(12) to pay out of the funds of the charity the costs of forming and registering the charity both as a company and as a charity

Application of income and property

6 (1) the income and property of the charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects

(2) (a) A director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the charity

(b) A director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011

(c) A director may receive an indemnity from the charity in circumstances specified in article 57

(d) A director may not receive any other benefit or payment unless it is authorised by section 7

(3) Subject to article 7, none of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity This does not prevent a member who is not also a director receiving

(a) benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity,

(b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity

Benefits and payments to charity directors and connected persons

7 (1) General provisions

No director or connected person may

- (a) buy goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public,
- (b) sell goods, or services, or any interest in land to the charity,
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from the charity,
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the charity, unless the payment is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this article, or authorised by the court or the Charity commission

In this article a 'financial benefit' means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value

Scope and powers permitting directors' or connected persons' benefits

- 2
- (a) A director or connected person may receive a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity provided that a majority of the directors do not benefit in this way
  - (b) A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in sections 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011
  - (c) subject to sub-clause (3) of this article a director or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the director or connected person
  - (d) A director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the bank of England bank rate(also known as the base rate)
  - (e) A director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the director or connected person to the charity The amount of the rent and other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper The director concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion
  - (f) A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public

Payment for supply of goods only - controls

(3) The charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by clause (2)(c) of this article if each of the following conditions is satisfied

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the charity or its directors (as the case may be) and the director or connected person supplying the goods('the supplier') under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity
- (b) the amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question
- (c) The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) the supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity

- (e) the supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting
- (f) the reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book
- (g) A majority of the directors in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 7

4 In sub-clause (2) and (3) of this article

(a) 'charity' includes any company in which the charity.
