1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ('IFRS'), adopted for use in the European Union and with those parts of the Companies Act 2006 applicable to companies reporting under IFRS.

A description of how the impairment of the investment was calculated is given in Note 7.

Cash at bank was not impaired as it is expected to be recoverable in full at the current value.

The financial statements are presented in pounds sterling and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand pounds, except when otherwise indicated.

Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

In the process of applying these accounting policies, management has exercised judgement and estimates in determining the amounts recognised in the financial statements. The most significant uses of judgement and estimates are as follows:

Impairment of non-financial assets

Impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset or cash generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs to sell and its value in use. The investment of Talos Holdings Limited in Talos Securities Limited has been impaired for the reasons described in Note 1 above with further details in Note 7.

Consolidated financial statements

The company has not prepared consolidated financial statements by virtue of the exemption granted by s400 CA 2006 (subsidiary undertaking of EEA).

Investment revenues relate to dividend and interest income from cash at bank.

Finance Costs

Finance costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

Investments

Investments comprise ordinary shares in subsidiary holdings. Investments are all held at cost less provision for impairment. The company assesses at each reporting date whether there are any indicators of impairment. If such indication exists, the company makes an estimate of the investment's recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of the investment's fair value less costs to sell and is determined for an individual investment. Where the carrying amount of investment exceeds its recoverable amount, the investment is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

Taxation including deferred tax

Tax comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the income statement except to the extent it relates to items recognised directly in Equity, in which case it is recognised in Equity. Current tax is the expected tax payable on the income for the year, using the rates enacted at the balance sheet date, and any adjustments to the tax payable in respect of previous years.

The company applies IAS 12, Income Taxes. Under the asset and liability method of IAS 12, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax laws is recognised in the income statement, unless related to items directly recognised in equity, in the year the new laws are substantively enacted. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that the directors consider that it is probable that future taxable income will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits can be utilised.

Financial Assets

The company's only financial assets other than cash are other receivables

Other receivables

Other receivables are classified as loans and receivables under IAS 39 and are measured on initial recognition at transaction cost that is directly attributable to the acquisition and are subsequently carried at the lower of their original transaction value and recoverable amount. Provision is made when there is objective evidence that the company will not be able to recover balances in full. Balances are written off when the probability of recovery is assessed as being remote.

Other financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into, and are measured at fair value.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and demand deposits.
