2 LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

The liability of the members is limited to the amount if any, unpaid on the shares held by them

3 DIRECTORS' POWERS, RESPONSIBILITIES AND DELEGATION

- 3 1 Subject to these articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company
- 3 2 The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action. No such special resolution shall invalidate anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution
- 3 3 Subject to these articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under these articles to such person or committee, by such means. In the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting
- 4 3 3 Subject to these articles, notice of a meeting of the directors must be given to each director (including one who is absent for the time being from the United Kingdom) and may be given either personally or by word of mouth or in hard copy form or by electronic means, or by any other means authorised by the director concerned
- 4 3 4 Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who are not entitled to receive notice, or who have elected not to receive notice of that meeting pursuant to article 7 1 2, or who have waived their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company in advance of the meeting or not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice of waiver is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it
- ### 4 4 Participation in directors' meetings and decision making
- 4 4 1 Subject to these articles, the directors participate in a directors' meeting when the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with these articles and where each director can communicate orally to all of the other directors taking part, any information or opinions he has on any particular item of the business of the meeting. In determining whether the directors are participating in a directors' meeting it is irrelevant where any director is or (subject to the first sentence of this article) how the directors communicate with each other. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the board meeting is located.

4.4.2 Subject to these articles, each director participating in a directors' meeting has one vote.

4.4.3 Subject to the Companies Act 2006 and the other provisions of these articles, a director may participate in any decision-making process (including being able to vote on, and be counted in the quorum at any meeting) where the matter under consideration or the resolution to be voted on concerns a matter in which he has a direct or indirect interest which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company provided that

4.4.3.1 the director has declared the nature and extent of that interest in accordance with and to the extent required by the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 and these articles,

4.4.3.2 where necessary, any situation which could give rise to a conflict and which would otherwise be prohibited by section 175 of the Companies Act 2006 is authorised pursuant to article 5.1 or article 6, and (including by power of attorney), to such an extent, in relation to such matters or territories, and on such terms and conditions, as they think fit. If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated. The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

3.4 Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based, as far as they are applicable, on those provisions of these articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors. The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees which prevail over rules derived from these articles if they are not consistent with them.

4 DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

4.1 Directors to take decisions collectively

4.1.1 The general rule about decision making by directors is that any decision of the directors must either be a majority decision at a meeting or taken in accordance with article 4.2.

4.1.2 If the Company only has one director for the time being (and no provision of these articles requires it to have more than one director) the general rule does not apply and the sole director (for as long as he remains the sole director) shall be entitled to exercise all the powers and authorities vested in the directors by these articles (and the provisions of these articles shall be construed accordingly), and he may take decisions (provided that he constitutes an eligible director in relation to any particular decision) without regard to the provisions of articles 4.2, 4.3, 4.4.1, 4.4.2, 4.4.5, 4.4.6, 4.5.1, 4.5.2 and 4.6 relating to directors' decision-making.

4.2 Unanimous decisions

A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter. Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, where each eligible director has signed one or more copies of it, or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated his agreement in writing. A decision may only be taken in accordance with this article 4.2 where the eligible directors taking the decision would have formed a quorum had the matter been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.

4.3 Calling a directors' meeting

4.3.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the Company Secretary to give such notice. The Company Secretary must call a directors' meeting if a director so requests.

4.3.2 Notice of any directors' meeting must indicate, its proposed location (if any), its proposed date and time and, if it is anticipated that directors participating

4.4.3.3 the terms of any authorisation given or imposed pursuant to article 5.1 or article 6 do not prevent or otherwise restrict the director from doing so, but otherwise shall not be entitled to participate in such process or to vote or count in the quorum where he has a direct or indirect interest which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company. If a director purports to vote in a situation where, by virtue of this article 4.4.2 (or the terms of any authorisation) he is not entitled to vote, his vote shall not be counted.

4.4.4 For the purposes of article 4.4.2

4.4.4.1 an interest of a person who is connected with a director (within the meaning of section 252 of the Companies Act 2006) shall be treated as an interest of the director,

4.4.4.2 in relation to an alternate, an interest of his Appointor shall be treated as an interest of the alternate on addition to any interest which the alternate otherwise has, but this does not preclude the alternate from voting in relation to that transaction or arrangement on behalf of another Appointor who does not have such an interest (or for himself if he is a director and has no such interest),

4.4.4.3 references to a conflict of interest include a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties, and

4.4.4.4 an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his

For the avoidance of doubt, where a director ("first director") is appointed to act as an alternate by another one or more directors ("second director") and the first director has an interest which prevents him from voting in relation to any transaction or arrangement, that first director shall also not be entitled to vote in relation to that transaction or arrangement as alternate on behalf of any second director.

4.4.5 Subject to article 4.4.6, if a question arises at a meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, and that question is not resolved by the director voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the Chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the Chairman is to be final and binding.

4.4.6 If any question as to the right to participate in a meeting (or part of a meeting) arises in respect of the Chairman (and that question is not resolved by the Chairman voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting) the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the Chairman is not to be counted as entitled to participate in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes

4 5 Quorum for directors' meetings

4 5 1 At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting

4 5 2 Save as set out in article 4 5 3, the quorum for the transaction of business of the directors shall be two eligible directors

4 5 3 The quorum for transaction of business of the directors shall be one eligible director, if

4 5 3 1 there is a sole director, or

4 5 3 2 at any meeting of the directors, to the extent called to consider and vote on any matter in relation to which a director is not entitled to or does not vote or whose vote is not counted by virtue of 4 5 3 2 1 the provisions of article 4 4 2, or 4 5 3 2 2 the exercise by a director, pursuant to article 7 1, of the right not to attend and vote, or 4 5 3 2 3 section 175(6)(b) Companies Act 2006, there is only one eligible director willing to take a decision on any matter

4 5 4 If there are no directors in office or the directors in office or the sole director are unable or unwilling to form a quorum or to take a decision on any particular matter, or to appoint further directors to make up a quorum or to enable a decision to be taken on any particular matter, or to call a general meeting or circulate a written resolution to do so, then any shareholder may call a general meeting or circulate a written resolution or instruct the Company Secretary to do so, for the purposes of taking the decision or appointing one or more additional directors to form a quorum or to enable a decision to be taken

4 6 Chairing of directors' meetings and chairman's casting vote

4 6 1 The directors may appoint (and remove at any time) a director to chair their meetings and the person so appointed for the time being is known as the Chairman. If the Chairman is not participating in a directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, or is unwilling or unable to act as chairman at that meeting or any part of it, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves who is willing and able so to act, to be the Chairman for that meeting or for that part of the meeting

4 6 2 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the Chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote, unless in relation to a particular proposal at a meeting, the Chairman or other director chairing the meeting is not an eligible director

4 7 Records of decisions to be kept

The directors must ensure that the Company keeps a permanent record in writing which can be read by the naked eye, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors and of any decisions taken by a sole director

4 8 Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to these articles and the Companies Act 2006, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors

5 DIRECTORS' PERMITTED INTERESTS

5 1 Provided that (a) he has declared the nature and extent of his interest in accordance with (and to the extent required by) the provisions of article 5 4, and (b) the directors or the shareholders have not (upon request) refused to give specific authorisation pursuant to article 6 for a particular situation or matter, and (c) the directors and shareholders have not otherwise resolved pursuant to article 6 3 that a particular situation or matter shall no longer be authorised, a director, notwithstanding his office, shall be authorised and such authorisations shall extend to any direct or indirect interest that conflicts or possibly may conflict with the interests of the Company which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the situations and matters so authorised and which is capable of being authorised at law. 5 2 The authorisations given pursuant to and the other provisions of article 5 1 shall extend to and include, without limitation, direct or indirect interests of a director which arise (or which may potentially arise) due to

- 5 2 1 any transaction entered into by the director or any shareholder holding the majority of the voting rights attaching to the issued share capital of the Company or any Associate of that shareholder in relation to shares (or securities convertible into shares) debentures or other securities in (a) the Company or any other Group Company, or in (b) such shareholder or in any such Associate of such shareholder,

The provisions of articles 6 3 and 6 4 shall apply mutatis mutandis to any authorisation so given by the shareholders save that the word(s) "directors" or "directors or shareholders" when referring to the authorisation being given, or to any terms and conditions of authorisation being specified, imposed, varied or terminated shall be read only as the word "shareholders". Any authorisation, and the variation or termination of any authorisation by the shareholders under article 6 3 or this article 6 5 shall be by ordinary resolution, save where any greater majority is otherwise required by the Act or other applicable law.

- 7 2 Article 7 1 shall apply, where a director has or could have
- 7 2 1 a direct or indirect interest that conflicts or possibly may conflict with the interests of the Company and provided that the interest or the existence of the situation or relationship leading to the interest has been authorised pursuant to article 5 1 or article 6 and unless otherwise specified by the terms and conditions of such authorisation, and

This article is without prejudice to the ability of a director to withhold such information from the Company in accordance with the provisions of article 7 1

- 8 2 Any appointment or removal of an alternate must be effected by notice in writing to the Company signed by the Appointor, or in any other manner approved by the directors. The notice must identify the proposed alternate and, in the case of a notice of appointment, contain a statement signed by the proposed alternate that the proposed alternate is willing to act as the alternate of the director giving the notice.
- 8 3 An alternate director has the same rights, in relation to any directors' meeting or decision of the directors, as the alternate's Appointor and, without limitation, is entitled to receive notice of all meetings of directors and committees of directors and all meetings of shareholders which their Appointor is entitled to receive and in the absence of their Appointor, to attend, speak and vote at all such meetings at which the Appointor is entitled to attend, speak and vote.
- 8 4 Except as these articles specify otherwise, alternate directors are deemed for all purposes to be directors, are liable for their own acts and omissions, are subject to the same restrictions as their Appointors, and are not deemed to be agents of or for their Appointors.
- 8 5 Subject to article 8 6, a person who is an alternate director, but not a director
- 8 5 1 may be counted as participating in a directors' meeting for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present and may vote on any proposal made at a directors' meeting (if that person's Appointor is not participating but would have been an eligible director in relation to that proposal had he been participating), and
- 8 5 2 may take part in decisions of the directors pursuant to article 4 2 (provided that person's Appointor does not take part in making the decision but would have been an eligible director in relation to that decision had he taken part in making it).
- 8 6 A person may be appointed as the alternate director of more than one director. Where a person is appointed as the alternate director of more than one director, or is an alternate director and a director himself, that alternate director shall (subject to article 4 4)

- 8 6 2 may be counted more than once for the purpose of determining whether or not a quorum is present, and
- 8 6 3 shall be entitled to take part in decisions of the directors pursuant to article 4 2 on behalf of each director by whom he has been appointed (and who would have been an eligible director in relation to that decision) as well as being able to take part in making the decision for himself (if he is a director).
- 8 7 An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for serving as an alternate director except such part of the remuneration of the alternate's Appointor as the Appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the Company.
- 8 8 An alternate director's appointment as an alternate for a particular Appointor shall terminate.

8 8 1 when that Appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the Company in writing specifying when it is to terminate,

8 8 2 on the death of that Appointor, or 8 8 3 when the directorship of that Appointor terminates, and an alternate director's appointment as an alternate for an Appointor (and, if the person is an alternate for more than one director, that person's appointment as an alternate for each Appointor) shall terminate on the occurrence in relation to the alternate of any event which, if it occurred in relation to any Appointor of that alternate, would result in the termination of that Appointor's appointment as a director

9 APPOINTMENT, RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

9 1 The shareholder(s) holding a majority of the voting rights attaching to the issued share capital of the Company may from time to time appoint any person who is willing to act and who is permitted by law to do so, as a director and may remove from office any director, whether appointed under this Article 9 1 or otherwise

9 4 The directors shall have no power to appoint any person to be a director

9 5 7 notification is received by the Company from the director that the director is resigning from office, as director and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms

10 DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION AND EXPENSES

10 1 Subject to the prior written consent of the shareholder(s) holding a majority of the voting rights attaching to the issued share capital of the Company the directors may 10 1 1 appoint a person to the office of managing director or any other executive or salaried office, and

10 1 2 enter into an agreement or arrangement with any such person in respect of such appointment or in respect of the provision by a director of services outside the scope of the ordinary duties of that director, and

10 1 3 agree to pay remuneration in such amount and form (both for their services to the Company as directors and for any other service which they undertake for the Company) as the directors determine

Unless the directors decide otherwise (with the prior written consent of shareholder(s) holding a majority of the voting rights attaching to the issued share capital of the Company) such remuneration shall accrue from day to day and directors shall not be accountable to the Company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the Company's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Company is interested

10 2 The Company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors (including any alternate director) or the Company Secretary properly incur in connection with their attendance at meetings of directors or committees of directors, general meetings, or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the proper exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibility in relation to the Company

10 3 The directors may (with the prior written consent of the shareholder(s) holding a majority of the voting rights attaching to the issued share capital of the Company) exercise all the powers of the Company to provide benefits, whether by the payment of gratuities or pensions or by insurance or otherwise, for any director or former director who holds or has held any executive office or employment with the Company or with any body corporate which is or has been a Group Company or with a predecessor in business of the Company or of any such body corporate, and for any member of his family (including a spouse, former spouse, civil partner or former civil partner) or any person who is or was dependent on him, and may contribute to any fund and pay premiums for the purchase or provision of any such benefit

11 SHARES: GENERAL

11 1 Subject to these articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the Company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution

- 11 2 The Company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the relevant shareholder
- 11 3 Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or these articles, the Company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the shareholders absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it
- 11 4 The Company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds
- 11 5 Every certificate must specify
  - 11 5 1 In respect of how many shares and of what class, it is issued,
  - 11 5 2 the nominal value of those shares,
  - 11 5 3 the amount paid up in respect of those shares, and
  - 11 5 4 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them,and no certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class. Certificates must have affixed to them the Company's common seal, or be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts
- 11 6 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it and delivery to one joint shareholder shall be a sufficient delivery to all of them
- 11 7 If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder's shares is damaged or defaced, or said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares. A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates and (if it is damaged or defaced) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the Company, and must comply with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity as the directors decide

12 SHARES: LIENS, CALLS AND FORFEITURE

12 1 Company's lien over partly paid shares

- 12 1 1 The Company has a lien (the "Company's lien") over every share which is not fully paid for any part of that share's nominal value and any premium at which it was issued, which has not been paid to the Company, and which is payable immediately or at some time in the future, whether or not a call notice has been sent in respect of it
- 12 1 2 The Company's lien over a share takes priority over any third party's interest in that share and extends to any dividend or other money payable by the Company in respect of that share and (if the lien is enforced and the share is sold by the Company) the proceeds of sale of that share
- 12 1 3 The directors may at any time decide that a share which is or would otherwise be subject to the Company's lien shall not be subject to it, either wholly or in part

12 1 4 Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Company's first and paramount lien on every share (whether or not fully paid) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share and the extension of that lien to all dividends payable by the Company in respect of that share shall not apply where any such shares have been mortgaged or charged by way of security in which event such lien shall rank behind any such security

12 2 Enforcement of the Company's lien

12 2 1 Subject to the provisions of this article, if a lien enforcement notice has been given (in accordance with article 12 2 2) in respect of a share and the person to whom the notice was given has failed to comply with it, the Company may sell that share in such manner as the directors decide

12 2 2 A lien enforcement notice

12 2 2 1 may only be given in respect of a share which is subject to the Company's lien, in respect of which a sum is payable and the due date for payment of that sum has passed,

12 2 2 2 must specify the share concerned,

12 2 2 3 must require payment of the sum payable within 14 clear days after the notice has been given,

12 2 2 4 must be addressed either to the holder of the share, and

12 2 2 5 must state the Company's intention to sell the share if the notice is not complied with 12 2 3 Where shares are sold under this article the directors may authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to the purchaser or a person nominated by the purchaser, and the transferee is not bound to see to the application of the consideration, and the transferee's title is not affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the sale

12 2 4 The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the costs of sale and any other costs of enforcing the lien) must be applied first, in payment of so much of the sum for which the lien exists as was payable at the date of the lien enforcement notice, and second, to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale, but only after the certificate for the shares sold has been surrendered to the Company for cancellation (or an indemnity in a form acceptable to the directors has been given for any lost certificates), and subject to a lien over the residue of the net proceeds of sale (equivalent to the Company's lien) for any money payable in respect of the shares (whether payable immediately or some time in the future) after the date of the lien enforcement notice

12 2 5 A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that the declarant is a director or the secretary and that a share has been sold to satisfy the Company's lien on a specified date is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share

12 3 Call notices

12 3 1 Subject to the articles and the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may send a notice (a "call notice") to a shareholder requiring the shareholder to pay the Company a specified sum of money (a "call") which is payable in respect of any monies unpaid on the shares which that shareholder holds at the date when the directors decide to send the call

notice

12 3 2 A call notice may not require a shareholder to pay a call which exceeds the total sum unpaid on that shareholders shares (whether as to the share's nominal value or any amount payable to the Company by way of premium) must state when and how any call to which it relates it is to be paid and may permit or require the call to be paid by instalments

12 3 3 A shareholder must comply with the requirements of a call notice, but no shareholder is obliged to pay any call before 14 clear days have passed since the notice was sent

12 3 4 Before the Company has received any call due under a call notice the directors may, by a further notice in writing to the shareholder in respect of whose shares the call is made, revoke the call wholly or in part, or specify a later time for payment than is specified in the notice

12 4 Liability to pay calls

12 4 1 Liability to pay a call is not extinguished or transferred by transferring the shares in respect of which it is required to be paid

12 4 2 Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of that share

12 4 3 Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the directors may, when issuing shares, provide that call notices sent to the holders of those shares may require them to pay calls which are not the same, or to pay calls at different times

12 5 When call notice need not be issued

A call notice need not be issued in respect of sums which are specified, in the terms on which a share is issued, as being payable to the Company in respect of that share (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) on allotment, on the occurrence of a particular event, or on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue. But if the due date for payment of such a sum has passed and it has not been paid, the holder of the share concerned is treated in all respects as having failed to comply with a call notice in respect of that sum, and is liable to the same consequences as regards the payment of interest and forfeiture

12 6 Failure to comply with a call notice: automatic consequences

12 6 1 If a person is liable to pay a call and fails to do so by the call payment date

12 6 1 1 the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture to that person, and 12 6 1 2 until the call is paid, that person must pay the company interest on the call from the call payment date at the relevant rate

12 6 2 For the purposes of this article

12 6 2 1 the "call payment date" is the time when the call notice states that a call is payable, unless the directors give a notice specifying a later date, in which case the "call payment date" is that later date, and 12 6 2 2 the "relevant rate" is

12 6 2 2 1 the rate fixed by the terms on which the share in respect of which the call is due was allotted,

12 6 2 2 2 such other rate as was fixed in the call notice which required payment of the call, or has otherwise been determined by the directors, or

12 6 2 2 3 If no rate is fixed in either of these ways, 5 per cent per annum

12 6 3 The relevant rate must not exceed by more than 5 percentage points the base lending rate most recently set by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England in connection with its responsibilities under Part 2 of the Bank of England Act 1998

12 6 4 The directors may waive any obligation to pay interest on a call wholly or in part

12 7 Notice of intended forfeiture

A notice of intended forfeiture

12 7 1 may be sent in respect of any share in respect of which a call has not been paid as required by a call notice,

12 7 2 must be sent to the holder (or all the joint holders of that share),

12 7 3 must require payment of the call and any accrued interest by a date which is not less than 14 clear days after the date of the notice,

12 7 4 must state how the payment is to be made, and 12 7 5 must state that if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which the call is payable will be liable to be forfeited

12 8 Directors' powers to forfeit shares

If a notice of intended forfeiture is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is required in the notice of intended forfeiture, the directors may decide that any share in respect of which it was given is forfeited, and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture

12 9 Effect of forfeiture

12 9 1 Subject to the articles, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes

12 9 1 1 all interests in that share, and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of it, and

12 9 1 2 all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share it was prior to the forfeiture and the Company

12 9 2 Any share which is forfeited in accordance with the articles

12 9 2 1 is deemed to have been forfeited when the directors decide that it is forfeited, 12 9 2 2 is deemed to be the property of the Company, and 12 9 2 3 may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the directors think fit

12 9 3 If a person's shares have been forfeited

12 9 3 1 the Company must send that person notice that forfeiture has occurred and record it in the register of shareholders,

12 9 3 2 that person ceases to be a shareholder in respect of those shares,

12 9 3 3 that person must surrender the certificate for the shares forfeited to the Company for cancellation,

12 9 3 4 that person remains liable to the Company for all sums payable by that person under the articles at the date of forfeiture in respect of those shares, including any interest (whether accrued before or after the date of forfeiture), and

12 9 3 5 the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal

12 9 4 At any time before the Company disposes of a forfeited share, the directors may decide to cancel the forfeiture on payment of all calls and interest due in respect of it and on such other terms as they think fit

12 10 Procedure following forfeiture

12 10 1 If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the Company may receive the consideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the instrument of transfer

12 10 2 A statutory declaration by a director or the secretary that the declarant is a director or the secretary and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and, subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share

12 10 3 A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture or transfer of the share

12 10 4 If the Company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the Company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission, and excluding any amount which

12 10 4 1 was, or would have become, payable, and 12 10 4 2 had not, when that share was forfeited, been paid by that person in respect of that share, but no interest is payable to such a person in respect of such proceeds and the Company is not required to account for any money earned on them

12 11 Surrender of shares

A shareholder may surrender any share in respect of which the directors may issue a notice of intended forfeiture, or which the directors may forfeit or which has been forfeited, and the directors may accept the surrender of any such share. The effect of surrender on a share is the same as the effect of forfeiture on that share and a share that has been surrendered may be dealt with in the same way as a share which has been forfeited

13 SHARES: AUTHORITY TO ALLOT

The directors are prohibited from exercising any power of the Company to allot shares or grant rights to subscribe for or convert any security into shares in accordance with section 550 Companies Act 2006, except with the prior consent of shareholder(s) holding not less than a majority of the voting rights attaching to the issued share capital of the Company

14      SHARES: TRANSFER

- 14 1    Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor or, in the case of partly paid shares, executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and transferee. No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share and the Company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered
- 14 2    The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members as shareholder in respect of it
- 14 3    Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles and except as required by the Companies Act 2006 or otherwise by law, the directors shall not refuse to register the transfer of a share and shall register any transfer of a share as soon as practicable and in any event within two months after the date on which the following are lodged at the office or such other place as the directors may appoint
  - 14 3 1    the duly stamped (or exempt) transfer, and
  - 14 3 2    the certificate(s) for the shares to which the transfer relates or an indemnity in lieu of the certificate(s) in a form reasonably satisfactory to the directors
- 14 4    Where in any such case the transfer is or is to be
  - 14 4 1    executed by a bank or institution to which such shares have been mortgaged or charged by way of security (or by any nominee of such bank or institution) pursuant to a power of sale under such security,
  - 14 4 2    executed by a receiver or manager appointed by or on behalf of any such bank or institution under any such security, or
  - 14 4 3    to any such bank or institution (or to its nominee) pursuant to any such securitya certificate by any officer of such bank or institution that the shares were so charged and the transfer was so executed shall be conclusive evidence of such facts

15      DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

15 1    Procedure for declaring dividends

- 15 1 1    The Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends
- 15 1 2    No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights. Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or the directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it
- 15 1 3    The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment

15 2 Payment of dividends and other distributions

15 2 1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means

15 2 1 1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the Distribution Recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,

15 2 1 2 sending a cheque made payable to the Distribution Recipient by post (in accordance with article 23 4) to the Distribution Recipient at the Distribution Recipient's registered address (if the Distribution Recipient is the shareholder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the Distribution Recipient in writing or (where no such address has been specified) as the directors may otherwise decide,

15 2 1 3 sending a cheque made payable to such person by post (in accordance with article 23 4) to such person at such address as the Distribution Recipient has specified in writing or (where no such address has been specified) as the directors may otherwise decide, or 15 2 1 4 any other means of payment as the directors agree with the Distribution Recipient in writing

15 2 2 In these articles, "Distribution Recipient" means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable

15 2 2 1 the shareholder of the share, or 15 2 2 2 if the share has two or more joint shareholders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members, or 15 2 2 3 if the shareholder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the Transmittee

15 3 No interest on distributions

The Company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by the terms on which the share was issued, or the provisions of another agreement between the shareholder of that share and the Company

15 4 Unclaimed distributions

15 4 1 All dividends or other sums which are payable in respect of shares and which are unclaimed after having been declared or becoming payable, may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed. The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it

15 4 2 If twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment and the Distribution Recipient has not claimed it, the Distribution Recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company

15 5 Non-cash distributions

15 5 1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company)

15 5 2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including (where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution) fixing the value of any assets, paying cash to any Distribution Recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of Distribution Recipients, and vesting any assets in trustees

15 6 Waiver of distributions

Distribution Recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect prior to the declaration of a dividend by a general meeting, or the payment of an interim dividend decided on by the directors, but if the share has more than one shareholder, or more than one person is entitled to the share whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint shareholders or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the shareholders or persons otherwise entitled to the share

16 CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

16 1 Subject to these articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution

16 1 1 decide to capitalise any profits of the Company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve, and

16 1 2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise ("capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend ("persons entitled") and in the same proportions

16 2 Capitalised sums must be applied on behalf of the persons entitled, and in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them

16 3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct

16 4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct

16 5 Subject to these articles the directors may 16 5 1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with articles 16 3 and 16 4 partly in one way and partly in another,

16 5 2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments or ignoring fractions altogether), and

16 5 3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article

17 DECISION-MAKING BY SHAREHOLDERS: ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

17.1 Attendance and speaking at general meetings

17.1.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate orally to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting

17.1.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when

17.1.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

17.1.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting

17.1.3 The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it

17.1.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other

17.1.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them. Such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those persons are assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting is located

17.2 Quorum for general meetings

The quorum required at general meetings and adjourned meetings shall be any qualifying person or qualifying persons together holding shares representing not less than the majority of the voting rights attaching to the issued share capital of the Company present at the meeting. No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting or an adjourned meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum. For the purposes of this article 17.2 a "qualifying person" means (i) an individual who is a shareholder of the Company, (ii) a person authorised to act as the representative of a corporation who is a shareholder in relation to the meeting, or (iii) a person appointed as proxy of a shareholder in relation to the meeting

17.3 Attendance and speaking by directors and non-shareholders

Unless the shareholder(s) holding shares representing a majority of the voting rights attaching to the issued share capital of the Company resolve otherwise in relation to a particular meeting, directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders

17.4 Notice deemed received

A shareholder present either in person or by proxy, at any meeting of the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where relevant, of the purposes for which it was called

17 5 Adjournment

17 5 1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn the meeting. The chairman of the meeting must also adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by a meeting at which a quorum is present.

17 5 2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if the meeting consents to an adjournment, or it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

17 5 3 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned (which shall be the time and place (if any) specified at the meeting by shareholder(s) holding a majority of the voting rights attached to the issued share capital of the Company) or (if no such time and place are so stated by the shareholders) state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors.

17 5 4 Save where (a) the adjournment is of a temporary nature lasting not more than half an hour, (b) the adjourned meeting is to be held in the same place as the original meeting, and (c) the chairman announces whilst a quorum is present the time at which the adjourned meeting shall start, at least 5 clear days' notice shall be given of every adjourned meeting.
