Directors' Report

The directors present their report together with the accounts of the company, for the year ended 31 December 2003.

Principal activity and business review

The company was established by London & Continental Railways Limited ('LCR') and Exel Holdings Limited ('Exel'), in order to regulate their input into a project agreement relating to the prospective development of their property interests around King's Cross Station known as King's Cross Central (KXC) lands. Subject to planning permission, the KXC lands, covering 58 acres, will be developed, by a joint venture including LCR and Exel, as a mixed use development comprising commercial, residential and retail.

The company did not trade during the year and is not expected to carry on any activities in the short term. Any administrative costs are currently borne by the members.

Directors and their Interests

The directors who served during the year were as follows:

JB Coghlan
RME Mann
RG Groom
SR Jordan

No director has any interest in the shares of the Company.

Auditors

The company was dormant throughout the year within the meaning of section 249AA(4) of the Companies Act 1985, and accordingly these accounts are not subject to audit.
