Further to our discussions of 9 September 2022 and in accordance with Sections 516 and 519 of the Companies Act 2006 (the "Act") respectively, we enclose our letter of resignation and our statement of reasons connected with ceasing to hold office as auditors of ClickandBuy International Limited (the "Company"). In addition, we would like to remind you of your reporting requirements under the Act.

The Company's statutory obligations can be found in Section 523 of the Act. Because our statement of reasons states that there are no reasons for or other matters connected with our ceasing to hold office that we consider need to be brought to the attention of the Company's members or creditors, you do not need to send a copy of our statement of reasons to the Company's members.

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC") is also required to send a copy of our statement of reasons to the "appropriate audit authority". As the Company does not fall within the definition of a "public interest company" under Section 519A(1) of the Act, the appropriate audit authority is the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England & Wales ("ICAEW"). The Act also obliges the Company to send, to the ICAEW, notice of the fact that PwC is ceasing to hold office as auditor of the Company, which takes the form of a statement of what the Company believes are the reasons for our ceasing to hold office (including the information listed in Section 519(3) of the Act). This obligation may be fulfilled by sending the ICAEW a copy of our statement of reasons together with confirmation that you agree with the contents of that statement. The Company's notice to the ICAEW should be sent within 28 days of the effective date of our resignation, which is the date of our resignation letter or another date as specified in that letter.

If you have any concerns as to how the Company and its directors should meet their obligations then we recommend that you seek legal advice.

Yours faithfully,

PricewaterhouseCoopers
