Report of the Directors

The directors present their report and the financial statements for the year to February 28, 2007

Principal Activities

The company is principally engaged in investing in mining projects and providing consulting, research and advisory services to enterprises within the international mining industry. The directors consider the results to date satisfactory.

Review of the Business

The loss for the year after taxation was £1,161 (2006 loss £1,136). The directors do not recommend the payment of a dividend and the loss has been transferred to reserves.

Directors

The director who served throughout the year and his interest in the shares of the Company at February 28, 2007 as recorded in the register maintained by the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 1985, were as follows:

	Number of Ordinary £1 Shares
	At February 28, 2007	At February 28, 2006
D Paxton	100	100

No director had, during or at the end of the year, any material interest in a contract that was significant in relation to the Company's business.

Audit

The financial statements for the year have not been audited because the Company is entitled to the exemption conferred by subsection (1) of section 249A of the Companies Act 1985.

No notice has been deposited under subsection (2) of section 249B of the Companies Act 1985 in relation to the financial statements for the year.

Responsibilities of the Directors

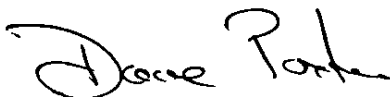

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing these financial statements the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the Company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for ensuring that proper accounting records are kept which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In preparing the above report, the directors have taken advantage of special exemptions applicable to small companies provided by Part II of Schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985.
