ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF SWISS BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

1 MEMBERSHIP

1.1 The Charity must maintain a register of members

1.2 Membership of the Charity is open to any individual or organisation of Swiss nationality or with strong connections to the Swiss, or to Switzerland, who is interested in promoting the Objects and who:

1.2.1 is proposed and seconded by existing members of the Charity;

1.2.2 applies to the Charity in the form required by the Trustees;

1.2.3 is approved by the Trustees; and

1.2.4 signs the register of members or consents in writing to become a member either personally or (in the case of an organisation) through an authorised representative.¹

1.3 The Trustees may establish different classes of membership (including informal membership), prescribe their respective privileges and duties and set the amounts of any subscriptions.

1.4 Membership is terminated if the member concerned:

1.4.1 gives written notice of resignation to the Charity;

1.4.2 dies or (in the case of an organisation) ceases to exist;

1.4.3 is more than six months in arrear in paying the relevant subscription, if any (but in such a case the member may be reinstated on payment of the amount due); or

1.4.4 is removed from membership by resolution of the Trustees on the ground that in their reasonable opinion the member's continued membership is harmful to the Charity. The Trustees may only pass such a resolution after notifying the member in writing and considering the matter in the light of any written representations which the member concerned puts forward within 14 clear days after receiving notice.

1.5 Membership of the Charity is not transferable.

¹ Swiss clubs, societies or institutions forming part of the current membership should become members of the incorporated charity in any event; all existing members must be invited to transfer their membership. In the future, to ensure certainty of the membership, other clubs, societies or institutions wishing to join the Charity should follow the formal application procedure set out.

2 GENERAL MEETINGS

- 2.1 Members are entitled to attend general meetings either personally or (in the case of a member organisation) by an authorised representative or by proxy. Proxy forms must be delivered to the Secretary at least 24 hours before the meeting. General meetings are called on at least 21 clear days' written notice specifying the business to be discussed.
- 2.2 There is a quorum at a general meeting if the number of members or authorised representatives present in person or by proxy is at least 10, or one half of the members (if less).
- 2.3 The Chairman or (if the Chairman is unable or unwilling to do so) some other member elected by those present presides at a general meeting.
- 2.4 Except where otherwise provided by the Articles or the Companies Act, every issue is decided by a majority of the votes cast.
- 2.5 Except for the chairman of the meeting, who has a second or casting vote, every member present in person or through an authorised representative or by proxy has one vote on each issue.
- 2.6 A Trustee shall, even if he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting.
- 2.7 A written resolution signed by all those entitled to vote at a general meeting is as valid as a resolution actually passed at a general meeting. For this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature.
- 2.8 Except during the first year, the Charity must hold an AGM in every year. The first AGM must be held within 18 months after the Charity's incorporation.
- 2.9 At an AGM the members:
 - 2.9.1 receive the accounts of the Charity for the previous financial year;
 - 2.9.2 receive the Trustees' report on the Charity's activities since the previous AGM;
 - 2.9.3 accept the retirement of those Trustees who wish to retire or who are retiring by rotation;
 - 2.9.4 elect Trustees to fill the vacancies arising;
 - 2.9.5 appoint auditors for the Charity;
 - 2.9.6 may confer on the Swiss Ambassador to the United Kingdom for the time being (with his or her consent), or (in the discretion of the members) on any other individual (with his or her consent) the honorary title of Patron;
 - 2.9.7 may confer on any individual (with his or her consent) the honorary title of President or Vice-President of the Charity; and

- 2.9.8 may discuss and determine any issues of policy or deal with any other business put before them by the Trustees.
- 2.10 Any general meeting which is not an AGM is an EGM.
- 2.11 An EGM may be called at any time by the Trustees and must be called within 28 clear days on a written request from at least 6 members.
- 3 THE TRUSTEES
- 3.1 The Trustees as charity trustees have control of the Charity and its property and funds.
- 3.2 The Trustees when complete consist of at least 3 and not more than 12 individuals, all of whom must be aged under 75 years at the date of appointment.²
- 3.3 Subject to the terms of article 3.6:
 - 3.3.1 the Pastor for the time being of the Swiss Church in London; and
 - 3.3.2 up to two members of the Swiss Embassy in London (as nominated by the Swiss Ambassador to the United Kingdom for the time being)
- shall each be entitled to be a Trustee for as long as he holds such office. Unless the other Trustees shall otherwise agree, each shall retire immediately upon ceasing to hold such office.
- 3.4 The continuing Trustees may act notwithstanding a vacancy in their number but if the number of Trustees is less than three, the continuing Trustees or Trustee may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or calling a general meeting.
- 3.5 Every Trustee after appointment or reappointment must sign a declaration of willingness to act as a charity trustee of the Charity before he or she may vote at any meeting of the Trustees.
- 3.6 A Trustee's term of office automatically terminates if he or she:
 - 3.6.1 is disqualified under the Charities Act from acting as a charity trustee;
 - 3.6.2 is incapable, whether mentally or physically, of managing his or her own affairs;
 - 3.6.3 is absent without notice from 3 consecutive meetings of the Trustees ;
 - 3.6.4 resigns by written notice to the Trustees (but only if at least two Trustees will remain in office);
 - 3.6.5 is removed by resolution of the members present and voting at a general meeting after the meeting has invited the views of the Trustee concerned and considered the matter in the light of any such views;

² The provisions of article 5.1.2 will cover appointment of all honorary officers from among the Trustees.

3.6.6 reaches the age of 75; or

3.6.7 is removed from office by resolution, approved by the majority of the Trustees, on the ground that in their reasonable opinion the concerned Trustee's continued office is detrimental to the Charity, including but not limited to, harm, damage or loss to the reputation or objectives of the Charity. The Trustees may only pass such a resolution after notifying the concerned Trustee in writing and upon considering the matter in light of any written representations which the Trustee concerned puts forward within 14 clear days after having received notice.

3.7 The Trustees may at any time co-opt any individual who is qualified to be appointed as a Trustee to fill a vacancy in their number or as an additional Trustee, but a co-opted Trustee holds office only until the next AGM.

3.8 A technical defect in the appointment of a Trustee of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

4 TRUSTEES' PROCEEDINGS

4.1 The Trustees must hold at least 4 meetings each year.

4.2 A quorum at a meeting of the Trustees is 3 Trustees.

4.3 A meeting of the Trustees may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants.

4.4 The Chairman or (if the Chairman is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee chosen by the Trustees present presides at each meeting.

4.5 Every issue may be determined by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting, but a written resolution signed by all the Trustees is as valid as a resolution passed at a meeting. For this purpose the resolution may be contained in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature.

4.6 Except for the chairman of the meeting, who has a second or casting vote, every Trustee has one vote on each issue.

4.7 A procedural defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.

5 TRUSTEES' POWERS

5.1 The Trustees have the following powers in the administration of the Charity:

5.1.1 to appoint (and remove) any member (who may be a Trustee) to act as Secretary in accordance with the Companies Act;

5.1.2 to appoint a Chairman, Treasurer and other honorary officers from among their number;

- 5.1.4 to make standing orders consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern proceedings at general meetings and to prescribe a form of proxy;
- 5.1.5 to make rules consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern their proceedings and proceedings of committees;
- 5.1.6 to make regulations consistent with the Memorandum, the Articles and the Companies Act to govern the administration of the Charity and the use of its seal (if any);
- 5.1.7 to establish procedures to assist the resolution of disputes or differences within the Charity;
- 5.1.8 to exercise any powers of the Charity which are not reserved to a general meeting.

6 RECORDS AND ACCOUNTS

- 7.1 Notices under the Articles may be sent by hand, by post or by suitable electronic means or (where applicable to members generally) may be published in any journal distributed by the Charity.
- 7.2 The only address at which a member is entitled to receive notices sent by post is an address shown in the register of members.
- 7.3 Any notice given in accordance with these Articles is to be treated for all purposes as having been received:
- 7.3.1 24 hours after being sent by electronic means or delivered by hand to the relevant address;
 - 7.3.2 two clear days after being sent by first class post to that address;
 - 7.3.3 three clear days after being sent by second class or overseas post to that address;
