Objectives and aims

To preserve for the benefit of the public physical artefacts and objects that relate to the history and heritage of the sport of falconry, including its contributions to the scientific sub-disciplines of raptor biology, captive breeding and conservation in a world-wide context.

The Falconry Heritage Trust aims to establish a portal for the world's falconers and other interested parties to access aspects of the sport's rich heritage by linking existing physical archives, including international private and public collections, through the medium of an electronic archive. This archive will feature falconry furniture, works of art, books, correspondence from leading falconers and film and photographic material for the education and interest of falconer and scholar alike.

We hope that, whatever your background or interest in our sport, you may find something of value through our archive to deepen your knowledge, understanding and passion for falconry and will help us, through your support, to preserve this precious cultural heritage for future generations.

- -ensure that irreplaceable items and records are not lost by providing a portal to archive all material.
- -link falconers in 60 countries via access to the Trust website.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Investment policy and objectives

Under the Memorandum and Articles of Association the charity has the powers to invest in any way the trustees deem fit.

An Investment strategy for the funds held is determined as follows:

- -£925,000 to be managed by Sarasin & Partners on a total return basis, with a view to producing a return of inflation +4% on a rolling 5 year basis.
- -The balance of the fund introduced is to be kept in the current bank account for the current year requirements.

It is hoped that this strategy would enable the Charity to carry out its immediate objectives while maintaining the value of the funds in real terms.

The charity does not take into account any specific social, environmental or ethical considerations when setting its investment policy.

Overall the charity has continued to experience an increase in returns this year due to the particularly strong global equities market and it is envisaged that this shall continue into the next year.

Reserves policy

At 31 December 2015 the charity held free funds of £1,246,306 (2014: £1.246,861). Sufficient reserves are to be kept on deposit in the bank account in order to satisfy all current year requirements such as office costs and the issue of grants. At 31 December 2015 £23,743 were held in current bank accounts.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

The Falconry Heritage Trust is governed by its memorandum and articles as dated 22nd March 2005 as amended by special resolution dated 4th July 2008. On 17th July 2008, the company was registered with the Charity Commission. (No: 1125033).

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

Trustees are recruited by seeking nominations from the board of trustees and are elected by the board in attendance at the organisation's Annual General Meeting.

Organisational structure

All decisions regarding the Falconry Heritage Trust's activities and finance are referred to the board of trustees, which have the ultimate responsibility for decision making.

Induction and training of new trustees

New trustees are informed of their legal obligations and the general running of the charity on appointment. Existing trustees are kept up to date with the legal obligations and general running of the charity at trustee meetings and at an Annual General Meeting.

Key management remuneration

Key management consist of the archivist, this is the only employee. This salary is based on the going rate for an experienced archivist taking in consideration their knowledge of worldwide Falconry and language skills.

Related parties

Dr N C Fox, a trustee of the charity, is a director and shareholder of International Wildlife Consultants Limited.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

The risk management strategy comprises:

- -An annual review of the risks the charity may face
- -The establishment of systems and procedures to mitigate those risks identified in the review: and
- -The implementation of procedures designed to minimise any potential impact on the charity should those risks materialise.

A key element in the management of financial risk is the setting of a reserves policy and its regular review by trustees. The trustees feel there are currently no principal risks or uncertainties facing the charity. The charity hold very healthy reserves with which it is able to meet its objectives. The funds are managed by experienced Investments Advisers.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES

The trustees (who are also the directors of The Falconry Heritage Trust for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant audit information of which the charitable company's auditors are unaware; and
- the trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditors are aware of that information.

AUDITORS

The auditors, Clay Shaw Butler Limited, will be proposed for re-appointment at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting.

Approved by order of the board of trustees on . St. September 2016 and signed on its behalf by:

REPORT OF THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS TO THE MEMBERS OF THE FALCONRY HERITAGE TRUST

We have audited the financial statements of The Falconry Heritage Trust for the year ended 31 December 2015 on pages seven to sixteen. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the charitable company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the charitable company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and auditors

As explained more fully in the Statement of Trustees Responsibilities set out on page four, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view.

Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charitable company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the trustees; and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the Report of the Trustees to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with, the knowledge acquired by us in the course of performing the audit. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion on financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 December 2015 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the Report of the Trustees for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit; or
- the trustees were not entitled to take advantage of the small companies exemption from the requirement to prepare a Strategic Report or in preparing the Report of the Trustees.
