Directors' report

The Directors present their annual report together with the unaudited financial statements of the Company for the period ended 30 September 2013.

Principal activities, trading review and future development

The company has been dormant as defined in section 1169 of the Companies Act 2006.

On 1 January 2009, the trade and assets of Tepnel Diagnostics Ltd were sold to Gen-Probe Life Sciences Ltd and hence the company did not trade in 2013. Previously, the Company was engaged in the research and development and commercialisation of a range of diagnostic products and services. It is anticipated that the company will remain dormant for the foreseeable future.

Key performance indicators are not considered necessary for an understanding of the development, performance or position of the company. There are no risks or uncertainties facing the company including those within the context of financial instruments.

As disclosed in Note 8, with effect from 1 August 2012, following the acquisition of Gen-Probe Incorporated by Hologic, Inc on that date, the Directors consider the Company's ultimate parent company to be Hologic, Inc.

Directors and their interests

The Directors who held office during the period are given below:

C Hull	(resigned 15 February 2013)
M J Casey	(appointed 3 January 2013)
D P Harding	(appointed 3 January 2013)
G P Muir	(appointed 3 January 2013)
A Lesage	(appointed 3 January 2013)

None of the Directors had an interest in the share capital of the Company at the beginning and end of the period.

Directors' responsibilities statement

The Directors are responsible for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable United Kingdom Law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

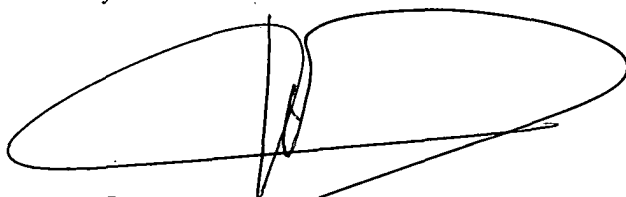

Company law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that year. In preparing those financial statements, the Directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The Directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
