Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As described on page 4 the Company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts, and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry procedures designed to enable to report our opinion.

Basis of opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, so our procedures consisted of comparing with the accounting records kept by the company, and making such limited enquires of the company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report. These procedures provides only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- a) the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under section 386 of the Companies Act 2006.
- b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records:
 - (1) the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in section 386 of the Act: and
 - (2) the company satisfied the conditions for exemption from an audit of the accounts for the period specified in section 386 of the Act and did not at any time within that period, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in section 476.
