(h) intellectual property of all kinds,

in each case, together with all associated rights.

3. It also creates a first floating charge over all other present and future assets of the Company.

4. The Debenture contains a covenant by the Company that it will not, without the prior written consent of the Security Trustee:

(a) create or attempt to create or permit or subsist in favour of any person other than the Security Trustee any mortgage, charge (whether fixed or floating), pledge or lien or other security interest of any kind or any other type of preferential arrangement over any of its present or future assets (except for certain specific limited kinds of interest which are specifically permitted by the express terms of the Secured Documents or the Debenture); and

(b) dispose or attempt or agree to dispose of (i) any debts or claims owed to it or (ii) any other assets except, in the case of such other assets as are charged by way of floating charge only, in the ordinary course of business.

5. If the Company creates or attempts to create a security interest of any kind over any of the assets subject to the floating charge otherwise than in accordance with the covenant referred to in paragraph 4(a) above or if any person levies or attempts to levy any form of execution or process in respect of any of such assets, the floating charge over the assets concerned will automatically be converted into a fixed charge.
