- 3 Other Financing Statements and Liens. - (b) Intellectual Property. Notwithstanding the pledge of its Intellectual Property under the Agreement and any required contained in the Indenture or any other Security Document, until notice to the Company has been given by the Trustee following the occurrence and during the continuance, unremedied and unwaived, of an Event of Default, the Company will have the right to exploit and use the Intellectual Property in connection with its business, including but not limited to the development, marketing, promotion, distribution and sale of the underlying services related to such Intellectual Property.

The Company has recognized that, by reason of certain prohibitions contained in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and applicable state securities laws, the Trustee may be compelled, with respect to any sale or all or any part of the Collateral, to limit purchasers to those who will agree, among other things, to acquire the Collateral for their own account, for investment and not with a view to the distribution or resale thereof. The Company has acknowledged that any such private sales may be at prices and on terms less favourable to the Trustee than those obtainable through a public sale without such restrictions, and, notwithstanding such circumstances, has agreed that any such private sale shall be deemed to have been made in a commercially reasonable manner and that the Trustee will have no obligation to engage in public sales and no obligation to delay the sale of any Collateral for the period of time necessary to permit the Company or issuer thereof to register it for public sale.

- 7 Deficiency If the proceeds of sale, collection or other realization of or upon the Collateral pursuant to Section 4.05 of the Agreement are insufficient to cover the costs and expenses of such realization and the payment in full of the Secured Obligations, the Company will remain liable for any deficiency.

4.07 Locations; Names. The Company has agreed that it will not, without at least 30 days' prior written notice to the Trustee, and (in the case of a change of its name) delivery of an Opinion of Counsel and an Issue Order identifying any action required to be taken by the Company or the Trustee to perfect or continue the perfection of the Liens hereunder granted by the Company and protect the priority thereof, change its "location" (as defined in Section 9-307 of the Uniform Commercial Code) or change its name from the name shown as its current legal name on Annex 1 to the Agreement.

Without the prior written consent of the Trustee, the Company may remove items of Collateral outside of any jurisdiction in which the Company conducts business, or in which such items are located, in order to have them repaired or upgraded, subject to the obligation of returning such items to their original location in such jurisdiction as soon as their repair or upgrade has been completed and, if required in order to transport or relocate any such item of Collateral, the Trustee has agreed that it will, upon delivery to it of an Issuer Order requesting a release (which is to state that such release is authorized under Section 4.07 of the Agreement), promptly execute and deliver to the Company such release statement and such other documentation as shall be specified by the Company in such Issuer Order to effect the temporary release of the Lien on such item of Collateral in order that it may be removed or relocated.

- 8 Private Sale. The Trustee and the Holders will incur no liability as a result of the sale of the Collateral, or any part thereof, at any private sale pursuant to Section 4.05 of the Agreement conducted in a commercially reasonable manner. The Company has in the Agreement waived any claims against the Trustee or any Holder arising by reason of the fact that the price at which the Collateral may have been sold at such a private sale was less than the price which might have been obtained at a public sale or was less than the aggregate amount of the Secured Obligations, even if the Trustee accepts the first offer received and does not offer the Collateral to more than one offeree.
- 9 Application of Proceeds. The proceeds of any collection, sale or other realization of all or any part of the Collateral pursuant hereto, and any other cash at the time held by the Trustee under this Section 4, is to be applied by the Trustee in the manner set forth in Article IX of the Indenture.
- 10 Attorney-in-Fact. Without limiting any rights or powers granted by the Agreement to the Trustee while no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, upon the occurrence and during the continuance, unremedied and unwaived, of any Event of Default the Trustee has been appointed the attorney-in-fact of the Company for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Section 4 of the Agreement and taking any action and executing any instruments which the Trustee may reasonably deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of the Agreement, which appointment as attorney-in-fact is irrevocable and coupled with an interest. So long as the Trustee is entitled under this Section 4 of the Agreement to make collections in respect of the Collateral, the Trustee will have the right and power to receive, endorse and collect all checks made payable to the order of the Company representing any dividend, payment or other distribution in respect of the Collateral or any part thereof and to give full discharge for the same.
- 11 Perfection. The Company has consented that Uniform Commercial Code financing statements may be filed describing the Collateral as "all assets" or "all personal property" of the Company (but no such description will be deemed to modify the description of Collateral set forth in Section 3 of the Agreement).

Anything in the Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, the obligations of the Company to take any action to perfect the Liens granted under the Agreement and under any other Security Document on any Collateral shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 6.02 and 6.03 of the Indenture.
