

ACCOUNTANTS REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS ON THE UNAUDITED ACCOUNTS OF

KINGFISHER TESTING LIMITED.

I report on the accounts for the period ended 31ST MARCH 2015

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND REPORTING ACCOUNTANTS.

As describes on the Balance Sheet the company's Directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they consider the company to be exempt from audit. It is my responsibility to carry out the procedures designed to enable me to report my opinion.

BASIS OF OPINION

My work was carried out in accordance with The Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants and so my procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records kept by the company and making such limited enquiries to the officers of the company as I considered necessary for the purpose of this report.

OPINION

In my opinion the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under Section 386 of the Companies Act 2006:-

having regard only to and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:-

the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in the Companies Act 2006 and the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from audit of the accounts for the year specified in S477 of the Act and did not at any time within that year fall within the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

FOR THE YEAR ENDED

31ST MARCH 2015

The Director presents herewith his Annual Report on the affairs of the Company for the above period.

- 1./ The company results are shown in the attached accounts. The Director recommends the payment of a dividend.
- 2./ The principle activity of the company during the year was computer consultancy.
- 3./ The Director of the company during the period and his shareholdings were as follows:

Ordinary Shares

Mr P Surgett

1000

- 4./ Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;

make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

comply with applicable accounting standards subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Advantage is taken in the preparation of the Directors Report of the Special Exemptions applicable to small companies conferred by S381 and S382 Companies Act 2006
