1.3 Floating charge

As further continuing security for the payment of the Secured Obligations, the Company charged with full title guarantee in favour of the Lender by way of first floating charge all its assets and undertaking whatsoever and wheresoever situated both present and future not effectively charged by way of first fixed mortgage or charge pursuant to the provisions of clause 4.1 of the Composite Guarantee and Debenture, including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, heritable property and all other property and assets in Scotland.

2.1.2 the Lender in its reasonable opinion considers those assets to be in danger of being seized or sold under any form of distress, attachment, execution or other legal process or to be otherwise in jeopardy.

2.2 Automatic conversion of floating charge

The floating charge created by the Company under the Deed shall (in addition to the circumstances in which the same will occur under general law) automatically be converted into a fixed charge in relation to any of the Charged Assets subject to the floating charge created by clause 4.3 of the Composite Guarantee and Debenture (a "Floating Charge Asset") if the Company creates (or purports to create) an Encumbrance (other than a Permitted Encumbrance) on or over the relevant Floating Charge Asset without the prior consent in writing of the Lender or if any third party levies or attempts to levy any distress, execution, attachment or other legal process against any such Floating Charge Asset.

5. FURTHER ASSURANCE

5.1 The Company will, whenever requested by the Lender and at its own expense, promptly execute such deeds or documents and take any action required by the Lender to perfect and protect the security created (or intended to be created) by the Deed or to facilitate the realisation thereof or otherwise to enforce the same or exercise any of the rights of the Lender under the Deed. In particular, but without limitation, the Company will:

5.1.1 execute a valid legal mortgage in such form as the Lender shall reasonably require of any freehold or leasehold property as at 12 October 2004 or in the future belonging to the Company which is not effectively charged by way of legal mortgage;
