Partnerships

Schools

Script to Screen (longest standing LFA programme 10 years+)

LA Productions continues to offer Work Based Learning/Placement to local Schools. The most recent of these was to St. Hilda's School with a year 10 pupil working with staff in three different departments from 17th to 21st June 2019.

In 2017 Skillset provided funding for the LFA to provide education and training over for 16 school pupils (age group 16-18) to train for a career in the film and television industry. The course Script to Screen is an established LFA programme that is taught by industry professionals.

This kind of education and training is not possible within an education environment. LFA's strength is its attachment to LA Productions. Outcomes for graduates of the Academy are good with three students already placed in industry roles. We commit to supporting our alumni into work.

Outcomes include short films for festival and general exhibition

LA Production staff also go into local Schools and workshop students to develop short films about social issues. These have included collaborations with the Schools and the local Fire Service, Football Club (Liverpool and Everton), Police Service and many others.

University

Placement/Work Based Learning Scheme (longest standing LFA Scheme 10 years+)

LFA works with all of the local Universities:

- Edge Hill University
- Liverpool University
- Liverpool John Moores University
- Liverpool City Community College
- Manchester Metropolitan University

This Scheme has existed since the establishment of the Academy, is the longest standing commitment to local education.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Working with LA Productions, LFA remains in a strong position to offer WBL/Placement to a large number of under-graduates from all the Universities named below and further afield. Many of these trainees are now working professionally in the industry as a result of the high standard of training, experience and networking they receive. Our records show that in the six months up to end June 2019 LFA have processed 21 WBL/Placement opportunities on LA Productions film and television projects. As this trend continues across the year it is evident that LFA manage between 40/50 trainees a year. This is a considerable number of placements which can range from a few days to several months and more. Because of the unique relationship between LA Productions and LFA this provides a unique and beneficial opportunity for trainees. It also demands considerable resources of LFA and LA Productions staff.

An example of projects undertaken by LFA working with LA Productions in the year 2018/19 include:

Liverpool University 2019/20

Students from Liverpool University attended LFA for a full day workshop by professional and academic staff from LA productions. They worked on the live production of series 11 of Moving On. This required considerable resources from the Film Academy/LA Productions staff but the outcome was an outstanding success by all accounts the highlight of their degree and students are requesting more of this kind of activity.

Edge Hill University 2018/19

LA Productions in Partnership with Edge Hill University, Animation Department, set up a partnership project with the Singer and Artist, Mike McCarthy (Mike McGear). Mike has a record album that is due to be released imminently (June). The project involved recruiting a (paid) Edge Hill graduating student to work on three/four short animations that will accompany the release of the album. As Mike McCartney is a giant in the record industry the project provided an opportunity for the student and the profile of the University.

LA Productions used Edge Hill University as a location for one of the five episodes of BBC/LA Productions Moving On, Series 10. Not only did this provide an opportunity for five students from Edge Hill Media Department to work on the series they were also able to hold the premier of the series at Edge Hill University. This was a high profile opportunity for the University to display the campus and to offer a high profile screening opportunity to staff, students and the local community. This event attracted a wide range of great actors from film and television in the audience alone (Ricky Tomlinson, Ian Puleston-Davies and Oliver Coopersmith (Tim Star) to name just a few. On the podium were six key players for the series including scriptwriter, Jimmy McGovern, Producers Colin McKeown and Donna Molloy etc.).

LA Productions/LFA have a long history of working together with Edge Hill University providing WBL/Placement and Masterclasses and Events by LA Productions at Edge Hill organized by the Film Academy and the creative Departments at the University - examples include:

Common (2014) Producer, McKeown; Director, Blair and Script Writer, McGovern attended Edge Hill University for a screening and a Q&A session with some 200 staff and students and people from the local community. The result was David Blair was able to place a student on his next film Juno from which the student gained an invaluable credit. Working with Blair Templer and Timothy Spall is no mean accomplishment for a student of film.

Other Partnerships:

BBC Bursary Scheme

LA Productions have been awarded a paid bursary from the BBC for BAME trainees/students to be paid to work on all productions. The experience is invaluable. Again the time, resources and energy afforded to managing and properly monitoring these projects is substantial on the staff at LA Productions and LFA responsible for the development of the trainee.

Projects

Anthony TV Film:

The bursary allowed people from various backgrounds to work on the production written by Jimmy McGovern about Anthony Walker a local boy killed in a racially motivated attack. One of the trainees was referred to LFA/LA from The Anthony Walker Foundation, which is a local charity established after the racially motivated murder of Anthony in 2005. Other trainees were placed in wardrobe, make-up, locations.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Moving On Series:

These placements were for five episodes of the whole series working with a different director and cast on every episode. BBC also provided a similar bursary for series 10 in 2018 with three trainees working in Directing, Camera and Costume and feedback from trainees was that they had an outstanding experience.

BBC also provided a bursary similarly in 2017

This Scheme is highly successful and feedback from students indicates it is invaluable in gaining professional training and again requires substantial work and commitment from both LA Productions/LFA.

Manchester Metropolitan University (MMU)/Industry Partners

Partnership with MMU on 2018 Arts and Humanities Research Council (AHRC) creative industries bid to work in partnership with the University. Success for the bid would have led to a wide range of education and collaborative projects

National Educational Networks include:

- National Film and Television School (NFTS)
- London Film School

International Networks include:

- New York Film Academy (NYFA): Colin McKeown, CEO of LA Productions visited the School in New York early 2018 and currently in collaboration for ongoing projects

- Current director of the School has served on the Polish National Theatre, Film and Television School annual Film Festival jury, Hong Kong and Chinese Region Film Festival jury and The Russian National Film and Television School (VGIK) jury and relationships exist with all of these Schools and others internationally.
