

Pillars of Fire

Directors Report 2006

2859799

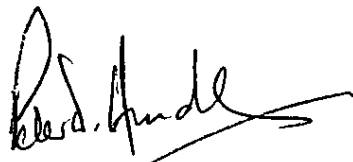

The year began with Pillars of Fire Working together with Churches Together in running a final Worship and Pray Together evening with Worship Teams from each of the churches. The initiative over the previous year was very much appreciated but lack of real concerted effort over set-up of these meetings led us to stop them.

We continued running the once a month H&B meetings at the Roman Catholic Church Hall.

We started a weekly House of Prayer in September involving many from differing churches, this was a step of faith but has proved fruitful and effective, praying for the local issues with involvement from people representing the local counsellors and other aspects of the town's life, national and international issues, mission etc.

We had a 24 hour period of prayer based on the House of Prayer at the end of September. Enough money came in to cover accommodation during the period from September to the end of the year.

We made ministry trips to Germany and one to Paris. The ministry in Germany was much appreciated and the one in Paris led to a trip to Speyer Vineyard Church the next year.
