SPIRIT OF ADVENTURE LIMITED

Statement of Directors' responsibilities

The Directors is responsible for preparing the Annual Report and Financial Statements in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Company law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under the law the Directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable laws). Under company law the Directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and the profit or loss of the Company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the Directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The Directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company, and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

It is the Group's policy to maintain indemnity insurance for Directors and officers.

Notes to the accounts

1 Accounting convention

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards as defined in the Companies Act 2006 s.464.

2 Profit and loss account

No profit and loss account has been prepared as the Company has not traded during the year.

3 Statement of cash flows

The financial statements do not include a statement of cash flows because the Company, as small reporting entity, is exempt from the requirement to prepare such a statement under Section 7 of FRS 102.

4 Related party transactions

The Company has taken advantage of the exemption within Section 33 of FRS 102 (Related party disclosures) in not disclosing transactions with other wholly owned entities in the Saga group of companies.

5 Ultimate parent undertaking

The immediate parent undertaking at 31 January 2017 is ST&H Limited (formerly Acromas Holidays Limited), a company which is registered in England and Wales. The Company is wholly owned by ST&H Limited.

The financial statements of the Company have been consolidated in the group financial statements of ST&H Limited (a parent undertaking) and Saga plc (the ultimate parent undertaking), both of which are registered in England and Wales.

In respect of the year ending 31 January 2017, ST&H Limited is the parent company of the smallest group of which the Company is a member and for which group financial statements are prepared.

A copy of the financial statements of Saga plc for the year ended 31 January 2017 may be obtained from the corporate website www.corporate.saga.co.uk or from the Company Secretary, Saga plc, Enbrook Park, Folkestone, Kent, CT20 3SE.

6 Ultimate controlling party

The Directors consider the ultimate controlling party to be Saga plc.

7 Transition to FRS 102

As a dormant company, in the prior year the Company elected to take advantage of the transitional provisions of FRS 102 to retain its accounting policies for reported assets, liabilities and equity until there is any change to those balances, or the Company undertakes any new transactions.
