Statement of Directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and UK Generally Accepted Accounting practice (UK GAAP).

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- ~ select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- ~ make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- ~ prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Statement as to disclosure of information to Auditors

The directors of the company who held office at the date of the approval of this annual report confirm that so far as the directors are aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the company's auditors are unaware. And they have taken all the steps that they ought to have taken as directors in order to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company's auditors are aware of that information.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF
ROWNER (RODNEY CLOSE) RESIDENTS COMPANY LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements of Rowner (Rodney Close) Residents Company Limited for the period ended 31 March 2010, which comprise the Income and Expenditure Account the Balance Sheet and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Section 495 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As described in the Report of the Directors, the company's directors are responsible for preparing the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and international standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board (APB's) Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances and have consistently applied and adequately disclosed, the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the directors, and the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Opinion on the financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements

- give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 March 2010 and of its results for the year then ended
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Practice, and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the Report of the Directors for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion

- Adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us, or
- The financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records or returns, or
- Certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made, or

We have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or

- The directors were not entitled to prepare the financial statements and the directors' report in accordance with the small companies regime

The Class "A" shareholder is entitled to receive notices of, attend, speak and vote at general meetings of the company. After the last house on the site is purchased and on the same day that Annington Nominees Limited resigns as director, the Class "A" share that this company holds will be cancelled and redesignated as a Class "C" share which will have no rights to receive notices of, attend, speak or vote at general meetings of the company. Class "B" shareholders are also not entitled to receive notices of, attend, speak or vote at general meetings of the company until such time the Class "A" share is redesignated as a Class "C" share.

Class "B" shares may not be allotted or issued to any person other than house owner/leaseholder. A Class "B" shareholder shall, and may only, transfer his "B" share simultaneously with the completion of the transfer of ownership of his house or the assignment of his lease to the new purchaser.

The director may declare dividends which only Class "A" or Class "B" shareholders would be entitled to receive. On winding up, the liquidator has the right to decide how the division of any assets between the different classes of shareholders is carried out.
