Directors' report

The Directors present their annual report together with the unaudited financial statements of the Company for the nine month period ended 30 September 2012

During the period the accounting reference date was changed to 30 September. The comparative figures shown are for the twelve month period ended 31 December 2011

Principal activities, trading review and future development

The company has been dormant as defined in section 1169 of the Companies Act 2006 throughout the period

On 1 January 2009, the trade and assets of Food DNA Services Limited were sold to Gen-Probe Life Sciences Limited and the Company did not trade in 2012. Previously, the Company was engaged in the research and development and commercialisation of a range of services within the food related industries. It is anticipated that the company will remain dormant for the foreseeable future.

Key performance indicators are not considered necessary for an understanding of the development, performance or position of the company. There are no risks or uncertainties facing the company including those within the context of the use of financial instruments.

As disclosed in Note 8, with effect from 1 August 2012, following the acquisition of Gen-Probe Incorporated by Hologic, Inc on that date, the Directors consider the Company's ultimate parent company to be Hologic, Inc.

Directors' responsibilities

The Directors are responsible for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable United Kingdom Law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice

Company law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business

The Directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

By order of the Board
