Agency of the Year and Best Effective Communication. Strengthening our position in the market, we also added over 28 other industry awards to our name, including retaining our proud place as one of the Time's top 100 Companies.

2012 will not be remembered for its financial success, but it will be known as a catalyst for positive change, and a reaffirmation of our commitment to our people and our values. As we speak, we are exceeding 2012's figures by 150%, and are well on our way towards record profits. With 30 new team members already on board this year, and continued investment across the business, we can look forward to a 2013 that truly shows us the value of anything's possible, and that 2012 was a year highlighting how far we have come, how much we have achieved, and how we opened the door to fantastic opportunities ahead.
