Director's report

The Director submits his report and unaudited financial statements for the period ended 31 December 2012

Principal activity and business review

The Company has not traded during the year and subsequent to the year end

Directors and their interests

The directors at the start of the year were Mr G Levy and Mr R Clifton. Mr G Levy and Mr R Clifton resigned as directors and Mr C A Cowdery was appointed sole director on 14 January 2013.

Company secretary

The company secretary at the start of the year was Mr R Clifton. Mr R Clifton resigned as company secretary on 14 January 2013.

Statement of Director's Responsibilities

The director is responsible for preparing the Report of the Director and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the director has elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the director must not approve the financial statements unless he is satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the director is required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable him to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
