The company did not trade during the current year and accordingly no profit and loss account has been prepared. The company made neither a profit nor a loss nor had any other recognised gain or loss.

The directors have taken advantage of the exemption conferred by section 249AA(1) not to have these financial statements audited and confirm that no notice has been deposited under section 249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985. The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for:

- (a) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the Companies Act 1985; and
- (b) preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at 31 March 2003 and of its result for the year then ended in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the company.

The company, whose ultimate parent company is Accord Holdings Limited, was dormant within the meaning of section 249AA of the Companies Act 1985, throughout the financial year. Accord Holdings Limited is the parent of both the smallest and largest groups of which the company is a member. Copies of its consolidated financial statements are available from Companies House.
