DIRECTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE PREPARATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The director is responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the director has elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law).

Under company law the director must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

- a select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- b make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- c prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

NOTES ON FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 Accounting policies

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards. The particular accounting policies adopted by the directors, all of which have been applied consistently during the period, are described below.

Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

Consolidated Financial Statements

The company is exempt from the requirement to prepare consolidated financial statements by virtue of it being subject to the small companies regime under section 381 of the Companies Act 2006 as the company qualifies as small and the group it heads qualifies as a small sized group. The director has not opted to prepare group financial statements in accordance with section 398 of the act and therefore these financial statements present information about the company as an individual undertaking and not about its group.
