GENERAL MEETINGS

- 10 The first Annual General Meeting of the Company shall be held at such time not being more than 18 months after the incorporation of the Company and at such place as the Board may determine
- 11 Subject to Article 11 the Company shall in each year hold an Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Company and that of the next Annual General Meetings shall be held at such times and places as the Board shall determine

- 12 All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings. The Board may call General Meetings and, on the requisition of Company Members in accordance with the provisions of the Act, shall within 21 days from the date of the deposit of the requisition convene an Extraordinary General Meeting for a date not later than eight weeks after the deposit of the requisition.
- 13 If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient Trustees to convene a General Meeting, any Trustee or any Company Member may convene a General Meeting.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 14 All General Meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice or shorter notice if it is [REDACTED]
- 15 The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted and, in the case of an Annual General Meeting, shall specify the meeting as such. The notice shall be given to all Company Members, Trustees and the Auditors.
- 16 In every notice calling a general meeting of the Company there must appear with reasonable prominence a statement informing the member of his rights to appoint another person as his or her proxy at a general meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 10 No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present. Two persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a Company Member or a duly authorised representative of a Company Member organisation, or one tenth of the total number of such persons for the time being, whichever is the greater, shall constitute a quorum.
- 11¹ If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the Board may determine.
- 12 The Chairman, if any, of the Board or in his absence some other Trustee nominated by the Board shall preside as chairman of the meeting, but if neither the Chairman nor such Trustee (if any) be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the Trustees present shall elect one of their number to be chairman and, if there is only one Trustee present and willing to act, he shall be chairman.

¹ An error in the numbering of Articles 18 to 83 (previously numbered 180 to 830) was corrected by a written resolution of the members passed on 5 April 2007.

- 13 If no Trustee is willing to act as chairman, or if no Trustee is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman
- 14 A Trustee shall, notwithstanding that he is not a Company Member, be entitled to attend and speak (but not vote) at any General Meeting
- 15 The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice
- 16 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, a poll may be demanded
- (5) by the chairman, or
 - (6) by at least two Company Members present in person or by proxy, or
 - (7) by a Company Member or Company Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Company Members having the right to vote at the meeting

- 18 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the chairman. The withdrawal of a demand for a poll shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand for the poll was made
- 19 A poll shall be taken as the chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded
- 20 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the chairman directs. The demand for a poll shall not prevent continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll is demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the results of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made

- 28 A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the Company Members who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible Company Member and a simple majority(or in the case of a special resolution a majority of not less than 75%) has signified its agreement to the resolution in an authenticated document which has been received by the Company within a period of 42 days beginning with the circulation date A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more Company Members have signified their agreement In the case of a Company Member that is an organisation, its authorised representative may signify its agreement
