LIGHT FROM AFRICA

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 28 FEBRUARY 2014

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Risk Management

The major risks to which the charity is exposed have been reviewed and systems established to mitigate those risks. A key element in the management of financial risk has been the setting of a reserves policy and its regular review by trustees.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The objects of the charity are as follows:

1. to solicit, raise and provide funding in support of (and to provide benefits for) children who have suffered (whether by losing parents, or becoming homeless or otherwise), as a result of such children, or their parents or guardians contracting Aids (or other serious disease or ill-health).
2. to advance the public education and awareness of Aids and/or any other serious disease or threat to public health.
3. to relieve poverty through the provision of financial support for Aids-orphaned and homeless children.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Activities during the year

During the year under review we have received donations of £32,225 and we have remitted to South African charities the sum of £31,001. Administration costs amounted to £1,284.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The trustees have decided that there will be no significant funds held on reserve. Income reserves at 28 February 2014 were £311 in deficit (2013-£251).

Investment powers and policy

Under the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the charity has the power to invest in any way the trustees wish.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Approved by order of the board of trustees on  and signed on its behalf by:

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF LIGHT FROM AFRICA

I report on the accounts for the year ended 28 February 2014 set out on pages four to nine.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Sections 394 and 395 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
