The directors who served the company during the year and up to the date of signing the financial statements were as follows:

Charles Dunn (resigned on 26 March 2019)

Steve Bouchard

Marina Stavrinides (appointed on 28 November 2018; resigned 26 March 2020)

The Director of the company has the benefit of a qualifying indemnity provision (as provided through the ultimate parent company) throughout the financial year ending 30 September 2019 and is currently in force.

Going concern

In December 2019, a novel strain of coronavirus, now referred to as COVID-19, surfaced. The virus has spread to over 100 countries and has been declared a pandemic by the World Health Organization on 11 March 2020. The COVID-19 pandemic has significantly impacted global economic activity and has created future macroeconomic uncertainty. At the date of this report, there has been no material impact to our financial position and we have considered COVID-19 to be a non-adjusting post balance sheet event. However, the magnitude and duration of the virus could result in a material impact going forward.

We expect that our results will be impacted, by our ability to close large transactions, which has been adversely impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic as customers delay purchases due to the macroeconomic uncertainty and the inability to implement many of our solutions due to the on-site work generally required to do so. The amount of revenue attributable to large transactions, and the number of such transactions, may also vary significantly from quarter to quarter based on customer purchasing decisions and macroeconomic conditions. Such transactions may have long lead times as they often follow a lengthy product selection and evaluation process and, for existing customers, are influenced by contract expiration cycles. This may cause volatility in our results. For the PTC group we currently anticipate new bookings will be down approximately 30% year over year for the second half of 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic as described above.

We also anticipate that our churn rate may deteriorate to approximately 8% for the year rather than a modest improvement over the fiscal 2019 churn rate as previously expected as customers may not renew their subscriptions or support contracts in full due to the COVID-19 pandemic if they reduce their workforces and users or due to macroeconomic and liquidity uncertainty. We expect to continue to control costs due to savings on certain expenses due to the COVID-19 pandemic (such as curtailing travel), as well as lower anticipated variable compensation and increased cost discipline related to employee hiring.

Director's Report

For the year ended 30 September 2019

Despite the challenges associated with COVID-19, we are anticipating FY'20 ARR growth of approximately 11%, revenue growth of approximately 12% for the PTC group.

We expect to have sufficient liquidity with cash on hand and cash generated from operations to meet our working capital requirements through at least the next twelve months.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The principal risk for the company is a downturn in the market for the products and services of the PTC Group, which in turn would reduce the underlying investments the company holds. From the perspective of the company, the principal risks and uncertainties are integrated with the principal risks of the group and are not managed separately. Accordingly, the principal risks and uncertainties of the PTC Group, which include those of the company, are discussed in PTC Inc.'s annual report which does not form part of this report.

Following the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union on 31 January 2020, the uncertainties as a result of the withdrawal are a risk for the Group and the company, however as the terms of the future trade and other relationships with the European Union are not yet clear it is difficult to identify all the potential implications. The PTC Group is working to mitigate potential risks that may arise as a result.

As discussed above, the impact of Covid-19 is a principal risk and uncertainty at this time.

Statement of Director's responsibilities

The director is responsible for preparing the Director's Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the director has prepared the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the director must not approve the financial statements unless he is satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards has been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

We have audited the financial statements of Parametric Holdings (UK) Limited (the 'company') for the year ended 30 September 2019 which comprise Profit and Loss account, Balance Sheet, Statement of Changes in Equity and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion, the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 30 September 2019 and of its loss for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of matter – impact of the outbreak of COVID-19 on the financial statements

In forming our opinion on the company financial statements, which is not modified, we draw your attention to the director's view on the impact of the COVID-19 as disclosed on page 2, and the consideration in the going concern basis of preparation on page 11 and non-adjusting post balance sheet events on page 21.

Since the balance sheet date there has been a global pandemic from the outbreak of COVID-19. The potential impact of COVID-19 became significant in March 2020 and is causing widespread disruption to normal patterns of business activity across the world, including the UK. The full impact following the recent emergence of the COVID-19 is still unknown. It is therefore not currently possible to evaluate all the potential implications to the company's trade, customers, suppliers and the wider economy.

Conclusions relating to going concern

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the ISAs (UK) require us to report to you where:

• the director's use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is not appropriate; or

• the director has not disclosed in the financial statements any identified material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the company's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Other information

The director is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In light of the knowledge and understanding of the company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Director's Report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specific by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit; or
- the director was not entitled to take advantage of the small companies exemption from the requirements to prepare a Strategic Report.

Responsibilities of Director

As explained more fully in the director's responsibilities statement set out on page 3, the director is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the director is responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the director either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Use of the audit report

This report is made solely to the company's members as a body in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Going concern

In December 2019, a novel strain of coronavirus, now referred to as COVID-19, surfaced. The virus has spread to over 100 countries and has been declared a pandemic by the World Health Organization. The COVID-19 pandemic has significantly impacted global economic activity and has created future macroeconomic uncertainty. While there was not a material impact to our financial statements, our financial condition and the results of operations as of the date of this report, resulting from our assessments, our future assessment of our current expectations at that time of the magnitude and duration of COVID-19, as well as other factors, could result in material impacts to our financial statements, our financial condition and the results of operations We expect that our results will be impacted, by our ability to close large transactions, which has been adversely impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic as customers delay purchases due to the macroeconomic uncertainty and the inability to implement many of our solutions due to the on-site work generally required to do so. The amount of revenue attributable to large transactions, and the number of such transactions, may also vary significantly from quarter to quarter based on customer purchasing decisions and macroeconomic conditions. Such transactions may have long lead times as they often follow a lengthy product selection and evaluation process and, for existing customers, are influenced by contract expiration cycles. This may cause volatility in our results. For the PTC group we currently anticipate new bookings will be down approximately 30% year over year for the second half of 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic as described above. We also anticipate that our churn rate may deteriorate to approximately 8% for the year rather than a modest improvement over the fiscal 2019 churn rate as previously expected as customers may not renew their subscriptions or support contracts in full due to the COVID-19 pandemic if they reduce their workforces and users or due to macroeconomic and liquidity uncertainty. We expect to continue to control costs due to savings on certain expenses due to the COVID-19 pandemic (such as curtailing travel), as well as lower anticipated variable compensation and increased cost discipline related to employee hiring. Despite the challenges associated with COVID-19, we are anticipating FY'20 ARR growth of approximately 11%, revenue growth of approximately 12% for the PTC group. As a result of this we do not anticipate any material adverse effects resulting from Covid-19 to the company.

We expect to have sufficient liquidity with cash on hand and cash generated from operations to meet our working capital requirements through at least the next twelve months.

Taking into consideration the company's 2019 results, the competitive strength of its products and the positioning in the markets served as well as the anticipated impact of COVID-19, we have a reasonable expectation that the company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. The company therefore continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing its financial statements.

Consolidation

The financial statements contain information about Parametric Holdings (UK) Limited as an individual company and do not contain consolidated financial information as the parent of a group. The company is exempt under section 401 of the Companies Act 2006 from the requirement to prepare consolidated financial statements as it and its subsidiary undertakings are included by full consolidation in the publicly available consolidated financial statements of its parent, PTC Inc., a company incorporated in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Any excess of the cost of the business combination over the acquirer's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities is recognised as goodwill. If the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities exceeds the cost of the business combination the excess is recognised separately on the face of the balance sheet immediately below goodwill.

3.2. Investment in subsidiaries

If and when all conditions for retaining tax allowances for the cost of a fixed asset have been met, the deferred tax is reversed.

Deferred tax is recognised when income or expenses from a subsidiary or associate have been recognised, and will be assessed for tax in a future period, except where:

- the company is able to control the reversal of the timing difference; and
- it is probable that the timing difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

A deferred tax liability or asset is recognised for the additional tax that will be paid or avoided in respect of assets and liabilities that are recognised in a business combination. The amount attributed to goodwill is adjusted by the amount of deferred tax recognised.

Deferred tax is calculated using the tax rates and laws that that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date that are expected to apply to the reversal of the timing difference.

With the exception of changes arising on the initial recognition of a business combination, the tax expense (income) is presented either in profit or loss, other comprehensive income or equity depending on the transaction that resulted in the tax expense (income).

Deferred tax liabilities are presented within provisions for liabilities and deferred tax assets within debtors. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset only if:

- the company has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities, and
- the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

In December 2019, a novel strain of coronavirus, now referred to as COVID-19, surfaced. The virus has spread to over 100 countries and has been declared a pandemic by the World Health Organization. The COVID-19 pandemic has significantly impacted global economic activity and has created future macroeconomic uncertainty. We assessed certain accounting matters that generally require consideration of forecasted financial information in context with the information reasonably available to us and the unknown future impacts COVID-19 through the date of this report. While there was not a material impact to our financial statements as of the date of this report, resulting from our assessments, our future assessment of our current expectations at that time of the magnitude and duration of COVID-19, as well as other factors, could result in material impacts to our financial statements, our financial condition and the results of operations.

We expect that our results will be impacted, by our ability to close large transactions, which has been adversely impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic as customers delay purchases due to the macroeconomic uncertainty and the inability to implement many of our solutions due to the on-site work generally required to do so. The amount of revenue attributable to large transactions, and the number of such transactions, may also vary significantly from quarter to quarter based on customer purchasing decisions and macroeconomic conditions. Such transactions may have long lead times as they often follow a lengthy product selection and evaluation process and, for existing customers, are influenced by contract expiration cycles. This may cause volatility in our results. For the PTC group we currently anticipate new bookings will be down approximately 30% year over year for the second half of 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic as described above. We also anticipate that our churn rate may deteriorate to approximately 8% for the year rather than a modest improvement over the fiscal 2019 churn rate as previously expected as customers may not renew their subscriptions or support contracts in full due to the COVID-19 pandemic if they reduce their workforces and users or due to macroeconomic and liquidity uncertainty. We expect to continue to control costs due to savings on certain expenses due to the COVID-19 pandemic (such as curtailing travel), as well as lower anticipated variable compensation and increased cost discipline related to employee hiring. Despite the challenges associated with COVID-19, we are anticipating FY'20 ARR growth of approximately 11%, revenue growth of approximately 12% for the PTC group.

We expect to have sufficient liquidity with cash on hand and cash generated from operations to meet our working capital requirements through at least the next twelve months.
