DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year, and of the profit or loss of the company for that year. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- Follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts,
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company, and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company, and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and irregularities

EXEMPTIONS

This report is prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 applicable to small companies

Approved by and signed on behalf of the directors
