Statement of director's responsibilities in respect of the director's report and the financial statements

The director is responsible for preparing the director's report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law he has elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with UK Accounting Standards and applicable law (UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable him to ensure that its financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. He has general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to him to safeguard the assets of the company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

Profit and loss account

The company has not traded during either the current or preceding year, has received no income and incurred no expenditure and consequently has made neither a profit nor a loss.

For the year ended 31 March 2017 the company was entitled to exemption under section 480 of the Companies Act 2006.

No members have required the company to obtain an audit of its financial statements for the period in question in accordance with section 476.

The director acknowledges his responsibility for:

- ensuring the company keeps accounting records which comply with Section 386;
- preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of its financial period, and of its profit and loss for the financial period in accordance with Section 396, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the company.

The financial statements were approved by the director on 31 January 2018:

JS Rumsey
Director
