Chairman's Report
for the Year Ended 31 December 2017

INTRODUCTION

Active year of negotiations which is expected to conclude with a property sale during the current year.

FINANCIAL RESULTS

In the year ended 31 December 2017 the Company achieved revenue of £1.46 million (2016: £3.14 million) comprising income from trading assets of £1.10million (2016: £0.94 million) and income from investment property of £0.36 million (2016: £0.36 million). There were no property sales during the year (2016: one property sale for £1.8 million). PROPERTY PORTFOLIO

We continue to work on achieving value enhancement on all our sites.

PROSPECTS

Current year: we remain hopeful of achieving a successful year although in my opinion the property market remains very selective and fragile.

Shareholders wishing to sell their shares should contact the acting Company Secretary, Stephen Stuteley.

P A Rackham
Executive Chairman

3 April 2018

Property Recycling Group plc
Strategic Report

The directors present their strategic report for the year ended 31 December 2017.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES AND REVIEW OF BUSINESS

ACTIVITIES

The principal activities of the company continue to be to identify and acquire previously developed land where there is an opportunity to improve the valuation significantly through remediation and planning gain. Once improved, such land is sold to developers or end users.

A review of the Company's financial performance is shown under the heading Financial Results in the Executive Chairman's Report. A review of the Company's position as at the year end is given in the Property Portfolio section of the Executive Chairman's Report. The Directors confirm that progress on planning matters and site remediation within the portfolio is reviewed on a monthly basis and will be reflected in future sales.

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

The key short-term financial performance indicator is the comparison of short term letting and other income to operating costs. The Board considers this indicator was met during the year.

The key non-financial performance indicator is the area of land and buildings held by the Company. The Company owns 311 hectares (2016: 311 hectares) of land and buildings with varying planning consents.

FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The financial instruments of the Company principally comprise short-term debtors and creditors, short-term bank deposits and cash. The Company does not trade in derivative financial instruments. The Company has entered into a derivative financial instrument to manage its exposure to interest rate risk in the form of an interest rate swap. All of the Company's assets and liabilities are denominated in sterling. The main risks arising from the Company's financial instruments are interest rate risk and liquidity.

Financial assets comprise short term bank deposits and cash. These earn interest at floating rates linked to Lloyds Banking Group base rate.

INTEREST RATE RISK AND LIQUIDITY RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company's policy has been to minimise risk by placing funds in low risk cash deposits with original maturity of three months or less.

CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company manages its capital to ensure that the Company will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to shareholders through optimisation of the debt and equity balance.

The capital structure of the Company consists of debt, which includes borrowings disclosed in note 17, cash at bank and in hand and equity attributable to equity holders, comprising issued capital, reserves and retained earnings.

CREDIT RISK MANAGEMENT

Management monitors the amount of the Company's net funds in assessing the level of credit risk. The Directors do not believe the level of credit risk to be material.

CASH FLOW RISK MANAGEMENT

Management believes that the Company has obtained sufficient access to cash to continue its business activities for the foreseeable future. The Directors do not believe the level of cash flow risk to be material.

Property Recycling Group plc
Strategic Report

PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

There are a number of potential risks and uncertainties which have been identified within the business which could have a material impact on the Company's long term performance.

- Competitive pressure on property purchase in times of buoyant market conditions has to be kept under review and strategy adjusted according to the long term view.
- During a less buoyant market, property sales may be more difficult. The Company seeks to generate income from tenants to cover site overheads and offset holding costs.
- Environmental risks are assessed on property acquisition; it is unlikely that warranties will be given by a vendor. Consultants are engaged where necessary and offers reflect their findings.
- Planning risk is offset in part as previously developed land will already have a value related to its existing planning consent. Care is taken at acquisition that enquiries are made into the possibility of enhancing the planning status with a view to future sale.
- The Company is dependent upon a small management team.

ENVIRONMENT

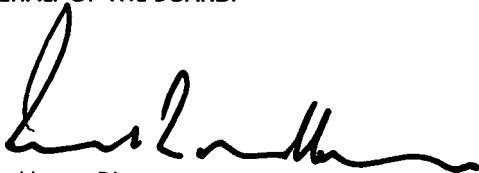

The Company recognises the importance of its environmental responsibilities, and designs and implements policies to reduce any damage that might be caused by its activities. It specifically encourages reuse or recycling of materials or, if this is not possible, safe disposal using licenced contractors. Much of the Company's work involves improving the environmental status of its sites.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

A review of the Company's operations during the year and its plans for the future is given in the Executive Chairman's Report. The Company continues to enhance the value of its properties through planning improvements and remediation.

The directors have reviewed cash flow requirements for the Company for the immediate future and are satisfied that adequate funding is available to the Company to meet its current requirements. Consequently, the financial statements are prepared on the going concern basis.

Property Recycling Group plc

Statement of Directors' Responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law), including Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland'. Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Members of

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Property Recycling Group plc (the 'company') for the year ended 31 December 2017 on pages ten to twenty nine. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in a Report of the Auditors and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 December 2017 and of its profit for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the ISAs (UK) require us to report to you where:

- the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is not appropriate; or
- the directors have not disclosed in the financial statements any identified material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the company's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Other information

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information in the Annual Report, but does not include the financial statements and our Report of the Auditors thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinion on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Strategic Report and the Directors' Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the Strategic Report and the Directors' Report have been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Members of
Property Recycling Group plc

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Strategic Report or the Directors' Report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of directors

As explained more fully in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities set out on page seven, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the directors determine necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a Report of the Auditors that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our Report of the Auditors.

Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

In the application of the Company's accounting policies, which are described below, the directors are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimated and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Critical judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty in applying the Company's accounting policies

The following are critical judgements including those involving estimations, that the directors have made in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies and that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements.

Assessment of net realisable value of stock properties

Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value. The cost of stock comprises net prices paid for land plus any work in progress to improve the site. Net realisable value (NRV) represents the estimated selling price less all costs to be incurred in marketing and selling. The NRV of properties are assessed by the directors based on all available information including formal and informal valuations provided by land agents, current negotiations and other interest expressed in the sites by third parties and generic information such as average values of farm land and indications of commercial and residential property values.

Fair value measurement of financial instruments

When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using valuation techniques including the discounted cash flow model. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is required in establishing fair values. Judgements include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risk, credit risk and volatility. Details of fair value measurements can be found in note 22.

Revaluation of investment property

The Company carries its investment property at fair value, with changes in fair value being recognised in the profit or loss. The Directors have determined fair value at open market value based on assumptions on expected yield given the location and nature of the property comparable to other known sales or potential sales in the region. Savills Plc has provided an informal assessment of the potential market value of the property.

Turnover

Turnover is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, excluding discounts, rebates, value added tax and other sales taxes.

Income from the sale of land and buildings is recognised at the date of unconditional exchange of contract. Option fees are recognised in the period to which the Company is unconditionally entitled to that income.

Rental income and other income are accrued on a time basis in the period to which they relate.

Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off the cost less estimated residual value of each asset over its estimated useful life.

Plant and machinery - 15% to 20% straight line

Computing equipment - 20% straight line

No depreciation is charged on freehold land.

The gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an asset is determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the profit and loss account.

Investment property

Investment property held to earn rental income and/or capital appreciation is included in the balance sheet at fair value where such value can be measured reliably without undue cost or effort on an ongoing basis. The property is not depreciated which is a treatment contrary to the Companies Act 2006 however in the opinion of the Directors the policy adopted by the Company provides a true and fair view.

Stocks

Stock is stated at the lower of cost and estimated selling price less costs to sell, which is equivalent to the net realisable value. Cost comprises the cost of acquisition of property, professional and planning fees and construction and infrastructure costs, but excludes overheads. Net realisable value represents the estimate selling price less all estimated costs of completion and costs to be incurred in marketing and selling the properties.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the company after deducting all of its liabilities.

(i) Financial assets and liabilities

All financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at transactions price (including transaction costs), except for those financial assets classified at fair value through profit or loss, which are initially measured at fair value (which is normally the transaction price excluding transaction costs), unless the arrangement constitutes a financing transaction. If an arrangement constitutes a financing transaction, the financial asset or financial liability is measured at the present value of future payments discounted at a market rate of interest for a similar debt instrument.

Financial assets and liabilities are only offset in the statement of financial position when, and only when there exists a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and the company intends to either settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(ii) Derivative financial instruments

The company uses derivative financial instruments to reduce exposure to interest rate movements. The company does not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for speculative purposes.

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at each reporting date. The resulting gain or loss is recognised in the profit and loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and effective as the hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in the profit or loss depends on the nature of the hedge relationship.

(iii) Fair value measurement

The best evidence of fair value is quoted price for an identical asset in an active market. When quoted prices are unavailable, the price of a recent transaction for an identical asset provides evidence of fair value as long as there has not been a significant change in economic circumstances or a significant lapse of time since the transaction took place. If the market is not active and recent transactions of an identical asset on their own are not a good estimate of fair value, the fair value is estimated by using a valuation technique.

Taxation

Taxation for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current or deferred taxation assets and liabilities are not discounted.

Current tax is recognised at the amount of tax payable using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the balance sheet date.

Timing differences arise from the inclusion of income and expenses in tax assessments in periods different from those in which they are recognised in financial statements. Deferred tax is measured using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the year end and that are expected to apply to the reversal of the timing difference.

Unrelieved tax losses and other deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that they will be recovered against the reversal of deferred tax liabilities or other future taxable profits.

The company as a lessor

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Amounts due from lessees under finance leases are recorded as debtors at the company's net investment in the lease. Finance lease income is allocated to the profit and loss account so as to produce a constant periodic rate of return on the remaining balance of the debtor.

Rental income from operating leases is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are usually immaterial and are recognised in the profit and loss account in the period incurred.

Provisions

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of a past event and it is probable the company will be required to settle that obligation and amounts can be estimated reliably. Provisions are measured at the Directors best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the respective obligations at the balance sheet date and are discounted to present value where the effect is material.

Management have concluded that the financial statements present fairly the Company's financial position, financial performance and cashflows. The Company has complied with applicable legislation apart from this departure from a particular requirement in order to achieve fair presentation.

14. INVESTMENT PROPERTY - continued

Fair value at 31 December 2017 is represented by:

Valuation in 2005	2,962,000
Valuation in 2015	1,038,000
	4,000,000

If investment property had not been revalued it would have been included at the following historical cost:

	2017	2016
Cost	857,582	857,582

Investment property was valued on a fair value basis on 31 December 2015 by the directors on advice from Savills Plc.

The directors consider there is no significant change to that valuation as at 31 December 2017.

The method for determining fair value is open market value based on assumptions on expected yield given the location and nature of the property comparable to other known sales or potential sales in the region. Savills Plc has provided an informal assessment of the potential market value of the property with the benefit of a lease which was granted during 2015 for a term of 35 years with a break clause giving the tenant the right to terminate the contract after 10 and 20 years.

The property has a legal charge on it in favour of the company's bank to secure general banking facilities.

At the balance sheet date, the following future minimum lease rentals were receivable:

	2017	2016

15. STOCKS

	2017	2016
Stock properties	10,786,012	9,373,225

Included in stock of properties is an asset with a book value of £2,508,857 (2016: £2,501,500) which is stated net of a capital grant of £106,800 (2016: £106,800). The directors have assessed the current market value of the site in the light of its likely planning limitations, condition and current agricultural land values and, as a result, they have maintained an impairment provision which reduced the holding value by £233,175 at the balance sheet date.

The directors are of the opinion that the impairment provision of £1,108,413 made in previous years on a site with a holding value of £3,783,834 should be reversed, there being negotiations to sell this property at a value in excess of its holding value after the year end.

One of the Company's properties included within stock with a carrying value of £1,123,897 (2016: £1,123,725) has been pledged to secure general banking facilities. No borrowing costs relating to qualifying assets were capitalised in the current or prior year.

No impairment provisions have been charged to the profit and loss account this year (2016: £nil) and the directors consider that no further adjustment is required to impairment provisions made in prior years. The main provisions are described in more detail above.

Interest is charged at 1.35% per annum above the 3 month LIBOR rate.

Interest rate swaps are valued at the present value of future cash flows estimated and discounted based on the applicable yield curves derived from quoted interest rates.

The interest rate swap is settled on a quarterly basis. The floating rate on the interest rate swaps is three months' LIBOR. The Company will settle the difference between the fixed and floating interest rate on a net basis.

All interest rate swap contracts exchanging floating rate interest amounts for fixed rate interest amounts are designated as cash flow hedges to reduce the Company's cash flow exposure resulting from variable interest rates on borrowings. The hedged cash flows are expected to occur and affect profit or loss over the period to maturity of the interest rate swaps.
