PART 2

DIRECTORS

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

6. Number of Directors

The number of the Directors shall be determined by a written resolution of the Shareholders but unless and until so determined there shall be no maximum number of Directors and the minimum number of Directors shall be one.

7. Directors' general authority

Subject to these Articles, the Directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

8. Borrowing powers

Subject to Article 9.1(iii), the Directors may exercise all powers of the Company to:

- 8.1 borrow or raise money without limit as to amount and upon such terms and such manner as they think fit, and
- 8.2 mortgage or charge the whole or any part of the Company's undertaking, property and uncalled capital.

9. Parent company

- 9.1 Whenever a company wherever incorporated (the "Parent Company") is the Holder of not less than 90 per cent of the Shares of the Company, the following provisions shall apply and to the extent of any inconsistency shall have overriding effect as against all other provisions of these Articles:

- (i) the Parent Company may at any time and from time to time appoint any person to be a Director or remove from office any Director howsoever appointed, but so that in the case of a managing director his removal from office shall be deemed an act of the Company and shall have effect without prejudice to any claim for damages in respect of the consequent termination of his executive office;
 - (ii) no securities or Shares may be issued or agreed to be issued or put under option without the consent of the Parent Company; and
 - (iii) any or all powers of the Directors shall be restricted in such respects and to such extent as the Parent Company may by notice to the Company from time to time prescribe.
- 9.2 Any such appointment, removal, consent or notice must be in writing, served on the Company and signed on behalf of the Parent Company by any two of its directors or by any one of its directors and its secretary or some other person duly authorised for the purpose.
- 9.3 No person dealing with the Company shall be concerned to see or enquire as to whether the powers of the Directors have been in any way restricted under this Article or as to whether any requisite consent of the Parent Company has been obtained and no obligations incurred or security given or transaction effected by the Company to or with any third party shall be invalid or ineffectual unless the third party had at the time express notice that the incurring of such obligation or the giving of such security or the effecting of such transaction was in excess of the powers of the Directors.
10. Directors may delegate
- 10.1 The Directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under these Articles:
- (i) to such person or committee (whether or not being or including a Director);
 - (ii) by such means (including by power of attorney);
 - (iii) to such an extent;
 - (iv) in relation to such matters or territories; and
 - (v) on such terms and conditions;
- as they think fit.
- 10.2 If the Directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the Directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

- 10.3 The Directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

11. Committees

- 11.1 Committees to which the Directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of these Articles which govern the taking of decisions by Directors.
- 11.2 The Directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from these Articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

12. Directors to take decisions collectively

- 12.1 The general rule about decision-making by Directors is that any decision of the Directors must be either a unanimous or majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with Article 13.
- 12.2 If the Company only has one Director, the general rule does not apply, and the Director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of these Articles relating to Directors' decision-making, subject to compliance with Article 22.

13. Decisions taken otherwise than at a meeting

- 13.1 A unanimous decision of the Directors is taken in accordance with this Article 13 when all Eligible Directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 13.2 Subject to Article 13.3, a decision of the Directors taken in accordance with this Article 13 shall take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by all or a majority of the Eligible Directors or to which all or a majority of the Eligible Directors have otherwise indicated agreement in writing, but if the decision is not unanimous this shall only apply if the text of the proposed decision has been previously sent to all the Directors (other than any Director proposing it) at least 24 hours before the resolution is signed. It is not necessary for all or such a majority of the Eligible Directors to sign the same copy of the resolution as long as the copies, when read together, have been signed by all or a majority of the Eligible Directors. Any Director may at any time propose a resolution in writing by sending a copy of it to all the other Directors.
- 13.3 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article 13 if the Eligible Directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

14. Calling a Directors' meeting

- 14.1 Any Director may call a Directors' meeting by sending notice of the meeting to all the other Directors or by authorising the Company secretary (if any) to send such notice to all the Directors.
- 14.2 Notice of any Directors' meeting must indicate:
- (i) its proposed date and time;
 - (ii) where it is to take place;
 - (iii) the proposed business of the meeting; and
 - (iv) if it is anticipated that Directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 14.3 Notice of a Directors' meeting must be sent to each Director whether or not he is within the United Kingdom, but need not be in writing.
- 14.4 Notice of a Directors' meeting need not be sent to Directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by sending notice to that effect to the Company not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is sent after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

15. Participation in Directors' meetings

- 15.1 Directors participate in a Directors' meeting, or part of a Directors' meeting, when:
- (i) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with these Articles, and
 - (ii) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
- 15.2 In determining whether Directors are participating in a Directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Director is or how they communicate with each other.
- 15.3 If all the Directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

16. Quorum for Directors' meetings

- 16.1 At a Directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

16.2 The quorum for Directors' meetings may be fixed from time to time by an ordinary resolution but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed it is two unless there is for the time being only one Director, in which case, he shall have and may exercise all the powers and authorities over the affairs of the Company conferred on the Directors by these Articles. An alternate Director whose appointor is not participating shall be counted when determining whether there is a quorum, but if a Director or alternate Director participates also as an alternate Director for one or more other Directors he shall count as one Director for the purpose of determining whether there is a quorum.

16.3 If there are no Directors in office, any Shareholder may propose a written resolution (or instruct the company secretary, if any, to do so) for the purpose of appointing one or more Directors specified by that Shareholder and who are willing to act.

17. Chairing of Directors' meetings

17.1 The Directors may appoint a Director to chair their meetings either for a specified meeting or on a continuing basis.

17.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the Chairman.

17.3 The Directors may appoint other Directors as deputy or assistant chairmen on a continuing basis to chair directors' meetings in the absence of a Chairman who was appointed on a continuing basis.

17.4 Where the Chairman is appointed on a continuing basis or a deputy or assistant Chairman has been appointed the Directors may terminate the appointment of the Chairman or deputy or assistant Chairman at any time.

17.5 If a Chairman appointed on a continuing basis or the deputy or assistant Chairman is not participating in a Directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating Directors must appoint one of themselves to chair that meeting, but the Chairman previously appointed on a continuing basis and any deputy or assistant Chairman shall thereafter continue in office unless and until such office is terminated under Article 17.4.

18. Voting at Directors' meetings

18.1 Each Director participating in a Directors' meeting has one vote.

18.2 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the Chairman or other Director chairing the meeting has a second or casting vote.

19. Conflicts of interest

Where the Directors are exercising their powers to authorise conflicts of interest contained in section 175(5) of the Act, each such authorisation may be granted on such terms as the Directors granting it may determine, including (without limitation) the imposition on the conflicted Director of obligations of confidentiality, exclusion from meetings of the Directors at which matters relating to the conflict are to be discussed, exclusion from voting on matters relating to the conflict or the release of the conflicted Director from any obligation to make available to the Company any information imparted to him by, or obtained by him from, any party to whom he owes any relevant conflicting duty and every such authorisation may be withdrawn at any time by a decision of the Directors excluding the conflicted Director.

20. Directors' duties

- 20.1 If the Company has for the time being an Ultimate Parent Company or a Parent Company, a Director may act in accordance with any directions given by the Ultimate Parent Company or Parent Company and (without prejudice to his other duties) shall not be in breach of any duty to the Company to exercise independent judgment in so doing.
- 20.2 Provided that the Company is solvent, the Directors may take into consideration the interests of the Group and/or of the Ultimate Parent Company in considering whether a transaction is in the interest of the Company.

21. Directors' interests

- 21.1 A Director who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a proposed or existing contract or arrangement with the Company shall declare the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with section 177 or sections 182 to 187 of the Act.
- 21.2 Subject to such disclosure and to the terms of any authorisation granted under Article 21.1, a Director who is interested as set out in Article 21.1 may nevertheless be counted as participating in the decision making process for quorum and voting purposes.

22. Records of decisions to be kept

The Directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the Directors.

23. Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to these Articles, the Directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to Directors.

24. Irregularities

All decisions made and acts done by the Directors, or by any person acting as a Director or by any person or persons to whom authority has been delegated by a decision of one or more Directors or by a person or persons acting as such shall, notwithstanding that it shall afterwards be discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any such person or in such delegation, or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if such irregularity had not occurred.

DIRECTORS

25. Appointment of Directors

25.1 Any person who is willing to act as a Director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a Director:

- (i) by ordinary resolution; or
- (ii) if the Company has for the time being a Parent Company, by a notice in writing, specifying the person to be appointed, signed by or on behalf of the Parent Company, which is sent to the Company or tabled at a meeting of the Directors.

26. Alternate Directors

26.1 Any Director may at any time by notice in writing given to the Company, or tabled at a meeting of the Directors, appoint any person (including another Director) to be his alternate Director and may in like manner at any time terminate such appointment. Such appointment, unless of another Director or previously approved by the Directors, shall have effect only upon and subject to being so approved.

26.2 The appointment of an alternate Director shall determine on the happening of any event which, if he were a Director, would cause him to vacate such office or if his appointor ceases to be a Director.

26.3 An alternate Director shall (whether or not within the United Kingdom) be entitled to be sent notices of meetings of the Directors and of all meetings of committees of Directors of which his appointor is a member and shall be entitled to attend, speak and vote as a Director at any such meeting at which the Director appointing him is not personally present and generally at such meeting to perform all the functions of his appointor as a Director and for the purposes of the proceedings at such meeting the provisions of these Articles shall apply as if he (instead of his appointor) were a Director.

- 26.4 If an alternate Director shall be himself a Director or shall attend any such meeting as an alternate for more than one Director his voting rights shall be cumulative.
- 26.5 The execution by an alternate Director of any resolution in writing of the Directors shall be as effective as the execution by his appointor.
- 26.6 An alternate Director shall not (save as provided in this Article 26) have power to act as a Director nor shall he be deemed to be a Director for the purposes of these Articles, but he shall be an officer of the Company, he alone shall be responsible for his own acts and defaults and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing him.
- 26.7 An alternate Director shall be entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements or transactions and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent, so far as applicable, as if he were a Director, but he shall not be entitled to receive from the Company in respect of his appointment as alternate Director any remuneration except only such part (if any) of the remuneration otherwise payable to his appointor as such appointor may by notice in writing sent to the Company from time to time direct.
- 26.8 Subject to this Article 26, every reference in these Articles to a Director shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include an alternate Director when he is acting on behalf of his appointor.

27. Termination of a Director's appointment

A Director ceases to be a Director as soon as:

- 27.1 that Director ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Act or is prohibited from being a Director by law; or
- 27.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that Director; or
- 27.3 a composition is made with that Director's creditors generally in satisfaction of that Director's debts; or
- 27.4 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that Director gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that Director has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Director and may remain so for more than three months; or
- 27.5 notification is received by the Company from that Director that he is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms; or
- 27.6 that Director is removed from office by notice in writing signed by or on behalf of Shareholders together entitled to a majority of the voting rights exercisable on a poll in respect of all the issued Shares of the Company, which is sent to the Company or tabled at a meeting of the Directors (which removal shall be deemed to be the act of the Company); or

- 27.7 where that Director holds an appointment to an executive office with the Company or any subsidiary or holding company of the Company, that appointment is terminated or otherwise determines in which case (unless otherwise resolved by the Directors) that Director ceases to be a Director at the time the appointment terminates or otherwise determines, which shall be deemed an act of the Company and shall have effect without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of contract or service or otherwise between that Director and the Company.

28. Directors' remuneration

- 28.1 Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the Directors decide.

- 28.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the Directors determine:

- (i) for their services to the Company as Directors; and
- (ii) for any other service or executive office which they undertake for the Company.

- 28.3 Subject to these Articles, a Director's remuneration may:

- (i) take any form; and
- (ii) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that Director.

- 28.4 Unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

- 28.5 Unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors are not accountable to the Company for any remuneration which they receive as Directors or other officers or employees of the Company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested.

29. Directors' expenses

- 29.1 The Company may pay, in accordance with decisions of the Directors, any reasonable expenses which the Directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

- (i) meetings of Directors or committees of Directors;
- (ii) general meetings; or
- (iii) separate meetings of the Holders of any class of Shares or of debentures of the Company;

or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

35. Share certificates

- 37.1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the Directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor.
- 37.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any Share.
- 37.3 The Company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.
- 37.4 The transferor remains the Holder of a Share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as Holder of it.
- 37.5 Subject to the provisions of Article 37.6, the Directors may in their absolute discretion refuse to register the transfer of a Share, and if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of refusal giving reasons for the refusal as specified by the Act unless they suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.
- 37.6 Notwithstanding any provision of these Articles the Directors shall not decline to register, nor suspend registration of any transfer of shares, whether or not fully paid, where such transfer is:
- (i) in favour of any bank, institution or person (or any nominee or nominees of such bank, institution or person) to whom such shares are being transferred pursuant to a pledge, mortgage, charge or other form of security or encumbrance granted over or in respect of said shares (a "Secured Party");
 - (ii) delivered to the Company for registration by a Secured Party or its nominee in order to perfect its security over the shares;
 - (iii) executed by a Secured Party or its nominee pursuant to a power of sale or other powers conferred by or pursuant to such security or by law; or
 - (iv) executed by a receiver or manager appointed by or on behalf of any Secured Party or its nominee, under any such security, and furthermore notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles, no transferor or proposed transferor of any Shares in the Company to a Secured Party or its nominee, and no Secured Party or its nominee shall be required to offer the Shares which are or are to be the subject of any transfer aforesaid to the Holder for the time being of the Company or any of them, and no Holder shall have any right under these Articles or otherwise howsoever to require such Shares to be transferred to them, whether for any valuable consideration or otherwise.

37.7 No Share shall be transferred to any infant or bankrupt.

37.8 Any lien on Shares which the Company has or any other provision of these Articles shall not apply to any Shares transferred in favour of a Secured Party where the transfer is contemplated by, or pursuant to, any pledge, mortgage, charge or other form or security or encumbrance created over Shares.

38. Variation of rights

If at any time the Share capital is divided into different classes of Shares, the rights attached to any class may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be modified, varied or abrogated with the consent in writing of the Holder or Holders of not less than three fourths in nominal value of the issued Shares of that class.

39. Transmission of Shares

39.1 If title to a Share passes to a Transmitttee, the Company may only recognise the Transmitttee as having any title to that Share.

39.2 A Transmitttee who produces such evidence of entitlement to Shares as the Directors may properly require:

- (i) may choose either to become the Holder of those Shares or to have them transferred to another person subject to Article 37; and
- (ii) pending any transfer of the Shares to another person, has the same rights as the Holder had, subject to Article 39.3.

39.3 Transmitttees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of Shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the Holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the Holders of those Shares.

40. Exercise of Transmitttees' rights

40.1 Transmitttees who wish to become the Holders of Shares to which they have become entitled must send to the Company notice in writing of that wish.

40.2 If the Transmitttee wishes to have a Share transferred to another person, the Transmitttee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.

40.3 Any transfer made or executed under this Article 40 is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the Transmitttee has derived rights in respect of the Share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

41. Transmittees bound by prior notices

If a notice is sent to a Shareholder in respect of Shares and a Transmitttee is entitled to those Shares, the Transmitttee is bound by the notice if it was sent to the Shareholder before the Transmitttee's name has been entered in the register of members.

42. Purchase of own Shares

The Company may purchase its own Shares in accordance with the Act and may make a payment in respect of such a purchase otherwise than out of its distributable profits or the proceeds of a fresh issue of Shares.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

43. Procedure for declaring dividends

43.1 The Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the Directors may decide to pay interim dividends.

43.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the Directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the Directors.

43.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with Shareholders' respective rights.

43.4 Unless the Shareholders' resolution to declare or Directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which Shares are issued specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each Shareholder's holding of Shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.

43.5 If the Company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on Shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear.

43.6 The Directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.

43.7 If the Directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the Holders of Shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on Shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.

44. Payment of dividends and other distributions

44.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a Share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:

- (i) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the Distribution Recipient either in writing sent to the Company or as the Directors may otherwise decide;
- (ii) sending a cheque made payable to the Distribution Recipient by post to the Distribution Recipient at the Distribution Recipient's registered address (if the Distribution Recipient is a Holder of the Share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the Distribution Recipient either in writing sent to the Company or as the Directors may otherwise decide;
- (iii) sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the Distribution Recipient has specified either in writing sent to the Company or as the Directors may otherwise decide; or
- (iv) any other means of payment as the Directors agree with the Distribution Recipient either in writing or by such other means as the Directors decide.

44.2 In the Articles, "the Distribution Recipient" means, in respect of a Share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable:

- (i) the Holder of the Share; or
- (ii) if the Share has two or more joint Holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members; or
- (iii) if the Holder is no longer entitled to the Share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the Transmittree.

45. No interest on distributions

The Company must not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a Share unless otherwise provided by:

45.1 the terms on which the Share was issued; or

45.2 the provisions of another agreement between the Holder of that Share and the Company.

46. Unclaimed distributions

46.1 All dividends or other sums which are:

(i) payable in respect of Shares; and

(ii) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed.

46.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it.

46.3 If:

(i) twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment; and

(ii) the Distribution Recipient has not claimed it, the Distribution Recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company.

47. Non-cash distributions

47.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the Share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the Directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a Share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, Shares or other securities in any Company).

47.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the Directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:

(i) fixing the value of any assets;

(ii) paying cash to any Distribution Recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and

(iii) vesting any assets in trustees.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

48. Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

48.1 The Directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:

- (i) decide to capitalise any profits of the Company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's Share premium account or capital redemption reserve; and
- (ii) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.

48.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:

- (i) on behalf of the persons entitled; and
- (ii) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

48.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new Shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

48.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

48.5 Subject to these Articles the Directors may:

- (i) apply capitalised sums in accordance with Articles 48.3 or 48.4 partly in one way and partly in another;
- (ii) make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with Shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this Article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments); and
- (iii) authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of Shares and debentures to them under this Article.

DECISION-MAKING BY SHAREHOLDERS

49. No general meetings unless required by law

49.1 Except where required by law, the Company shall not hold general meetings or class meetings of any class of Share and all decisions of the Shareholders or the Holders of any class of Share shall be made by the passing of a written resolution passed in accordance with the Act, subject to Article 13.

- 49.2 For the purposes of section 297 of the Act, a proposed written resolution of the Shareholders shall lapse if not passed by the end of such period after the circulation date of such resolution as is determined by the Directors in respect of that resolution or, if no such period is so determined, the resolution shall lapse at the end of the period of 14 days beginning with its circulation date.
