Directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the director to prepare accounts for each financial period, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit of the company for the period.

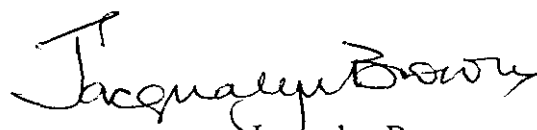

In preparing these accounts, the director is required to select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently; make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable her to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. She is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions relating to small companies within Part V11 of the Companies Act 1985.

On behalf of the Board.
