Dear Sirs

Auditors' report to the directors of Intuita Limited (the "Company") pursuant to section 156(4) of the Companies Act 1985 (the "Act")

We have examined the attached statutory declaration of the directors of the Company dated today in connection with the proposal that the Company should give financial assistance in connection with reducing or discharging a liability incurred in relation to the previous purchase of shares in the Company.

Our report has been prepared pursuant to the requirements of section 156(4) of the Companies Act 1985 and for no other purpose. No person is entitled to rely on this report unless such a person is a person entitled to rely upon this report by virtue of and for the purpose of section 156(4) of the Companies Act 1985 or has been expressly authorised to do so by our prior written consent. Save as above, we do not accept responsibility for this report to any other person or for any other purpose and we hereby expressly disclaim any and all such liability.

Basis of opinion

We have enquired into the state of the Company's affairs in order to review the bases for the statutory declaration.

Opinion

We are not aware of anything to indicate that the opinion expressed by the directors in their statutory declaration as to any of the matters mentioned in section 156(2) of the Act is unreasonable in all the circumstances.

Yours faithfully

BDO Stoy Hayward LLP
