- 15.1 Two Trustees may (and the Secretary, if any, must at the request of two Trustees) call a Trustees' meeting.

- 15.2 A Trustees' meeting must be called by at least seven Clear Days' notice unless either:

15.2.1 all the Trustees agree; or 15.2.2 urgent circumstances require shorter notice.

- 15.3 Notice of Trustees' meetings must be given to each Trustee.

- 15.4 Every notice calling a Trustees' meeting must specify:

15.4.1 the place, day and time of the meeting;

15.4.2 the general particulars of all business to be considered at such meeting; and 15.4.3 if it is anticipated that Trustees participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

and

16.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

16.2 In determining whether Trustees are participating in a Trustees' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Trustee is or how they communicate with each other.

16.3 If all the Trustees participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

16.4 Trustee meetings may take place online or "hybrid", where some trustees are meeting in the same place and others join online.

17. Quorum for Trustees' meetings

17.1 At a Trustees' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

17.2 The quorum for Trustees' meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the Trustees, but it must never be less than three, and unless otherwise fixed by resolution of the Trustees it is three or one-third of the total number of Trustees, whichever is the greater.

17.3 If the total number of Trustees for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Trustees must not take any decision other than a decision:

17.3.1 to appoint further Trustees, or

17.3.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the Legal Members to appoint further Trustees.

18. Chairing of Trustees' meetings

The Chair, if any, or in his or her absence another Trustee nominated by the Trustees present shall preside as chair of each Trustees' meeting.

20. Decisions without a meeting

- 20.1 The Trustees may take a unanimous decision without a Trustees' meeting in accordance with this Article by indicating to each other by any means, including without limitation by Electronic Means, that they share a common view on a matter. Such a decision may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in Writing, copies of which have been signed by each Trustee or to which each Trustee has otherwise indicated agreement in Writing.
- 20.2 A decision which is made in accordance with Article 20.1 shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting duly convened and held, provided the following conditions are complied with:

20.2.1 approval from each Trustee must be received by one person being either such person as all the Trustees have nominated in advance for that purpose or such other person as volunteers if necessary ("the Recipient"), which person may, for the avoidance of doubt, be one of the Trustees;

20.2.2 following receipt of responses from all of the Trustees, the Recipient must communicate to all of the Trustees (by any means) whether the resolution has been formally approved by the Trustees in accordance with this Article 20.2;

20.2.3 the date of the decision shall be the date of the communication from the Recipient confirming formal approval;

20.2.4 the Recipient must prepare a minute of the decision in accordance with Article 49.

- (b) not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and
- (c) withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

22. Register of Trustees' interests

The Trustees must cause a register of Trustees' interests to be kept. A Trustee must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Charity which has not previously been declared.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF TRUSTEES

23. Number of Trustees

23.1 There shall be at least five Trustees and not more than twelve.

23.2 One place on the Board of Trustees will be held for a Beneficiary member (a beneficiary of the Charity nominated by the Member Consultation Group) representative and one place will be held for a volunteer representative (a volunteer is an individual who is currently volunteering at the Charity but who is not also a beneficiary of the Charity). They will be full members of the Board of Trustees and have the same rights and powers as other Trustees.

24. Appointment of Trustees and retirement of Trustees by rotation

24.1 Those persons notified to the Registrar of Companies as the first directors of the Charity shall be the first Trustees. All Trustees will also be Company Directors.

24.2.2 by a decision of the Trustees.

24.3 At every annual general meeting the following Trustees must retire from office but may (subject to the provisions of this Article 24) offer themselves for reappointment by the Legal Members:

24.3.1 one-third of the Trustees who are subject to retirement by rotation, or the number nearest to one-third; and

24.4 The following rules shall apply to determine who shall retire by rotation under Article 24.3.1:

24.4.1 the Trustees to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or reappointment.

24.4.2 As between persons who became or were last reappointed Trustees on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be decided by lot.

24.4.3 If there is only one Trustee who is subject to retirement by rotation, he or she shall retire.

24.4.4 Trustees appointed by the Trustees under Article 24.2.2 shall not be taken into account in determining the Trustees who are to retire by rotation.

24.5 Subject to Article 24.6, if the Charity at the meeting at which a Trustee retires by virtue of Article 24.3.1 does not fill the vacancy, the retiring Trustee will, if willing to act, be deemed to have been reappointed unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the re-appointment of the Trustee is put to the meeting and lost.

24.6 On coming to the end of a term of office or consecutive terms of office lasting more than nine years in total, a Trustee must take a break from office (except under exceptional circumstances and in accordance with guidance given in the Code of Good Governance).

24.7 No person may be appointed as a Trustee unless he or she has reached the age of 18 years.

24.8 A Trustee retiring by virtue of Article 24.3.1 (requirement for one third to retire at AGM) may be reappointed at a general meeting:

24.8.1 If he or she is recommended by a majority of the Trustees; or

24.8.2 at least 10 but not more than 35 Clear Days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice executed by a Legal Member qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the Charity of the intention to propose that person for appointment or reappointment stating the particulars which would, if he or she were so appointed or reappointed, be required to be included in the Charity's register of Trustees together with notice executed by that person of his or her willingness to be appointed or reappointed.

24.9 For all other Trustees, at least five but not more than 28 Clear Days before the date appointed for holding a general meeting notice must be given to all who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of any person (other than a Trustee retiring by virtue of Article 24.3.1 at the meeting) who is recommended by the Trustees for appointment or reappointment as a Trustee at the meeting or in respect of whom notice has been duly given to the Charity of the intention to propose him or her at the meeting for appointment or reappointment as a Trustee. The notice must give such information about the Trustee as the Trustees shall decide.

24.10 A Trustee who retires at an annual general meeting and who is not reappointed shall retain office until either:

24.10.1 the meeting appoints someone in his or her place, or

24.10.2 (if no one is appointed in his or her place) until the end of the meeting.

- 25.6 notification is received by the Charity from the Trustee that the Trustee is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms (but only if at least three Trustees will remain in office when such resignation has taken effect);
- 25.7 the Trustee fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board of Trustees without notice and the Trustees resolve that the Trustee be removed for this reason;

- 25.9 at a meeting of the Trustees at which at least half of the Trustees are present, a resolution is passed that he or she be removed from office. Such a resolution shall not be passed unless the Trustee has been given at least 14 Clear Days' notice that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify removal from office, and has been afforded a reasonable opportunity of either, at the option of the Trustee being removed, being heard by or of making written representations to the Trustees;
- 25.10 the Trustee ceases to be a Legal Member (but such person may be reinstated by resolution passed by all other Trustees on resuming membership before the next annual general meeting).

26.2.4 the Trustees have approved the application. The Trustees may in their absolute discretion decline to accept any person as a Legal Member and need not give reasons for so doing.

26.3 The Trustees may from time to time prescribe criteria for membership but will not be obliged to accept persons fulfilling those criteria as Legal Members.

26.4 The names of the Legal Members of the Charity must be entered in the register of Legal Members.

26.5 Classes of Legal Membership:

27.2.5 If, at a meeting of the Trustees at which at least half of the Trustees are present, a resolution is passed resolving that the Legal Member be expelled on the ground that his, her or its continued membership is harmful to or is likely to become harmful to the interests of the Charity. Such a resolution may not be passed unless the Legal Member has been given at least 14 Clear Days' notice that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify expulsion, and has been afforded a reasonable opportunity of being heard by or of making written representations to the Trustees. A Legal Member expelled by such a resolution will nevertheless remain liable to pay to the Charity any subscription or other sum owed by him, her or it.

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

28. Annual general meetings

28.1 The Charity must hold an annual general meeting within 18 months of incorporation and afterwards once in every calendar year and not more than 15 months shall pass between one annual general meeting and the next. It shall be held at such time and place as the Trustees think fit.

28.2 At an AGM, the Legal Members:

- (a) Receive the accounts of the Charity for the previous financial year;
- (b) Receive the Trustees' report on the Charity's activities since the previous AGM;
- (c) Accept the retirement of those Trustees who wish to retire or who are retiring by rotation;
- (d) Elect Trustees to fill the vacancies arising;

- (e) Appoint independent examiners for the Charity;
- (f) May confer on any individual (with his or her consent) the honorary title of Patron, President or Vice-President of the Charity; and
- (g) May discuss and determine any issues of policy or deal with any other business put before them by the Trustees.

28.3 General meetings may take place online or “hybrid”, where some Legal members are meeting in the same place and others join online, if deemed appropriate by the Trustees.

29. Other general meetings

29.1 The Trustees may call a general meeting at any time.

29.2 The Trustees must call a general meeting if required to do so by the Legal Members under the Companies Acts.

30. Length of notice

All general meetings must be called by either:

30.1 at least 14 Clear Days’ notice; or

30.2 shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Legal Members having a right to attend and vote at that meeting. Any such majority must together represent at least 90% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the Legal Members.

31. Contents of notice

31.1 Every notice calling a general meeting must specify the place, day and time of the meeting, whether it is a general or an annual general meeting, and the general nature of the business to be transacted.

31.2 If a special resolution is to be proposed, the notice must include the proposed resolution and specify that it is proposed as a special resolution.

31.3 In every notice calling a meeting of the Charity there must appear with reasonable prominence a statement informing the Legal Member of his, her or its rights to appoint another person as his, her or its proxy at a general meeting.

32. Service of notice

Notice of general meetings must be given to every Legal Member, to the Trustees and to the independent examiner of the Charity.

33. Attendance and speaking at general meetings

33.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

33.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:

33.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting; and

33.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

33.3 The Trustees may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

33.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more Legal Members attending it are in the same place as each other.

33.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

34. Quorum for general meetings

34.1 No business (other than the appointment of the chair of the meeting) may be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.

34.2 Eight persons entitled to vote on the business to be transacted (each being a Legal Member, a proxy for a Legal Member or a duly authorised representative of a Legal Member) or 30% of the total membership (represented in person, by proxy or by duly authorised representative) whichever is greater shall be a quorum.

34.3 If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such day, time and place as the Trustees may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting those present and entitled to vote shall be a quorum.

35. Chairing general meetings

35.1 The Chair (if any) or in his or her absence some other Trustee nominated by the Trustees will preside as chair of every general meeting.

35.2 If neither the Chair nor any Trustee nominated in accordance with Article 35 is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the Trustees present shall elect one of their number to chair the meeting and, if there is only one Trustee present and willing to act, he or she shall be chair of the meeting.

- 35.3 If no Trustee is present and willing to act as chair of the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Legal Members present in person, by proxy or by duly authorised representative and entitled to vote must choose one of the Legal Members present in person to be chair of the meeting. For the avoidance of doubt, a proxy holder who is not a Legal Member entitled to vote shall not be entitled to be appointed chair of the meeting.

36. Attendance and speaking by Trustees and non-Legal Members

- 36.1 A Trustee, even if not a Legal Member, may attend and speak at any general meeting.
- 36.2 The chair of the meeting may permit other persons who are not Legal Members of the Charity to attend and speak at a general meeting.

37. Adjournment

- 37.1 The chair of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:

37.1.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

37.1.2 it appears to the chair of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

- 37.2 The chair of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

- 37.3 When adjourning a general meeting, the chair of the meeting must:

37.3.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the Trustees; and

37.3.2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

- 37.4 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Charity must give at least 7 Clear Days' notice of it:

37.4.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Charity's general meetings is required to be given; and 37.4.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

- 37.5 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

38. Voting: general

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles.

39. Votes

- 39.1 On a vote on a resolution to be decided either by a show of hands at a meeting or by a poll at a meeting every person present (whether in person, by proxy or duly authorised representative of a Legal Member) shall have one vote, provided that if such a person attends the meeting in more than one capacity, he or she is not entitled to cast more than one vote.
- 39.2 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.
- 39.3 No Legal Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all monies presently payable by him, her or it to the Charity have been paid.
- 39.4 Except where otherwise provided by this document or the Companies Act, every issue is decided by a simple majority of votes cast.
- 39.5 The following provisions apply to any organisation that is a Legal Member ("a Member Organisation"):
- 39.5.1a Member Organisation may nominate any individual to act as its representative ("a Nominee") at any meeting of the Charity;
- 39.5.2the Member Organisation must give notice in Writing to the Charity of the name of its Nominee. The Nominee will not be entitled to represent the Member Organisation at any meeting of the Charity unless such notice has been received by the Charity. The Nominee may continue to represent the Member Organisation until notice in Writing is received by the Charity to the contrary;
- 39.5.3a Member Organisation may appoint a Nominee to represent it at a particular meeting of the Charity or at all meetings of the Charity until notice in Writing to the contrary is received by the Charity;
- 39.5.4any notice in Writing received by the Charity shall be conclusive evidence of the Nominee's authority to represent the Member Organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The Charity shall not be required to consider whether the Nominee has been properly appointed by the Member Organisation;

39.5.5subject to Article 39.1, the Nominee is entitled to exercise (on behalf of the Member Organisation) the same powers as the Member Organisation could exercise as if it were an individual Legal Member;

39.5.6subject to Article 39.1 on a vote on a resolution on a show of hands at a meeting of the Charity, the Nominee has the same voting rights as the Member Organisation would be entitled to if it was an individual Legal Member present in person at the meeting; and 39.5.7the power to appoint a Nominee under this Article 39.5 is without prejudice to the Member Organisation's rights under the Companies Acts and the Articles to appoint a proxy or a corporate representative.

40. Errors and disputes

40.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

40.2 Any such objection must be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision is final.

41. Poll votes

41.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

41.1.1in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or

41.1.2at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

41.2 A poll may be demanded by:

41.2.1the chair of the meeting;

41.2.2the Trustees;

41.2.3two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution;

41.2.4any person, who, by virtue of being appointed proxy or duly authorised representative for one or more Legal Members having the right to vote on the resolution, holds two or more votes; or 41.2.5a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Legal Members having the right to vote on the resolution.

- 41.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:
- 41.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken; and
 - 41.3.2 the chair of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.
- 41.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chair of the meeting directs.
- 42. Content of proxy notices
- 42.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in Writing (a "Proxy Notice") which:
- 42.1.1 states the name and address of the Legal Member appointing the proxy;
 - 42.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that Legal Member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - 42.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the Legal Member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Trustees may determine; and
 - 42.1.4 is delivered to the Charity in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
- 42.2 The Charity may require Proxy Notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- 42.3 Proxy Notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.
- 42.4 Unless a Proxy Notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:
- 42.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - 42.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.
- 43. Delivery of proxy notices
- 43.1 A Proxy Notice and any evidence of authority under which it is executed may:
- 43.1.1 be deposited at the registered office of the Charity or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Charity in relation to the meeting at least 48 hours (not including any part of a day that is a Saturday, Sunday or Public Holiday) before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the Proxy Notice proposes to vote; or 43.1.2 where an Address for the purpose of sending or receiving Documents or information by Electronic Means has been specified:

- (a) in the notice calling the meeting; or
- (b) in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Charity in relation to the meeting; or
- (c) in any invitation to appoint a proxy issued by the Charity in relation to the meeting;

be sent by Electronic Means to that Address provided it is received at such address not less than 48 hours (not including any part of a day that is a Saturday, Sunday or Public Holiday) before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the Proxy Notice proposes to vote; and Proxy Notice which is not deposited, delivered or received in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.

43.2 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid Proxy Notice has been delivered to the Charity by or on behalf of that person.

43.3 An appointment under a Proxy Notice may be revoked by delivering to the Charity a notice in Writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the Proxy Notice was given.

43.4 A notice revoking the appointment of a proxy only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

44. Amendments to resolutions

44.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:

44.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Charity in Writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chair of the meeting may determine); and 44.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chair of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

44.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:

- 44.2.1 the chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and
- 44.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.
- 44.3 If the chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chair's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

45. Written resolutions

- 45.1 Subject to Article 45.3, a written resolution of the Charity passed in accordance with this Article 45 shall have effect as if passed by the Charity in general meeting:
- 45.1.1 A written resolution is passed as an ordinary resolution if it is passed by a simple majority of the eligible Legal Members.
- 45.1.2 A written resolution is passed as a special resolution if it is passed by Legal Members representing not less than 75% of the eligible Legal Members. A written resolution is not a special resolution unless it states that it was proposed as a special resolution.
- 45.2 In relation to a resolution proposed as a written resolution of the Charity the eligible Legal Members are the Legal Members who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution on the Circulation Date of the resolution.
- 45.3 A Legal Members' resolution under the Companies Acts removing a Trustee or an auditor before the expiration of his or her term of office may not be passed as a written resolution.
- 45.4 A copy of the written resolution must be sent to every Legal Member together with a statement informing the Legal Member how to signify their agreement to the resolution and the date by which the resolution must be passed if it is not to lapse. Communications in relation to written resolutions shall be sent to the Charity's auditors in accordance with the Companies Acts.
- 45.5 A Legal Member signifies their agreement to a proposed written resolution when the Charity receives from them (or from someone acting on their behalf) an authenticated Document identifying the resolution to which it relates and indicating the Legal Member's agreement to the resolution. For these purposes:
- 45.5.1 if the Document is sent to the Charity in Hard Copy Form, it is authenticated if it bears the signature of the person sending it;

45.5.2 if the Document is sent to the Charity in Electronic Form, it is authenticated if the identity of the sender is confirmed in a manner specified by the Charity or, where no such manner has been specified by the Charity, if the communication contains or is accompanied by a statement of the identity of the sender and the Charity has no reason to doubt the truth of that statement.

45.6 A written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible Legal Members have signified their agreement to it.

45.7 A proposed written resolution lapses if it is not passed within 28 days beginning with the Circulation Date.
