COMPANIES HOUSE

Stanhope (Westerly Point) Limited - In Members' Voluntary Liquidation (the Company)

I refer to my appointment as liquidator of the Company by its shareholders on 16 November 2016.

I am now in a position to close the liquidation, to cease to act as liquidator and to report on the conduct of the liquidation to 12 May 2017, the date of the final general meeting of the Company. I also attach:

- Appendix 1, the information prescribed under the Insolvency Act 1986 relating to the Company;
- Appendix 2, an account of my receipts and payments in the liquidation;
- Appendix 3, an extract from the Insolvency Rules 1986 relating to the members' rights to request additional information from the liquidator; and
- Appendix 4, an extract from the Insolvency Rules 1986 relating to members' rights to challenge the liquidator's fees if excessive.

Receipts and payments

I attach at Appendix 2, an account of the liquidator's receipts and payments for the period from 16 November 2016 to 12 May 2017.

Realisation and distribution of assets

The directors' statutory declaration of solvency made on 16 November 2016 disclosed that the Company had assets of £8 comprising an intercompany receivable due from Stanhope plc.

On 4 April 2017, the Company's assets were distributed in specie to the shareholders by way of this report. The value placed upon the distribution was based upon management accounts for the period ended 31 October 2016 and the declaration of solvency dated 16 November 2016.

Liabilities

On 21 November 2016, a notice was published in The Gazette requiring creditors to prove their claims by 28 December 2016. No creditors were forthcoming as a result of this notice.

HM Revenue & Customs has provided me with confirmation that the Company has no outstanding tax liabilities and clearance to close the liquidation.

Liquidator's fees and disbursements

My fees and disbursements for the liquidation are being met by a third party with whom I will correspond separately. Accordingly, no detailed analysis is included in this report.

I attach at Appendix 4 a copy of Rule 4.148C of the Insolvency Rules 1986 relating to a liquidator's remuneration, edited for members' voluntary liquidations.

Appendix 3 – Rule 4.49E: Members' request for further information (edited for application to a members' voluntary liquidation)

1. Members of the company with at least 5% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at general meetings of the company, or with the permission of the court upon an application, may make a request in writing to the liquidator for further information about remuneration or expenses set out this report.
2. The periods in which the request or application should be made are:
 - (a) 7 business days of receipt (by the last of them in the case of an application by more than one member) of the notice and account of his administration of the winding up where it relates to the resignation of the liquidator under Rule 4.142, and
 - (b) 21 days of receipt (by the last of them in the case of an application by more than one member) of the report or draft report in any other case.
3. The liquidator must, within 14 days of receipt of the request, either:
 - (a) provide all of the information asked for, or
 - (b) so far as the liquidator considers that
 - (i) the time or cost of preparation of the information would be excessive, or
 - (ii) disclosure of the information would be prejudicial to the conduct of the liquidation or might reasonably be expected to lead to violence against any person, or
 - (iii) the liquidator is subject to an obligation of confidentiality in respect of the information, give reasons for not providing all of the information.

4. Any member of the company, who need not be the same as the member(s) who asked for the information, may apply to the court within 21 days of the giving by the liquidator of reasons for not providing all of the information asked for, or the expiry of the 14 days from the date the information was requested, and the court may make such order as it thinks just.

Appendix 4 – Rule 4.148C: Members' claim that a liquidator's remuneration is excessive (edited for application to a members' voluntary liquidation)

1. Members of the company with at least 10% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at general meetings of the company, or any member with the permission of the court, may apply to the court for one or more of the orders in paragraph 6 on the grounds that:
 - (a) the remuneration charged by the liquidator,
 - (b) the basis fixed for the liquidator's remuneration under Rule 4.148A, or
 - (c) expenses incurred by the liquidator,is or are, in all the circumstances, excessive or, in the case of an application under sub-paragraph (b), inappropriate.
2. An application must be made no later than 8 weeks (or 4 weeks when the liquidator has resigned in accordance with Rule 4.142) after receipt by the applicant of the report or account which first reports the charging of the remuneration or the incurring of the expenses in question ('the relevant report'). The court may extend these periods as it sees fit.
3. The court may, if it thinks that no sufficient cause is shown for a reduction, dismiss the application; but it must not do so unless the applicant has had the opportunity to attend the court for a hearing of which the applicant has been given at least 5 business days' notice but which is without notice to any other party.
4. If the application is not dismissed under paragraph 3, the court must fix a venue for it to be heard and give notice to the applicant accordingly.
5. The applicant must at least 14 days before the hearing send to the liquidator a notice stating the venue and accompanied by a copy of the application and of any evidence which the applicant intends to adduce in support of it.
6. If the court considers the application to be well-founded, it must make one or more of the following orders:
 - (a) an order reducing the amount of remuneration which the liquidator was entitled to charge;
 - (b) an order fixing the basis of remuneration at a reduced rate or amount;
 - (c) an order changing the basis of remuneration;
 - (d) an order that some or all of the remuneration or expenses in question be treated as not being expenses of the liquidation;
 - (e) an order that the liquidator or the liquidator's personal representative pay to the company the amount of the excess of remuneration or expenses or such part of the excess as the court may specify;and may make any other order that it thinks just; but an order under sub-paragraph (b) or (c) may be made only in respect of periods after the period covered by the relevant report.
7. Unless the court orders otherwise, the costs of the application must be paid by the applicant and are not payable as an expense of the liquidation.
