DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to:

- * select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- * make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- * follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any materials departures disclosed and explained in the accounts
- * prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume the company will continue in business.

FERAL INTERACTIVE LIMITED

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with companies act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of frauds and other irregularities.

In preparing the above report, the directors have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies.
