1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Misys plc and its results, assets and liabilities are included in the consolidated financial statements of that company, which are publicly available. Consequently, the Company has taken advantage of the exemption from preparing a cash flow statement under the terms of FRS1 (revised 1996).

Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards.

Foreign currencies

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are converted at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions in foreign currencies are converted at the rate ruling at the date of each transaction. Exchange differences are included in the profit and loss account.

Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

Investments

Investments held as fixed assets are stated at cost less provision considered necessary for any impairment. The need for any impairment write-down is assessed by comparison of the carrying value of the asset against the higher of net realisable value or value in use. The value in use is determined from estimated discounted future cash flows. Discount rates used are based on cost of capital.

Derivative financial instruments

Derivative financial instruments are used soley by the Company to reduce or eliminate foreign exchange or interest rate risks for the Misys plc group. Derivative instruments used include interest rate swaps. Derivative instruments are considered to be hedges because they are used to reduce the risk profile of an existing underlying exposure in accordance with Misys Group's risk management policies. When instruments are used for hedging purposes, the instrument's impact on profit is deferred until the underlying hedged item is recognised in the profit and loss account. In the Company's accounts the impact of interest rate swaps is recognised in the profit and loss account as the interest accrues

Deferred taxation

Deferred taxation is recognised in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the balance sheet date where transactions or events have occurred at that date that will result in an obligation to pay more, or a right to pay less tax in the future.

Resultant deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is considered more likely than not that there will be suitable taxable profits from which the underlying timing differences can be deducted, or where there are deferred tax liabilities against which the assets can be recovered.

Deferred tax is measured on an undiscounted basis at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the periods in which timing differences reverse, based on tax rates and laws enacted or substantially enacted at the balance sheet date.

2. OPERATING LOSS

Auditors' remuneration has been borne by a fellow subsidiary undertaking during both the current and prior year. The Company does not have any employees. The Directors received no remuneration in respect of qualifying services.
