Directors' Report

for the year ended 31 March 2006

The directors present their report on the affairs of the Company, together with the unaudited balance sheet and notes thereto, for the year ended 31 March 2006.

Date of incorporation

The company was incorporated on 3 August 2001.

Directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial period, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Business review and future prospects

The company did not trade during the year and consequently made neither profit nor loss.

The Directors do not expect the company to commence trading in the foreseeable future.

Directors

The directors who were in office during the year and at the end of the year are listed on page 1.

Directors' interests

David Firth is also a director of the ultimate parent company, Penna Consulting Plc. His interest in the shares of that company are disclosed in the financial statements of that parent company.

The directors' interests in the ordinary share capital of the ultimate parent company Penna Consulting plc were as follows:
