2 Accounting policies

Summary of significant accounting policies and key accounting estimates

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 Section 1A - 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006.

Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared using the historical cost convention except that as disclosed in the accounting policies certain items are shown at fair value.

Revenue recognition

Service charges comprises the fair value of the consideration received or receivable for the sale of goods and provision of services in the ordinary course of the company's activities. Service charges is shown net of sales/value added tax, returns, rebates and discounts.

The company recognises revenue when:

The amount of revenue can be reliably measured;
it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity;
and specific criteria have been met for each of the company's activities.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and call deposits, and other short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

Service charges in arrears

Service charges in arrears are amounts due from customers for merchandise sold or services performed in the ordinary course of business.

Service charges in arrears are recognised at the transaction price, less provision for impairment. A provision for the impairment of service charges in arrears is established when there is objective evidence that the company will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of the receivables.

Service charges in advance

Service charges in advance are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Accounts payable are classified as current liabilities if the company does not have an unconditional right, at the end of the reporting period, to defer settlement of the creditor for at least twelve months after the reporting date. If there is an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least twelve months after the reporting date, they are presented as non-current liabilities.

Service charges in advance are recognised at the transaction price.

3 Staff numbers

The average number of persons employed by the company (including directors) during the year, was 0 (2018 - 0).
