Statement of directors' responsibilities

Companies Law requires directors to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial period and of the profit or loss for the period then ended. In preparing those financial statements the directors are required to

- * Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- * Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- * State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- * Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud, error and non-compliance with law and regulations
