Respective Responsibilities of the Directors and Reporting Accountant

As described on page 3, the Company's Directors are responsible for the preparation of the Accounts, and they believe that the Company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our examination in accordance with the appropriate standards for reporting accountants issued by the Auditing Practices Board. This examination consisted of comparing the Accounts with the accounting records kept by the Company, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the Company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report.

The examination was not an audit conducted in accordance with Auditing Standards—Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on the Accounts—Therefore our examination does not provide any assurance that the accounting records and the Accounts are free from material misstatement

In our opinion -

- a) the Accounts are in agreement with those accounting records kept by the Company under Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985,
- b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records,
 - (i) the Accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in Section 249C(6) of the Act, and
 - (ii) the Company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the Accounts for the period specified in Section 249A(4) of the Act as modified by Section 249A(5) and did not, at any time within that period, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in Section 249B(1)
