Notes

- 1 The Articles of the Company provide that directors are entitled to vote on matters in which they are interested and that they were not prevented by any resolutions from doing so
- 2 The Company can only proceed to members' voluntary liquidation if the requirements of Section 89 of the Insolvency Act 1986 are complied with and, in particular, that all or a majority of the directors are required to swear a Declaration of Solvency ("the Declaration") The Declaration is to the effect that the directors have made a full inquiry into the Company's affairs and agreed that it would be able to pay all of its debts, together with interest at the official rate (as defined in Section 189 of the Insolvency Act 1986) (currently 8%), within 12 months from the commencement of the winding up
- 3 The Declaration must be made within the five week period preceding the written resolutions and embody a statement of assets and liabilities as at the latest practicable date before the making of the Declaration
- 4 Any director making the Declaration without having reasonable grounds for believing it to be true would be liable to imprisonment, a fine or both
- 5 On the members passing the resolution to wind up, control of the Company's affairs will pass to the Joint Liquidators and the powers of the directors will cease, except to the extent that they may be sanctioned by the Joint Liquidators or the Company in general meeting
